Educating For Real:

Report of the Commissioner of Education ,1898 Proceedings, ... Annual Session of the North Dakota Education Association North Dakota Education Association,1911 Educating for Durable Solutions Christine Monaghan,2021-04-08 What is education for an unknowable future In Educating for Durable Solutions Christine Monaghan explores how refugees and policymakers have answered this question over time by reconstructing the contemporary history of education in Kenya's Dadaab and Kakuma refugee camps Through oral histories and archival research Monaghan shows how since the founding of both camps in 1991 refugees and policymakers have conceptualized developed implemented and changed refugee education programs She also shows why and how despite these changes real challenges persist in refugee education in Dadaab Kakuma and other camps throughout the world these include high numbers of out of school children and youth high student to teacher ratios unpredictable funding and persistent questions regarding what refugee education is for The author shifts focus from debates over the impacts of specific policies and programs and explores instead how and why different policies and programs were implemented whether they led to meaningful changes in the long standing challenges of refugee education She finds that when and where real changes occurred individuals or small groups of refugees and policymakers acted with tremendous agency and as tireless advocates Education in the Democratic Republic of Congo ,2005-01-01 This publication examines key issues related to the development of the education sector in Democratic Republic of Congo focusing on the primary and secondary levels Topics discussed include background context structure of the education system education finance learning outcomes and conditions and educational quality aspects as well as a chapter on the organisation quality and financing of the higher education sector Education in Vietnam Jonathan D London,2011 Vietnam is a country on the move Yet contemporary Vietnam's education system is at a crossroads Rapid economic growth has permitted rapid increases in the scale and scope of formal schooling but there is a prevailing sense that the current education system is inadequate to the country's needs Sunny assessments of Vietnam's achievements in the sphere of education have given way to a realization that the country lacks skilled workers Some have even spoken of an education crisis These are not abstract concerns What is occurring in Vietnam's education system today has broad implications for the country's social political economic and cultural development Featuring contributions from scholars and policy analysts from within and outside Vietnam Education in Vietnam addresses key issues pertaining to the political economy of education the provision and payment for primary and secondary education and the development of vocational and tertiary education The book marks an important contribution to existing understandings of Vietnam's education system and contributes to broader understandings of social conditions and change in contemporary Vietnam Critical Legal Education as a Subversive Activity Helen Gibbon,Ben Golder,Lucas Lixinski,Marina Nehme,Prue Vines,2015-10-16 In an age when everyone aspires to teach critical thinking skills in the classroom what does it mean to be a subversive law teacher Who or what might a subversive law teacher seek to subvert the authority of the law the university their own authority as teachers perhaps Are law students ripe for subversion agents of or impediments to subversion Do they learn to ask critical questions Responding to the provocation in the classic book Teaching as a Subversive Activity by Postman and Weingartner the idea that teaching could or even should be subversive still holds true today and its premise is particularly relevant in the context of legal education We therefore draw on this classic book to discuss in the present volume the consideration of research into legal education as lifetime learning as creating meaning as transformative and as developing world changing thinking within the legal context The volume offers research into classroom experiences and theoretical and historical interrogations of what it means to teach law subversively Primarily aimed at legal educators and doctoral students in law planning careers as academics its insights speak directly to tensions in higher education more broadly Journal of Education ,1917

Research in Education ,1972 Education, Gender And Anxiety Jenny Shaw,2003-12-16 This text explores the scope for applying psychoanalytical ideas to gender inequalities that are still inherent in the educational system It covers areas including gender differences in subject choice and polarisation in reading writing and drawing and suggests areas for future research Indian Education ,1937 Co-education in Practice John Haden Badley,1914 International Journal of Evaluation and Research in Education Lina Handayani, Relationship Domain of Form Six Teachers Thinking in Teaching with External Factors of Form Six Teachers Mokhtar bin Pet Ahmad Johari Hj Sihes 1 7 Primary Science Teaching to Bicolano Students In Bicol English or Filipino Jualim Datiles Vela 8 15 Socio Economic Background and Access to Internet as Correlates of Students Achievement in Agricultural Science Sunday Paul Adegoke Modupe M Osokoya 16 21 Students Satisfaction Toward The Services of The Chemical Laboratory Astin Lukum Yoseph Paramata 22 29 The Effectiveness of Facebook Group Discussions on Writing Performance A Study in Matriculation College Ng Sau Ping Mahendran Maniam 30 37 Correlation between Teacher s PCK Pedagogical Content Knowledge and Student s Motivation in Primary School Ika Maryani Sri Tuter Martaningsih 38 44 Workplace Essential Skills ,2000 Higher education's response to the Covid-19 pandemic Sjur Bergan,Tony Gallagher,Ronaldo Munck,Hilligje van't Land,2021-02-15 A particularly timely book given the high proportion of international students and staff in higher education Public health was the immediate concern when the Covid 19 pandemic struck in Asia then in Europe and other parts of the world The response of our education systems is no less vital Higher education has played a major role in responding to the pandemic and it must help shape a better more equitable and just post Covid 19 world This book explores the various responses of higher education to the pandemic across Europe and North America with contributions also from Africa Asia and South America The contributors write from the perspective of higher education leaders with institutional responsibility as well as from that of public authorities or specialists in specific aspects of higher education policy and practice Some contributions analyse how specific higher education institutions reacted while others reflect on the impact of Covid 19 on key issues such as internationalisation finance academic freedom and institutional autonomy inclusion and equality and public responsibility The book describes the various ways in which higher education is facing the Covid 19 pandemic It is designed to help universities specifically their staff and students as well as their partners contribute to a more sustainable and democratic future

