Eddie Holds On Adventures With Eddie:

1950s Television Advertising Vincent Terrace, 2025-01-05 Winston tastes good like a cigarette should and You'll wonder where the yellow went when you brush your teeth with Pepsodent are only two of the many slogans associated with advertising on television in the 1950s. There were celebrities like Marilyn Monroe, Barbara Eden, and Peter Lorre who performed in commercials; there were shows built around a single product, e.g., The Texaco Star Theater and The Colgate Comedy Hour; there were numerous premiums offered to children, e.g., The Sky King, Detecto Microscope, The Mickey Mouse Club Magazine, and gimmicks used by sponsors to attract viewers to their shows, e.g., Win a Wagon Train, Pony, and The Howdy Doody Smile Contest. This is the first and only book of its kind; it is a nostalgic trivia-filled history presented through the actual programs and commercials of the 1950s. In addition to two extensively detailed sections which have never been released online or in any other book, Sponsor and Program and Program and Sponsor, rare television theme songs with their original sponsor tags, products mentioned in the theme songs are also presented. It all began on July 1, 1941, when WNBT, the NBC affiliate in New York City, televised the first commercial, a ten-second spot for Bulova Watches. Neuropsychological Assessment and Intervention for Childhood and Adolescent Disorders Cynthia A. Riccio, Jeremy R. Sullivan, Morris J. Cohen, 2010-01-28 A compelling and compassionate case study approach to a broad range of neuropsychological disorders. Neuropsychological Assessment and Intervention for Childhood and Adolescent Disorders focuses on the neuropsychological assessment and evidence-based practices available for assessing and treating children living with the etiological and neurological components of various disorders. Each chapter provides one or more case studies along with helpful background information, assessment results, and recommendations based on assessment data. Bridging science and practice, the book reviews the scientific literature, research on clinical implications, and evidence-based treatment of such disorders as Dyslexia and Dyscalculia, Specific Language Impairment, Dysphasia, Autism Spectrum Disorders, Attention Deficit Hyperactivity Disorder, Tourette Syndrome, Traumatic Brain Injury, Childhood Cancer, Epilepsy, Cerebrovascular Disease, Low Birth Weight, Environmental Toxin Exposure, Neurotoxins, Pregnancy and Subsequent Disorders, Chromosomal Anomalies, Neurocutaneous Disorders, Metabolic Disorders. Each case study complements the content of each chapter by illustrating how the assessment process can inform intervention efforts for children. In addition, the cases humanize the effects of various disorders and demonstrate the usefulness of neuropsychological information in treatment and intervention planning, especially within children's educational and social contexts. Collected Works encompasses the prolific contributions of one of the 19th century's most influential authors in children's literature. Renowned for her iconic Elsie Dinsmore series, these collected works reflect Finley's intricate storytelling that merges moral didacticism with the burgeoning ideals of womanhood and personal virtue prevalent in her time. Rich in sentimental prose and vivid characterizations, her writing is emblematic of the Victorian literary context, offering readers an immersive glimpse into the ethical frameworks that shaped the lives of young women in the post-Civil War era. Martha Finley, born in 1828 and a product of a deeply religious upbringing, channeled her personal experiences and Christian values into her work. Her strong convictions about morality and education were fueled by a desire to positively influence young readers during a time when societal expectations for women were evolving. Finley's dedication to storytelling was not merely a professional endeavor but a vocational mission to inspire and uplift the next generation, making her a forerunner in children's literature. For readers seeking a profound exploration of 19th-century values and the trials of youth, Martha Finley's Collected Works is an essential addition to any literary collection. It offers both historical insight and timeless themes of resilience and morality, making it a thought-provoking read for scholars and casual readers alike. Elizabeth Bowen Neil Corcoran,2004-09-16 Elizabeth Bowen is a writer who is still too little appreciated Neil Corcoran presents here a critical study of her novels short stories family history and essays and shows that her work both inherits from the Modernist movement and transforms its experimental traditions Elizabeth Bowen The Enforced Return explores how she adapts Irish Protestant Gothic as a means of interpreting Irish experience during the Troubles of the 1920s and the Second World War and also as a way of defining the defencelessness of those enduring the Blitz in wartime London She employs versions of the Jamesian child as a way of offering a critique of the treatment of children in the European novel of adultery and indeed implicitly of the Jamesian child itself Corcoran relates the various kinds of return and reflex in her work notably the presence of the supernatural but also the sense of being haunted by reading to both the Freudian concept of the return of the repressed and to T S Eliot s conception of the auditory imagination as a return to the origin Making greater interpretative use of extra fictional materials than previous Bowen critics notably her wartime reports from neutral Ireland to Churchill s government and the diaries of her wartime lover the Canadian diplomat Charles Ritchie Corcoran reveals how her fiction merges personal story with public history Employing a wealth of original research his radical new readings propose that Bowen is as important as Samuel Beckett to twentieth century literary studies a writer who returns us anew to the histories of both her time and ours
