Edition of One Eugene B. Power, 1990 A Companion to the History of the Book Simon Eliot, Jonathan Rose, 2011-08-24
A COMPANION TO THE HISTORY OF THE BOOK A COMPANION TO THE HISTORY OF THE BOOK Edited by Simon Eliot and Jonathan Rose As a stimulating overview of the multidimensional present state of the field the Companion has no peer Choice If you want to understand how cultures come into being endure and change then you need to come to terms with the rich and often surprising history Of the book Eliot and Rose have done a fine job Their volume can be heartily recommended Adrian Johns Technology and Culture From the early Sumerian clay tablet through to the emergence of the electronic text this Companion provides a continuous and coherent account of the history of the book A team of expert contributors draws on the latest research in order to offer a cogent transcontinental narrative Many of them use illustrative examples and case studies of well known texts conveying the excitement surrounding this rapidly developing field The Companion is organized around four distinct approaches to the history of the book First it introduces the variety of methods used by book historians and allied specialists from the long established discipline of bibliography to newer IT based approaches Next it provides a broad chronological survey of the forms and content of texts The third section situates the book in the context of text culture as a whole while the final section addresses broader issues such as literacy copyright and the future of the book Contributors to this volume Michael Albin Martin Andrews Rob Banham Megan L Benton Michelle P Brown Marie Frangoise Cachin Hortensia Calvo Charles Chadwyck Healey M T Clanchy Stephen Colclough Patricia Crain J S Edgren Simon Eliot John Feather David Finkelstein David Greetham Robert A Gross Deana Heath Lotte Hellinga T H Howard Hill Peter Kornicki Beth Luey Paul Luna Russell L Martin Ill Jean Yves Mollier Angus Phillips Eleanor Robson Cornelia Roemer Jonathan Rose Emile G L Schrijver David J Shaw Graham Shaw Claire Squires Rietje van Vliet James Wald Rowan Watson Alexis Weedon Adriaan van der Weel Wayne A Wiegand Eva Hemmungs Wirt n We the Dead Brian Michael Murphy, 2022-05-16 Locked away in refrigerated vaults sanitized by gas chambers and secured within bombproof caverns deep under mountains are America s most prized materials the ever expanding collection of records that now accompany each of us from birth to death This data complex backs up and protects our most vital information against decay and destruction and yet it binds us to corporate and government institutions whose power is also preserved in its bunkers infrastructures and sterilized spaces We the Dead traces the emergence of the data complex in the early twentieth century and guides readers through its expansion in a series of moments when Americans thought they were living just before the end of the world Depression era eugenicists feared racial contamination and the downfall of the white American family while contemporary technologists seek ever denser and more durable materials for storing data from microetched metal discs to cryptocurrency keys encoded in synthetic DNA Artfully written and packed with provocative ideas this haunting book illuminates the dark places of the data complex and the ways it increasingly blurs the lines between human and machine biological body and data body life and digital afterlife

The Transformation of Historical Research in the Digital Age Ian Milligan, 2022-08-18 Historians make research queries on Google ProQuest and the HathiTrust They garner information from keyword searches carried out across millions of documents their research shaped by algorithms they rarely understand Historians often then visit archives in whirlwind trips marked by thousands of digital photographs subsequently explored on computer monitors from the comfort of their offices They may then take to social media or other digital platforms their work shaped through these new forms of pre and post publication review Almost all aspects of the historian's research workflow have been transformed by digital technology In other words all historians not just Digital Historians are implicated in this shift The Transformation of Historical Research in the Digital Age equips historians to be self-conscious practitioners by making these shifts explicit and exploring their long term impact This title is also available as Open Access on Cambridge Core

Old Books and Digital Publishing: Eighteenth-Century Collections Online Stephen H. Gregg, 2021-01-28 This is a history of Eighteenth Century Collections Online a database of over 180 000 titles Published by Gale in 2003 it has had an enormous impact on the study of the eighteenth century Like many commercial digital archives ECCO's continuing development obscures its precedents This Element examines its prehistory as first a computer catalogue of eighteenth century print and then as a commercial microfilm collection before moving to the digitisation and development of the interfaces to ECCO as well as Gale's various partnerships and licensing deals An essential aspect of this Element is how it explores the socio-cultural and technological debates around the access to old books from the 1930s to the present day Stephen Gregg demonstrates how these contexts powerfully shape the way ECCO works to this day The Element's aim is to make us better users and better readers of digital archives This title is available as Open Access on Cambridge Core

