Thomas Troward, 1921      The Edinburgh Lectures on Mental Science T. Troward, 2019-11-20

In The Edinburgh Lectures on Mental Science T. Troward presents a comprehensive exploration of the correlation between mental processes and the objective world. Through his articulate prose and systematic reasoning, Troward delves into the principles of mental science, offering insights into the potency of thought, the nature of reality, and the mechanisms of personal development. The lectures, delivered in Edinburgh in the early 20th century, embody a style that blends philosophical depth with practical application, situating them within the broader context of New Thought movements that sought to unify spiritual and scientific discourse. T. Troward was a pivotal figure in the development of modern metaphysical thought, influenced by his experiences as a customs officer in colonial India and the spiritual awakening he encountered during this period. His scholarly pursuits and personal philosophy were shaped by his involvement in various esoteric and philosophical traditions, allowing him to synthesize diverse ideas into a coherent framework that champions the transformative power of the mind. This book is highly recommended for readers interested in the intersection of psychology, spirituality, and personal empowerment. Troward's clarity of thought and structured argumentation provide not only intellectual stimulation but also practical guidance for anyone seeking to harness the power of their own mind. The Edinburgh Lectures on Mental Science Thomas Troward, 2012 The work called Edinburgh Lectures on Mental Science begins with a chapter on spirit and matter and shows that the fundamental principle of everything is the spirit the ideal the purpose and object and matter is simply the form in which this spirit manifests itself A living spirit and dynamic force are the central power and active moving matter is the result There is no such thing as dead matter through all the universe there is motion continuous that is guided by a spirit an ideal power towards Ideal ends A second chapter describes the control over these spirit forces by higher intelligence and shows that there is a certain atomic as well as psychical intelligence which governs the world in every detail After describing the unity of the spirit forces showing that they are under great laws that regulate their activity he takes up the subjective and objective minds or the conscious or the subconscious activities of the brain and points out their relation and association and how far they dominate and influence the details of life The chapters on the laws of growth and receptivity showing that universal mind and individual mind are exact results and not random changing efforts Also it is possible to trace them to their causes In the next chapter intuitions and their indications and meanings and the law which control them are shown to be realities This is the extended annotated edition including an essay called A Psychological Survey On Thomas Troward
