Cosmopolitanism and Transatlantic Circles in Music and Literature Ryan R. Weber, 2018-10-26 Cosmopolitanism and Transatlantic Circles in Music and Literature traces the transatlantic networks that were constructed between a select group of composers including Edvard Grieg Edward MacDowell and Percy Grainger and the writers with whom they shared cosmopolitan affinities including Arne Garborg Hamlin Garland Madison Grant and Lathrop Stoddard Each overlapping case study surveys the diachronic transmission of cosmopolitanism as well as the synchronic practices that animated these modernist ideas Instead of taking a strictly chronological approach to organization each chapter offers an examination of the different layers of identity that expanded and contracted in relation to a mutual interest in Nordic culture From the burgeoning universal ambitions around 1900 to the darker racialized discourse of the 1920s this study offers a critical analysis of both the idea and practice of cosmopolitanism in order to expose its common foundations as well as the limits of its application developments Benedict Taylor develops new models for understanding the complexity of late Romantic tonal practice as epitomised in Grieg's music Such an investigation casts further valuable light on the twin issues of nature and nationalism long connected with the composer the question of tonality as something natural or culturally constructed and larger historiographical claims concerning Grieg's apparent position on the periphery of the Austro-German tradition School Band and Orchestra Musician, 1929 Reader's Guide to Music Murray Steib, 2013-12-02 The Reader's Guide to Music is designed to provide a useful single volume guide to the ever increasing number of English language book length studies in music Each entry consists of a bibliography of some 3-20 titles and an essay in which these titles are evaluated by an expert in the field in light of the history of writing and scholarship on the given topic The more than 500 entries include not just writings on major composers in music history but also the genres in which they worked from early chant to rock and roll and topics important to the various disciplines of music scholarship from aesthetics to gay lesbian musicology Delius, a Life in Letters Frederick Delius, Lionel Carley, 1983 Scandinavica Elias Bredsdorff, 1996