Paper Knowledge Lisa Gitelman, 2014-05-07 Paper Knowledge is a remarkable book about the mundane the library card the promissory note the movie ticket the PDF Portable Document Format It is a media history of the document Drawing examples from the 1870s the 1930s the 1960s and today Lisa Gitelman thinks across the media that the document form has come to inhabit over the last 150 years including letterpress printing typing and carbon paper mimeograph microfilm offset printing photocopying and scanning Whether examining late nineteenth century commercial or job printing or the Xerox machine and the role of reproduction in our understanding of the document Gitelman reveals a keen eye for vernacular uses of technology She tells nuanced anecdote-filled stories of the waning of old technologies and the emergence of new Along the way she discusses documentary matters such as the relation between twentieth century technological innovation and the management of paper and the interdependence of computer programming and documentation Paper Knowledge is destined to set a new agenda for media studies

The Michigan Alumnus, 1989 In volumes 1-8 the final number consists of the Commencement annual Sadye, 1901-1991, 1992 Shakespeare / Text Claire M. L. Bourne, 2021-07-29 Shakespeare Text sets new agendas for the study and use of the Shakespearean text Written by 20 leading experts on textual matters each chapter challenges a single entrenched binary such as book theatre source adaptation text paratext canon apocrypha sense nonsense extant ephemeral material digital and original copy that has come to both define and limit the way we read analyze teach perform and edit Shakespeare today Drawing on methods from book history bibliography editorial theory library science the digital humanities theatre studies and literary criticism the collection as a whole proposes that our understanding of Shakespeare and early modern drama more broadly changes radically when either or approaches to the Shakespearean text are reconfigured The chapters in Shakespeare Text make strong cases for challenging received wisdom and offer new portable methods of treating the text in its myriad instantiations that will be useful to scholars editors theatre practitioners teachers and librarians

The Library of Congress Jane Aikin, 2025 This is the first comprehensive history of the Library of Congress that is not merely about one aspect or another e.g. buildings ornamentation collections timeline highlights Jane Aikin engages deeply with a wealth of primary and secondary sources to weave a narrative of the individuals events and controversies that have shaped this venerable institution Drawing millions of visitors a year the Library serves as the research arm of Congress the home of the U.S. Copyright Office and as a public forum for artistic and literary culture Never designated by law as the national library of the United States it nonetheless occupies that place in the national imagination This history of 13 male Librarians culminates in 2016 with the swearing in of Carla Hayden the first woman and first African American Librarian of Congress The narrative is punctuated by stories of key donors and pivotal performances by poets authors and celebrities

Authors and Apparatus Monika Dommann, 2019-03-15 Copyright is under siege From file sharing to vast library scanning projects new technologies actors and attitudes toward intellectual property threaten the value of creative work However while digital media and the Internet have made making and sharing perfect copies of original works almost effortless debates about protecting authors' rights are nothing new In this sweeping account of the evolution of copyright law since the mid nineteenth century Monika Dommann explores how radical media changes from sheet music and phonographs to photocopiers and networked information systems have challenged and transformed legal and cultural concept of authors' rights Dommann provides a critical transatlantic perspective on developments in copyright law and mechanical reproduction of words and music charting how artists media companies and lawmakers in the United States and western Europe approached the complex tangle of technological innovation intellectual property and consumer interests From the seemingly innocuous music box invented around 1800 to BASF's magnetic tapes and Xerox machines she demonstrates how copyright has been continuously destabilized by emerging technologies requiring new legal norms to regulate commercial and private copying practices Without minimizing digital media's radical disruption to notions of intellectual property Dommann uncovers the deep historical roots of the conflict between copyright and media a story that can inform present day debates over the legal protection of authorship

