Educational Response, Inclusion and Empowerment for SDGs in Emerging Economies Mustafa Öztürk, 2022-08-22 This volume analyzes cases from emerging economies in relation to the global endeavor to promote the vision of sustainable development in all forms of education It aims to discuss the significance of hearing local voices and understanding local discourse regarding strategies for action for change and the role of educational systems as a means to communicate promote and educate for the Sustainable Development Goals SDGs In this book emerging economies are defined as newly industrialized countries that have not yet reached developed status but have in a macro economic sense outpaced their developing counterparts In this context the book highlights how education in emerging economies could extend conventional economic methods to sustainability issues or depart from money based calculations and business dominated values to promotion of real life considerations and ethical environmental and humanistic values With the help of this volume readers will have a chance to look at educational response inclusion and empowerment for SDGs in countries with emerging economies and to grasp the synthesis of Education for Sustainable Development Global Citizenship Education ESD GCE within the overall national educational systems This volume focuses on early childhood through upper secondary education

Diversity in Environmental Education Research, 2009-01-01 Research in environmental education EE is a growing field of inquiry and should be seen as respondent to a variety of program developments around the world These diverse programs are the context for this body of educational research Diversity in EE research is also compounded when one considers the various cultures epistemologies and research traditions that may inform the field This complexity accounts for the range of forms for environmental learning in formal informal or non formal contexts There is a good deal of evidence that in order to be more responsive to the needs of diverse populations program developments around the world are now beginning to reflect the variation in our society However the same cannot always be said in terms of research methodologies within mainstream environmental education research Outside of a few examples there seems to have been very little in the way of development of research genres aimed at understanding characterizing and supporting cultural diversity within much of mainstream environmental education Diversity of method may also be important for the overall quality or health of environmental education research To locate many of the new ideas and approaches in this area one needs to look outside environmental education towards general educational research or to other fields such as environmental justice indigenous education science education and health education to name only a few examples This volume of original research reports from around the globe begins to richly describe aspects of diversity in environmental education research It does so in two ways first it mirrors the diversity of voices and cultures that are conducting research in this ever broadening and increasingly global and international field of inquiry second it illuminates a potential diversity of research methods by highlighting a range of methodologies salient in other fields which have emerging promise for the practice of research in environmental education

Ethics, CSR and Sustainability (ECSRS) Education in the Middle East and North Africa (MENA) Region Noha El-Bassiouny, Dina El-Bassiouny, Ehab Mohamed, Mohamed Basuony, 2020-06-10 The Middle East and North Africa MENA region is undergoing significant socio political and developmental transition Although interest in corporate social responsibility CSR in the region is growing little research has addressed corporate social responsibility education and its potential impact CSR has an important role to play in the socio economic development of the Middle East and North Africa due to the volatility and developmental needs of the region Recent research has highlighted that the vitality of the institutional environment and the needs of multiple stakeholders in CSR are not necessarily consistent with the notion of CSR in the West This book compiles conceptual contextual and empirical research that addresses the concepts of CSR ethics and sustainability education in the MENA region with a special emphasis on how educators can bridge to the Giving Voice to Values approach This book presents a much needed portfolio of articles from authors based in Egypt Morocco the Sultanate of Oman Qatar and the United Arab Emirates UAE highlighting first an overview of the topic and its corresponding publications in the MENA region then presenting several exemplary cases related to ECSRS application in various countries

Environmental Education and Awareness - Volume II Bhaskar Nath, 2009-09-23 Environmental Education and Awareness is a component of Encyclopedia of Human Resources Policy Development and Management which is part of the global Encyclopedia of Life Support Systems EOLSS an integrated compendium of twenty one Encyclopedias The Theme is organized into seven different topics which represent the main scientific areas of the theme The first topic Formal Environmental Education at Preschool Primary and Secondary Levels important issues of children s formal environmental education are discussed in this topic considering that as future adults today's children are more likely than not to make adverse impacts on the natural environment and earth's life support systems through their behavior, life styles and attitude. The importance of formal environmental education for children as well as of instilling in their consciousness awareness of the natural environment and respect for it cannot be over stated. The succeeding six topics are Formal Environmental Education at the Undergraduate Level, Formal Environmental Education at the Graduate Level, Modern and Innovative Techniques for Environmental Education, Professional Environmental Education, Continuing Education, The Voluntary Sector and Initiatives in Environmental Education. Each of these consists of a topic chapter emphasizing the general aspects and various subject articles explaining the background theory and practice of a specific type of environmental education and awareness for achieving global sustainable development and global environmental sustainability that are now at the top of international environmental agenda. These two volumes are aimed at the following five major target audiences: University and College Students, Educators, Professional Practitioners, Research Personnel and Policy Analysts, Managers and Decision Makers and NGOs.

