biographies is for the first time fully recounted through their extensive intimate correspondence The year 1907 was a milestone in Edith Wharton's life and work Unlike Joseph Conrad who had virtually overnight forsaken his native land for an adopted one Mrs Wharton's transition required several years of shuttling back and forth across the Atlantic At first all of Europe beckoned to her but from 1907 on Wharton would claim Paris and after the war the French countryside as her home All the while her work long regarded as being exclusively American followed a similar trajectory 'Modernist' Women Writers and Narrative Art Kathleen Wheeler,1994-09 This book is an examination of the narrative strategies and stylistic devices of modernist writers and of earlier writers normally associated with late realism In the case of the latter Edith Wharton Kate Chopin and Willa Cather are shown to have engaged in an ironic critique of realism by exploring the inadequacies of this form to express human experience and by revealing hidden and contradictory assumptions By drawing upon insights from feminist theory deconstruction and revisions of new historicism and by restoring aspects of formalist analysis Kathleen Wheeler traces the details of these various dialogues with the literary tradition etched into structural stylistic and thematic elements of the novels and short stories discussed These seven writers are not only discussed in detail they are also related to a literary tradition of dozens of other women writers of the twentieth century as Jean Rhys Katherine Mansfield Stevie Smith and Jane Bowles are shown to take the developments of the earlier three writers into full modernism
