Heartbreak House, Great Catherine, and Playlets of Fhe War Bernard Shaw,1919 Pygmalion, Heartbreak House, and Saint Joan George Bernard Shaw,2021 Pygmalion Heartbreak House and Saint Joan are widely considered to be three of the most important in the canon of modern British theatre Pygmalion 1912 was a world wide smash hit from the time of its premi re in Vienna 1913 and it has remained popular to this day Shaw was awarded an Academy Award in 1938 for his screenplay of the film adaptation It was of course later made into the much loved musical My Fair Lady Heartbreak House 1917 which was finally performed in 1920 and published in 1921 bares the hallmarks of European modernism and a formal break from Shaw s previous work A meditation on the war and the resultant decline in European aristocratic culture it was perhaps staged too soon after the conflict indeed it did not have the success of his earlier works which was likely due to his experimental aesthetics combined with a war weary audience that sought lighter fare However while this contemporary reception was muted it is now recognised as a modernist masterpiece Saint Joan 1923 marked Shaw's resurrection and apotheosis The first major work written of Joan of Arc after her canonization 1920 the play interrogates the origins of European nationalism in the post war era Like Pygmalion it was an immediate world wide hit and secured Shaw the Nobel Prize for Literature in 1925 Drawing upon the transcripts of Joan's trial Shaw blended his trademark wit to produce a hybrid genre of comedy and history play Despite the historical setting Saint Joan is highly accessible and continues to delight audiences The Bookman's Journal with which is Incorporated The Print Collector ,1925 Naturalist Theatre Christopher Innes, 2002-01-04 A Sourcebook on Naturalist Theatre provides essential primary sources which document one of the key movements in modern theatre Christopher Innes has selected three writers to exemplify the movement and six plays in particular Henrik Ibsen A Dolls House and Hedda Gabler Anton Chekhov The Seagull and The Cherry Orchard George Bernard Shaw Mrs Warren's Profession and Heartbreak House Innes introduction provides an overview of naturalist theatre Key themes include the representation of women significant contemporary issues and the links between theory play writing and stage practice. The primary sources explore many aspects of naturalism giving information on the playwrights intentions when writing plays contemporary reviews literary criticism political and social background production notes from early performances of the plays Education, Arts, and Morality Doris B. Wallace, 2006-01-27 Inspired by Howard Gruber's Evolving Systems Approach these studies explore creativity in several domains The idea that the creative person embodies a system of loosely coupled sub systems knowledge purpose and affect that work together is viewed here in different chapters that explore this concept These include autobiographies of incarcerated youth curricula for moral and civic responsibility changing attitudes of readers to text romance novels as well as case studies of highly creative individuals such as George Bernard Shaw Gruber's approach provides concepts as well as methodological tools which the authors apply to diverse creative processes This book is a valuable resource for undergraduate as well as graduate level students interested in creativity development and education In addition to the intrinsic interest of each chapter the guiding theme of the book is the underlying theory of creativity Gruber's Evolving Systems Approach and illustrates the unusual breadth and flexibility of that theory Bernard Shaw: The One-Volume Definitive Edition Michael Holroyd, 2012-01-09 We regard Mr Holroyd with awe as a prodigy among biographers The New York Times Book Review In a single volume format Michael Holroyd s masterpiece of a biography offers new verve and pace Shaw s world is more dramatically revealed