Historical Studies in Information Science Trudi Bellardo Hahn, Michael Keeble Buckland, 1998 The 25 contributions to this volume largely reprinted from recent special issues of three information science journals devoted to historical topics address an array of topics including Paul Otlet and his successors techniques tools and systems organizations and individuals theoretical issues and literature Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR Publishing for Libraries Charles Chadwyck-Healey,2020-01-09 Since the 1960s Charles Chadwyck Healey has been at the forefront of library publishing and the company he founded in 1973 remains a familiar brand name to academic libraries around the world In this wide ranging book Chadwyck Healey charts his personal history of this constantly changing field from the earliest days of reprint publishing through microfilm microfiche and CD ROM publishing to the current digital age He describes the early years of using computers in publishing and the introduction of the CD ROM which was soon supplanted by online Chadwyck Healey was one of the first publishers to use both these new media Focusing upon leading publishing endeavours around the world in the USA UK Europe and post Soviet Russia this book includes vivid and informative first hand accounts of such landmark publishing projects as the US National Security Archive the catalogue of the British Library on CD ROM and Literature Online LION Digital Victorians Paul Fyfe,2024-10-29 Perhaps no period better clarifies our current crisis of digital information than the nineteenth century Self aware about its own epochal telecommunications changes and awash in a flood of print the nineteenth century confronted the consequences of its media shifts in ways that still define contemporary responses In this authoritative new work Paul Fyfe argues that writing about Victorian new media continues to shape reactions to digital change Among its unexpected legacies are what we call digital humanities characterized by the self reflexiveness disciplinary reconfigurations and debates that have made us digital Victorians so to speak struggling again to resituate humanities practices amid another technological revolution Engaging with writers such as Thomas De Quincey George Eliot George du Maurier Henry James and Robert Louis Stevenson who confronted the new media of their day Fyfe shows how we have inherited Victorian anxieties about quantitative and machine driven reading professional obsolescence in the face of new technology and more telling a longer history of how writers readers and scholars adapt to dramatically changing media ecologies then and now The result is a predigital history for the digital humanities through nineteenth century encounters with telecommunication networks privacy intrusions quantitative reading methods remediation and their effects on literary professionals As Fyfe demonstrates well before computers the Victorians were already digital Holy Digital Grail Michelle R. Warren,2022-03-29 Medieval books that survive today have been through a lot singed by fire mottled by mold eaten by insects annotated by readers cut into fragments or damaged through well intentioned preservation efforts In this book Michelle Warren tells the story of one such manuscript an Arthurian romance with textual origins in twelfth century England now diffused across the twenty first century internet This trajectory has been propelled by a succession of technologies from paper manufacture to printing to computers Together they have made literary history itself a cultural technology indebted to colonial capitalism Bringing to bear media theory medieval literary studies and book history Warren shows how digital infrastructures change texts and books even very old ones In the process she uncovers a practice of tech medievalism that weaves through the history of computing since the mid twentieth century metaphors indebted to King Arthur and the Holy Grail are integral to some of the technologies that now sustain medieval books on the internet This infrastructural approach to book history illuminates how the meaning of literature is made by many people besides canonical authors translators scribes patrons readers collectors librarians cataloguers editors photographers software programmers and many more Situated at the intersections of the digital humanities library sciences literary history and book history Holy Digital Grail offers new ways to conceptualize authorship canon formation and the definition of a book Distinguished Classics of Reference Publishing James

Rettig,1992-02-04 An examination of how and why certain books have become the most widely used reference works in American libraries From Who's Who and World Book to Turabian's Manual it explores the origins influence and possible future for each of these works Information Hunters Kathy Lee Peiss,2020 The country of the mind must also attack Librarians and collectors go to war The wild scramble for documents Acquisitions on a Grand Scale Fugitive Records of War Book Burning American Style Not a Library but a Large Depot of Loot Annual Review of Information Science & Technology Blaise Cronin,2006-10 ARIST published annually since 1966 is a landmark publication within the information science community It surveys the landscape of information science and technology providing an analytical authoritative and accessible overview of recent trends and significant developments The range of topics varies considerably reflecting the dynamism of the discipline and the diversity of theoretical and applied perspectives While ARIST continues to cover key topics associated with classical information science e.g bibliometrics information retrieval editor Blaise Cronin is selectively expanding its footprint in an effort to connect information science more tightly with cognate academic and professional communities Database of Dreams Rebecca Lemov,2015-11-24 Just a few years before the dawn of the digital age Harvard psychologist Bert Kaplan set out to build the largest database of sociological information ever assembled It was the mid 1950s and social scientists were entranced by the human insights promised by Rorschach tests and other innovative scientific protocols Kaplan along with anthropologist A I Hallowell and a team of researchers sought out a varied range of non European subjects among remote and largely non literate peoples around the globe Recording their dreams stories and innermost thoughts in a vast database Kaplan envisioned future researchers accessing the data through the cutting edge Readex machine Almost immediately however technological developments and the obsolescence of the theoretical framework rendered the project irrelevant and eventually it was forgotten Scholarly Publishing ,1993 A journal for authors and publishers