Science/Technology/Society as Reform in Science Education Robert Eugene Yager,1996-01-01 Science Technology Society S T S is a reform effort to broaden science as a discipline in schools and colleges to relate science to other facets of the curriculum and to relate science specifically to technology and to the society that supports and produces new conceptualizations of both S T S is also defined as the teaching and learning of science technology in the context of human experience It focuses on a method of teaching that recognizes the importance that experience in the real world has on the learning process And it recognizes that real learning can occur only when the learner is engaged and able to construct her or his own meaning Science Technology Society As Reform in Science Education is rich with examples of such teaching and learning It includes impressive research evidence that illustrates that progress has been made and goals have been met For teachers and administrators alike this book provides and validates new visions for science education

Cracks in the Ivory Tower Jason Brennan,Phillip Magness,2019-04-01 Academics extol high minded ideals such as serving the common good and promoting social justice Universities aim to be centers of learning that find the best and brightest students treat them fairly and equip them with the knowledge they need to lead better lives But as Jason Brennan and Phillip Magness show in Cracks in the Ivory Tower American universities fall far short of this ideal At almost every level they find that students professors and administrators are guided by self interest rather than ethical concerns College bureaucratic structures also often incentivize and reward bad behavior while disincentivizing and even punishing good behavior Most students faculty and administrators are out to serve themselves and pass their costs onto others The problems are deep and pervasive most academic marketing and advertising is semi fraudulent To justify their own pay raises and higher budgets administrators hire expensive and unnecessary staff Faculty exploit students for tuition dollars through gen ed requirements Students hardly learn anything and cheating is pervasive At every level academics disguise their pursuit of self interest with high faluting moral language Marshaling an array of data Brennan and Magness expose many of the ethical failings of academia and in turn reshape our understanding of how such high power institutions run their business Everyone knows academia is dysfunctional Brennan and Magness show the problems are worse than anyone realized Academics have only themselves to blame

Trivializing Teacher Education Dale D. Johnson,Bonnie Johnson,Stephen J. Farenga,Daniel Ness,2005-07-21 Trivializing Teacher Education The Accreditation Squeeze presents a critical analysis of the National Council for Accreditation of Teacher Education NCATE This accreditation organization has been in existence for 50 years and claims to accredit approximately 700 teacher education programs that prepare two thirds of the nation s teachers There is no convincing research however that NCATE's stamp of approval makes a difference in teacher preparation programs or in beginning teachers' competencies. There is evidence that NCATE is masterful at self-promotion, marketing, and aligning itself with policy makers and politicians. This book illustrates the questionable NCATE processes and requirements and exposes the exorbitant costs accrued by universities seeking NCATE accreditation. It points out that the NCATE standards do not address the major issues that impact teaching and learning. The book highlights NCATE's support of teacher testing in the face of evidence that such tests lack predictive validity. It shows how NCATE is reaching out to accredit for-profit organizations and how it sends its evaluators to review international programs in the Middle East. The book calls on NCATE to make the professional backgrounds of its examiners, reviewers, board members, and staff transparent. It addresses the attention teacher educators must devote to mindless, trivial NCATE demands that usurp time that should be spent on their students and their research. This book urges teacher educators, college faculties, and administrators, state education officials and legislators, parents of school-age children, and concerned citizens to open their eyes to this powerful organization, NCATE, and to examine what it has done to teacher education in the last half century.
