A History of Education in East Africa O. W. Furley,Thomas Watson,1978

Historical Dictionary of Kenya Robert M. Maxon,Thomas P.

Ofcansky,2014-09-09 Kenya has a long and complex history that began thousands of years ago Indeed some archaeologists contend that the country was the cradle of mankind or at the very least one of the places that was home to the earliest hominids In later centuries Kenya s strategic location astride the Indian Ocean and the East African littoral attracted numerous foreign peoples some of the most significant of which have been the Americans Arabs British Chinese French

Germans and Portuguese Additionally Africans from throughout the subcontinent have settled in Kenya to escape conflict or political persecution while others wanted an opportunity to begin a new life As a result of being a gateway to the world the country traditionally has been one of the most important business cultural diplomatic and political centers in Africa Although it has maintained this reputation during the post independence period Kenya like most African countries has been plagued by an increasing array of complex economic political and social problems This third edition of Historical Dictionary of Kenya provides a starting point for those interested in any of the phases of Kenya s historical evolution This is done through a chronology an introductory essay appendixes and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has 500 cross referenced entries on important personalities politics economy foreign relations religion and culture This book is an excellent access point for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about Kenya

The Development of Tertiary Education in the Eastern African Region Isabella M. Musyoka-Kamere, Daniel Namusonge Sifuna, Kisilu

Kombo, 2023-11-16 This book gives a riveting account of the higher education advancements made in five East African countries each presenting unique characteristics While some of the counties enjoyed relative calm throughout their years of growth and development others have endured a turbulent past marked by civil war coups and other forms of unrest including one of the most atrocious genocide events ever recorded in the history of mankind It is a known fact that the past defines the present and describes the future The book specifically tracks the historical development of teacher education technical and vocational education and training and university education in Kenya Uganda Tanzania Rwanda and Burundi The extensive research and up to date accounts provide a rich overview of tertiary education in the five countries with candid reviews of the past the current situation and perspectives on the future The book is a refreshing addition to the books of history and education and a must read for students professionals and policy makers in the field of higher education as well as scholars of history

Natural Science Education, Indigenous Knowledge, and Sustainable Development in Rural and Urban Schools in Kenya Darren M. O'Hern,Yoshiko Nozaki,2014-05-05 Through a multi sited qualitative study of three Kenyan secondary schools in rural Taita Hills and urban Nairobi the volume explores the ways the dichotomy between Western and indigenous knowledge operates in Kenyan education In particular it examines views on natural sciences expressed by the students teachers the state s curricula documents and schools exam oriented pedagogical approaches O Hern and Nozaki question state and local education policies and practices as they relate to natural science subjects such as agriculture biology and geography and their dismissal of indigenous knowledge about environment nature and sustainable development They suggest the need to develop critical postcolonial curriculum policies and practices of science education to overcome knowledge oriented binaries emphasize sustainable development and address the problems of inequality the center and periphery divide and social cultural and environmental injustices in Kenya and by implication elsewhere In an era of environmental crisis and devastation education that supports sustainability and survival of our planet is needed Within a broader sociopolitical context of post colonialism and globalization this volume points out possibilities and challenges to achieve such an education The authors propose a critical postcolonial approach that acknowledges the contextual and situational production of all knowledge and that de dichotomizes indigenous from Western scientific knowledge Eric Rico Gutstein Professor Curriculum and Instruction University of Illinois at Chicago USA

Thus Until Emilia Ilieva,Reuben Matheka,2025-08-04 Thus Until A History of Egerton University is a thorough historical chronological and well researched account of Egerton University from a whites only college when it started in 1939 through to the expansion it has experienced over the years culminating in being a full university More than any other university in Kenya Egerton has a long and colourful history but like all the other universities it has suffered from the political economic and financial challenges of the time especially since the double intake of the 1990s Chapter One provides the required background to the study highlighting agricultural and educational policies and steering away from the Happy Valley hype so characteristic of the period The reader will learn about the Egerton family in Chapter Two and particularly about Lord Egerton himself and the colonial circumstances within which he lived The chapter dispels some of the popularly held myths about him Chapter Three deals with the beginnings of the college and the various structural and curriculum experiments tried out and the kind of enrolment and students it experimented with as an all white establishment The chapter ends with Africans beginning to agitate for change With great attention to detail the later chapters put the university in a broader local and international context thereby increasing its relevance to society A History of Egerton University though heavily footnoted and with a detailed bibliography is written in a simple easy flowing and accessible style

A Bibliography on Education in Development and Social Change in Sub-Saharan Africa Mark A. Grey,1989 This reference includes 700 sequentially numbered entries gleaned from journals institutions and other bibliographies during research at major collections of Africana It includes country and subject indexes

Curriculum and Reality in African Primary Schools Hubert William Richmond Hawes,1979

African Languages, Literatures, and Postcolonial Modernity Samba Camara,Mohamed Mwamzandi,2024-01-26 This book offers a fresh look into the languages of postcolonial modernity in Africa and to a lesser degree its diaspora It foregrounds the notion of postcolonial modernity in reference to modernization as experienced in the postcolony and its contemporary legacies and investigates how African languages and literatures both as means of communication and as instruments of cultural agency have embodied and mediated modernity Each chapter grapples with the literary or linguistic dimensions of postcolonial modernity as portrayed in African novels film poetry or popular music or as embodied in African and Afro diasporic languages and dialects The chapters also reveal how literature and language respectively document and embody discourses phenomena histories ideologies and beliefs that resulted from the legacies of colonialism

Education in the Third World Keith Watson,2012-06-25 This reissue examines the crucial question of how the education systems of Third World countries continue to be influenced by the former colonial powers arguing that decisions and views made early in the twentieth century cannot always be so readily condemned from the standpoint of the 1980s The study begins by placing the problem in its historical context and goes on to examine different regions of the Third World influenced by colonialism It concludes with a contemporary global overview of current colonial dependency and provides a detailed and comprehensive bibliography on different facets of education and colonialism
