Elizabeth Barrett Browning The Hope End Years:

Elizabeth Barrett Browning Barbara Dennis,1996 Barbara Dennis's much needed study provides a new and illuminating perspective on Barrett Browning focusing on her crucial early years at Hope End near Ledbury Drawing on previously neglected material from Barrett Browning's diaries and her unpublished notebook of 1822-1824 Dennis reveals an active and inquisitive young woman delighting in exploring the Herefordshire countryside and often critical of authority A precocious poet Elizabeth published her first poem The Battle of Marathon at fourteen her second poem An Essay on Mind brought her critical recognition and friendships that were to remain important to her throughout her life including that with Hugh Boyd for whom she developed an intense infatuation But Elizabeth's life at Hope End was not only one of books we learn of her love for her family especially her brother Bro whose tragic early death made it too painful for her ever to return to Hope End after the family's move to London and her early happy relationship with her father who affectionately dubbed her the Poet Laureate of Hope End and encouraged her ambition

Elizabeth Barrett Browning Rebecca Stott,Simon Avery,2014-09-25 This volume will provide students with an introduction to the poetry and life of Elizabeth Barrett Browning one of the most popular poets of her day in Britain and America and who has become one of the great icons of Victorianism for the modern age The authors present a biographical survey study of her poetry its critical reception and an assessment of her influence on later poets This book also examines the complex myths which are associated with Elizabeth Barrett Browning and offers re-readings of her life and work particularly in dispelling the myth of the ailing invalid poet recluse and instead showing her to be one of the great intellectuals of her day immersed in European history and politics from a very early age The book situates Browning within broader historical political and cultural contexts than have yet been examined enabling a better understanding of her poetry and paints the portrait of a fine and innovative poet an intellectual and an astute political thinker

Time, Space, and Gender in the Nineteenth-Century British Diary R. Steinitz,2011-10-24 Through close examinations of diaries diary publication and diaries in fiction this book explores how the diary's construction of time and space made it an invaluable and effective vehicle for the dominant discourses of the period it also explains how the genre evolved into the feminine emotive private form we continue to privilege today

Masculinity in Four Victorian Epics Clinton Machann,2016-05-06 Offering provocative readings of Tennyson's Idylls of the King Barrett Browning's Aurora Leigh Clough's Amours de Voyage and Browning's The Ring and the Book Clinton Machann brings to bear the ideas and methods of literary Darwinism to shed light on the central issue of masculinity in the Victorian epic This critical approach enables Machann to take advantage of important research in evolutionary psychology cognitive science anthropology among other scientific fields and to bring the concept of human nature into his discussions of the poems The importance of the Victorian long poem as a literary genre is reviewed in the introduction followed by transformative close readings of the poems that engage with questions of gender particularly representations of masculinity and the prevalence of male violence Machann contextualizes his reading within the poets views on social philosophical and religious issues arguing that the impulses drives and tendencies of human nature as well as the historical and cultural context influenced the writing and thus must inform the interpretation of the Victorian epic Victorian Women Writers and the Classics Isobel Hurst,2006-09-14 In this study Isobel Hurst brings together two
