Matters of Spirit F. Scott Scribner,2015-10-13 This book offers a radically new interpretation of the entire philosophy of J G Fichte by showing the impact of nineteenth century psychological techniques and technologies on the formation of his theory of the imagination the very centerpiece of his philosophical system By situating Fichte's philosophy within the context of nineteenth century German science and culture the book establishes a new genealogy one that shows the extent to which German idealism's transcendental account of the social remains dependent upon the scientific origins of psychoanalysis in the material techniques of Mesmerism The book makes it clear that the rational transcendental account of spirit imagination and the social has its source in the psychological phenomena of affective rapport Specifically the imagination undergoes a double displacement in which it is ultimately subject to external influence the influence of a material technique or in short a technology

The Ministry of the Spirit Roland Allen,2006-08-24 Roland Allen is internationally renowned for his controversial solutions to dilemmas within churches and missions His works were first written in the first decade of the twentieth century yet their ideas are so radical that they are still relevant today Indeed Allen predicted that his principles would not be broadly accepted until around fifty years after their creation This selection of works by this mission pioneer and creative thinker takes extracts from Allen's other writings which although having potential to be just as influential as those better known have long been out of print It is now the present day reader's chance to investigate the theories within texts such as Pentecost and the World Non Professional Missionaries Mission Activities Considered in Relation to the Manifestation of the Spirit St Paul and the Judaizers A Dialogue An Illustration from V S Azariah The Case for Voluntary Clergy and To the Parishioners of Chalfont St Peter Throughout all of these writings is Allen's central belief that the Holy Spirit is in the Church everywhere This selection of texts makes an ideal accompaniment to Allen's significant works on missionary methods and principles including Missionary Methods St Paul's or Ours Missionary Principles The Spontaneous Expansion of the Church all of which have been reprinted by The Lutterworth Press

Human Rights and Global Diversity Simon Caney, Peter Jones, 2014-06-17 This examination of global society focuses on its conflict with local societies and questions whether the human race should be treated as belonging to a single global community It considers the universality of human rights and its conflict with group claims to self determination

Life after God: An Encounter with Postmodernism Mark Bevir, 2022-03-16 In this volume Mark Bevir argues that postfoundationalism is compatible with humanism and historicism He shows how postmodernists especially Derrida and Foucault drew on structuralism and the avant garde in ways that led them to downplay human agency and historical context He then explores how we today might recover and rethink humanism and historicism And finally he discusses the critical and ethical practices that such ideas might inspire
