woman who lived in and for others for her daughter her friends and at a greater distance for the brilliant circle of distinguished men and women of which she herself was so important a figure Her letters are made up of incident of meetings of conversations they are full of references to the topics then uppermost they draw half their charm from the personality of the writer Literature of this sort cannot stand alone To enjoy it to the full we must know with some minuteness the history of the times in which it was written and of the people to whom it was written The knowledge of these things is now spreading wider every year as we become familiar through originals or translations with the masterpieces of foreign languages For instance probably the best French sketch of Madame de Sevigne is from the pen of M Sainte Beuve the great critic whom Mr Arnold acknowledges for his master About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
