Signs of Dissent Dawn Fulton,2008 Maryse Condé is a Guadeloupean writer and critic whose work has challenged the categories of race language gender and geography that inform contemporary literary and critical debates In Signs of Dissent the first full length study in English on Condé Dawn Fulton situates this award winning author's work in the context of current theories of cultural identity in order to foreground Condé's unique contributions to these discussions Staging a dialogue between Condé's novels and the field of postcolonial studies Fulton argues that Condé enacts a strategy of critical incorporations in her fiction imitating and transforming many of the prevailing narratives of postcolonial theory so as to explore their theoretical and conceptual limits By rejecting the facile classification of her work as Caribbean African or feminist Condé has gained a reputation as an iconoclast But Fulton proposes that behind this public image of provocation lies an incisive reflection on the burdens of representation imposed on the non Western writer and that Condé's novels expose the ways in which postcolonial criticism can be complicit in constructing such burdens even as it questions them Signs of Dissent offers one of the most comprehensive assessments of Condé's literary production to date illuminating its exceptional role in shaping a dialogue between francophone studies and the English dominated field of postcolonialism Orphan texts Laura Peters,2018-09-30 In one of the first studies of its kind Orphan texts seeks to insert the orphan and the problems its existence poses in the larger critical areas of the family and childhood in Victorian culture In doing so Laura Peters considers certain canonical texts alongside lesser known works from popular culture in order to establish the context in which discourses of orphanhood operated The study argues that the prevalence of the orphan figure can be explained by considering the family The family and all it came to represent legitimacy race and national belonging was in crisis In order to reaffirm itself the family needed a scapegoat it found one in the orphan figure As one who embodied the loss of the family the orphan figure came to represent a dangerous threat to the family and the family reaffirmed itself through the expulsion of this threatening difference Orphan texts will be of interest to final year undergraduates postgraduates academics and those interested in the areas of Victorian literature Victorian studies postcolonial studies history and popular culture Writing and Victorianism J.B. Bullen,2014-06-06 Writing and Victorianism asks the fundamental question what is Victorianism and offers a number of answers taken from methods and approaches which have been developed over the last ten years This collection of essays written by both new and established scholars from Britain and the U S A develops many of the themes of nineteenth century studies which have lately come to the fore touching upon issues such as drugs class power and gender Some essays reflect the interaction of word and image in the nineteenth century and the notion of the city as spectacle others look at Victorian science finding a connection between writing and the growth of psychology and psychiatry on the one hand and with the power of scientific materialism on the other As well as key figures such as Dickens Tennyson and Wilde a host of new names are introduced including working class writers attempting to define themselves and writers in the Periodical press who once anonymous exercised a great influence over Victorian politics taste and social ideals From these observations there emerges a need for self definition in Victorian writing History ancestry and the past all play their part in figuring the present in the nineteenth century and many of these studies foreground the problem of literary social and psychological identity

Wuthering Heights - Ed. Heywood Emily Brontë, 2001-12-14 Critics often comment on the importance of landscape in Wuthering Heights and in this edition Christopher Heywood locates the text more precisely than previous editions amid Yorkshire's limestone north and moorland south drawing out the importance of the region's slaveholding society Heywood also makes an important contribution to scholarship arguing persuasively for a re-structuring of the chapter and section breaks Finally this edition includes a variety of appendices that help to illuminate the novel's historical background

Arms and the Woman Helen M. Cooper, Adrienne Auslander Munich, Susan Merrill Squier, 2000-11-15 Although the themes of women's complicity in and resistance to war have been part of literature from early times they have not been fully integrated into conventional conceptions of the war narrative Combining feminist literary criticism with the emerging field of feminist war theory this collection explores the role of gender as an organizing principle in the war system and reveals how literature perpetuates the ancient myth of arms and the man The volume shows how the gendered conception of war has both shaped literary texts and formed the literary canon It identifies and interrogates the conventional war text with its culturally determined split between warlike men and peaceful women and it confirms that women's role in relation to war is much more complex and complicitous than such essentializing suggests The contributors examine a wide range of familiar texts from fresh perspectives and bring new texts to light Collectively these essays range in time from the Trojan War to the nuclear age The contributors are June Jordan Lorraine Helms Patricia Francis Cholakian Jane E Schultz Margaret R Higonnet James Longenbach Laura Stempel Mumford Sharon O'Brien Jane Marcus Sara Friedrichsmeyer Susan Schweik Carol J Adams Esther Fuchs Barbara Freeman Gillian Brown Helen M Cooper Adrienne Auslander Munich and Susan Merrill Squier

Gothic Pathologies D. Punter, 1998-08-19 This is a wide-ranging book about aspects of the Gothic from classic texts such as Frankenstein and Wuthering Heights to contemporary fiction by Iain Banks William Gibson and many others It approaches the texts through looking at the opposition between the Gothic and the law suggesting ways in which Gothic at all points produces transgression It looks at horror fiction by for example Stephen King and Robert Bloch as well as stories from China and Hong Kong and suggests new ways in which contemporary literary and psychological theory might relate to and address the Gothic

Sexual Personae Camille Paglia, 1990-09-10 From ancient Egypt through the nineteenth century Sexual Personae explores the provocative connections between art and pagan ritual between Emily Dickinson and the Marquis de Sade between Lord Byron and Elvis Presley It ultimately challenges the cultural assumptions of both conservatives and traditional liberals
