The Short Writings of Nelson Algren Richard F. Bales,2022-09-15 Nelson Algren was a renowned Chicago writer known for his social commentary and his novels like The Man with the Golden Arm and A Walk on the Wild Side Although he continues to be remembered almost exclusively for his novels this book aims to highlight the value and influence of his short form works Before he died in 1981 Algren had amassed a genre defying body of work including short stories articles poems and book reviews The present book features a comprehensive analysis and discussion of Algren s lost literature including everything but his novels One of the pieces covered is a masterpiece of race relations written in 1950 more than 60 years before the galvanization of the Black Lives Matter movement Another is a scathing poem about Algren s transatlantic love affair with Simone de Beauvoir Both items are reprinted in the book courtesy of the Algren estate This book also includes references to Algren s works that have yet to be studied by Algren scholars     The Age of Dimes and Pulps Jeremy

Agnew,2018-07-31 From the dime novels of the Civil War era to the pulp magazines of the early 20th century to modern paperbacks lurid fiction has provided thrilling escapism for the masses Cranking out formulaic stories of melodrama crime and mild erotica often by uncredited authors focused more on volume than quality publishers realized high profits playing to low tastes Estimates put pulp magazine circulation in the 1930s at 30 million monthly This vast body of disposable literature has received little critical attention in large part because much of it has been lost the cheaply made books were either discarded after reading or soon disintegrated Covering the history of pulp literature from 1850 through 1960 the author describes how sensational tales filled a public need and flowered during the evolving social conditions of the Industrial Revolution
