Browning, 2023-09-28. How do I love thee? Let me count the ways. Elizabeth Barrett Browning was a poet of passion, wit, and conscience. She was also a woman who wrote to speak the truth about everything she knew, and she knew just what it was like to be a thinking woman in a society that wanted women to be weak. The eldest of twelve children, she wrote poetry from the age of eleven and became a highly successful poet in her lifetime and remains very much loved today. She was also a strong advocate for human rights, campaigning to abolish slavery and child labour, and her three-part poem "A Curse for a Nation" is a powerful polemic against the slave trade. "I heard an angel speak last night and he said: Write a nation's curse for me and send it over the western sea."