Sustainable Development: Concepts, Methodologies, Tools, and Applications Management Association, Information Resources, 2017-10-31. To maintain a healthy ecosystem for contemporary society and for future generations policies must be implemented to protect the environment. This can be achieved by consistent evaluation of new initiatives and strategies. Sustainable Development: Concepts, Methodologies, Tools, and Applications is a comprehensive source of scholarly information on the latest research for sustainability concerns across a multidisciplinary perspective. Highlighting a broad range of innovative topics such as renewable energy, urban development and green technologies, this multi-volume book is ideally designed for academics, researchers, professionals, students and practitioners interested in the preservation of the environment.

Young Children and the Environment Julie M. Davis, 2015. This is an essential text for students, teachers and practitioners in a range of early childhood education and care settings.

Chemistry Education Javier García-Martínez, Elena Serrano-Torregrosa, 2015-02-17. Winner of the CHOICE Outstanding Academic Title 2017 Award. This comprehensive collection of top level contributions provides a thorough review of the vibrant field of chemistry education. Highly experienced chemistry professors and education experts cover the latest developments in chemistry learning and teaching as well as the pivotal role of chemistry for shaping a more sustainable future. Adopting a practice oriented approach, the current challenges and opportunities posed by chemistry education are critically discussed, highlighting the pitfalls that can occur in teaching chemistry and how to circumvent them. The main topics discussed include best practices, project based education, blended learning and the role of technology including e learning and science visualization. Hands on recommendations on how to optimally implement innovative strategies of teaching chemistry at university and high school levels make this book an essential resource for anybody interested in either teaching or learning chemistry more effectively, from experienced chemistry professors to secondary school teachers, from educators with no formal training in didactics to frustrated chemistry students      Schooling for Sustainable Development in Chinese Communities John Chi-Kin Lee, Michael Williams, 2009-04-29 This book focuses on the academic foundations trends and traditions of environmental education for sustainable development principally in Chinese contexts It highlights contexts and case studies that illuminate recent Chinese initiatives It includes case studies of green schools and reports on recent initiatives in school based ESD curriculum development programmes in China Hong Kong Macao and Taiwan The book concludes with an overview chapter that points to likely future developments The assumption underpinning the book is that experiences gained in such a major country as China will be of real interest to geographical and environmental educationists professional educators and teachers elsewhere Not only will it generate interest and create greater awareness but also it is hoped that these experiences will provide a platform for scholarly exchange and contribute insights on education policy and curriculum changes across Asian Pacific communities in an increasingly globalised world      Engaging People in Sustainability Daniella Tilbury, David Wortman, 2004 The book is based on the exchange of professional experiences which featured in an IUCN CEC workshop in August 2002 Practitioners from around the world shared their models of good practice and explored the challenges involved in engaging people in sustainability The difficulties facing practitioners vary between country and context but some challenges are universal A lack of clarity in communicating what is meant by sustainable development An ambition to educate everyone to bring about a global citizenship Social organisational or institutional factors constrain change to sustainable development yet there is an emphasis on formal education and community educators do not receive the same support A lack of balance in addressing the integration of environmental social and economic dimensions leading to an interpretation that ESD is mainly about environment and conservation issues New learning rather than teaching approaches are called for to promote more debate in society Yet few are trained or experienced in these new approaches Practitioners need support to explore new ways of promoting learning Foreword ed      Higher Education and Scientific Research in the Arabian Gulf States Abdellatif Sellami, Khalid Arar, Rania Sawalhi, 2022-11-29 This book takes a closer look at the relation between current issues and trends in higher education and scientific research in the Arab World and in the Gulf Cooperation Council GCC states of Qatar and United Arab Emirates UAE This thoroughly researched text traces the development of higher education in the GCC area as it continues to be positioned in an intersection of international and local factors The text further articulates the pivotal political and cultural influences that act as real and perceived barriers towards the advancement of key fields The chapters analyze the current policy trends structures and coping alternatives in addressing higher education challenges whilst also providing comparative first hand texts with the other Arab states in the region By drawing focus on the GCC area the text identifies the crucial factors that hamper learning and research performance The book serves as an invaluable discussion on the implications for policy makers and HEIs in relation to the eponymous regions and other Arab states in the GCC area Enhancing understanding of the scope scale and complexity of higher education and scientific research in the GCC area the
