Chinn, 2012-02-23 This best selling text offers a balanced approach to issues as it explores today's multicultural landscape and how to prepare teachers to use equitable and reflective decision making in their multicultural classrooms The ninth edition of Multicultural Education in a Pluralistic Society was designed to introduce prospective teachers to the different cultural groups to which students and their families belong In this time of extensive standardized testing we must remember that students are the center of teaching We have to understand and build on their cultures and experiences to help them learn at the highest levels In this regard this book provides background on the diversity of the nation's students explores the social and educational issues faced by teachers in diverse classrooms and guides the reader to think critically and reflectively about their decisions as a teacher in a multicultural education classroom The Challenge of Pluralism F. Clark Power, Daniel K. Lapsley, 1992 The politics of pluralism has long been an intractable characteristic of American public education Today perhaps more so than ever educators grapple with an awareness of the fact that liberal societies cannot promote a particular vision of the moral life and still respect and uphold the multi cultural values of a pluralistic society The Challenge of Pluralism examines the problematic issue of the role of moral education in a pluralistic society The book takes an interdisciplinary focus and contributors include well known experts in such fields as psychology educational policy studies history of education political history curriculum philosophy of education theology and gender studies The essays delve into the myriad reasons for the moral education controversy and examine how the contemporary debate over the place of moral education in a pluralist society takes place within the larger context of the current arguments over the quality of American education In addition to a historical examination of the values pluralism issue the volume offers critiques of specific educational regimens as they address the problem of moral education This volume offers relevant pertinent discussions that will benefit professional educators social scientists and any individual concerned about the quality of American education and its ability to provide adequate moral and values education Contributors Walter Niegorski Michael W Apple Rev Michael Himes Dwight Boyd Ronnie A F Blakeney Charles D Blakeney Daniel K Lapsley William Reese Michael R Olneck Ann Diller James W Fowler and F Clark Power
