The Art of Mechanical Reproduction Tamara Trodd, 2015-09-25 The Art of Mechanical Reproduction presents a striking new approach to how traditional art mediums painting sculpture and drawing changed in the twentieth century in response to photography film and other technologies. Countering the modernist view that the medium provides advanced art with resistance against technological pressures, Tamara Trodd argues that we should view art and its practices as imaginatively responding to the potential that artists glimpsed in mechanical reproduction, putting art into dialogue with the commercial cultures of its time. The Art of Mechanical Reproduction weaves a rich history of the experimental networks in which artists as diverse as Paul Klee, Hans Bellmer, Ellsworth Kelly, Robert Rauschenberg, Gerhard Richter, Chris Marker, and Tacita Dean have worked, and it shows for the first time how extensively technological innovations of the moment have affected their work. Original and broad-ranging, The Art of Mechanical Reproduction challenges some of the most respected and entrenched criticism of the past several decades and allows us to think about these artists anew.

Richard Shiff: Writing After Art Richard Shiff, 2023-05-16 A broad and deep anthology of critic and art historian Richard Shiff's most influential writings which have shaped our understanding of twentieth and twenty-first century art. Elegantly designed as intended for broad readership including art historians, art critics, artists, among other lovers of art, this volume is a must-read experience with pleasure and discovery.

Phong Bui, The Brooklyn Rail In his engaging and often strikingly deep observations of major modern and contemporary visual art, Shiff has written about an impressive range of artists including Willem de Kooning, Marlene Dumas, Jasper Johns, Donald Judd, Barnett Newman, Pablo Picasso, and Bridget Riley. A leading scholar and powerful voice, Shiff's insight into some of the most prominent artistic practices spans generation, place, and approach as seen in this considered selection of essays on twenty-six artists. These writings first appeared in exhibition catalogues for retrospectives at galleries and institutions including the Centre Georges Pompidou, the Solomon R. Guggenheim Museum, The Museum of Modern Art, and Tate Modern. Shiff supplements his unquestionable fluency in art history with insights cultivated from his readings in philosophy, phenomenology, literary theory, and psychoanalysis among other fields. Shiff's writing, conceptually rich, meditative, and enjoyable to read, is attuned to the nuances of artistic style and technique, drawing out art's social implications not merely from broad histories but also directly from artists' mark-making and technical gestures. Actively engaged as a viewer and a writer, Shiff has transformed the act of looking at art into contemplative and captivating writing. Includes essays on Georg Baselitz, Mark Bradford, Georges Braque, Jim Campbell, Chuck Close, Willem de Kooning, Peter Doig, Marlene Dumas, Dan Flavin, Suzan Frecon, Lucian Freud, Ellen Gallagher, Jasper Johns, Donald Judd, Ellsworth Kelly, Brice

Feedback David Joselit, 2010-02-26 In a world where politics is conducted through images the tools of art history can be used to challenge the privatized antidemocratic sphere of American television American television embodies a paradox it is a privately owned and operated public communications network that most citizens are unable to participate in except as passive specators Television creates an image of community while preventing the formation of actual social ties because behind its simulated exchange of opinions lies a highly centralized corporate structure that is profoundly antidemocratic In Feedback David Joselit describes the privatized public sphere of television and recounts the tactics developed by artists and media activists in the 1960s and 1970s to break open its closed circuit The figures whose work Joselit examines among them Nam June Paik Dan Graham Joan Jonas Abbie Hoffman Andy Warhol and Melvin Van Peebles staged political interventions within television's closed circuit Joselit identifies three kinds of image events feedback which can be both disabling noise and rational response as when Abbie Hoffman hijacked television time for the Yippies with flamboyant stunts directed to the media the image virus which proliferates parasitically invading transforming and even blocking systems as in Nam June Paik's synthesized videotapes and installations and the avatar a quasi fictional form of identity available to anyone which can function as a political actor as in Melvin Van Peebles's invention of Sweet Sweetback an African American hero who appealed to a broad audience and influenced styles of Black Power activism These strategies writes Joselit remain valuable today in a world where the overlapping information circuits of television and the Internet offer different opportunities for democratic participation In Feedback Joselit analyzes such midcentury image events using the procedures and categories of art history The trope of figure ground reversal for instance is used to assess acts of representation in a variety of media including the medium of politics In a televisual world Joselit argues where democracy is conducted through images art history has the capacity to become a political science Aesthetic Theory, Abstract Art, and Lawrence Carroll David Carrier,2018-09-06
