The Emerald Swan Jane Feather, 2009-11-04 Dear Reader My new story begins on a terror filled night when two babies identical twin girls of noble birth are separated One grows to womanhood as the frail manipulative ward of the handsome young earl of Harcourt The other becomes an enchanting street smart urchin who earns her way as a traveling player on the streets of England and France The two girls paths might never again have crossed if Harcourt hadn't run into Miranda in the midst of an exuberant performance The resemblance to his ward is unmistakable uncanny in fact and an ambitious plot begins to take shape in Harcourt's mind His ward Maude will commit herself to a convent rather than marry the love struck king of France who will soon be traveling to London to claim her What if Miranda were to take Maude's place Harcourt is confident that with the right training the right clothes and the right attitude the lithe carefree Miranda will captivate society and the king So begins Harcourt's breathtaking scheme to turn an ugly duckling into a gorgeous swan But if he succeeds too well Miranda may become something irresistible even to Harcourt It's a delicious dilemma and a dangerous deception and the twists and turns surprised even me Warmest wishes Jane Feather

The Bachelor List Jane Feather, 2004-02-03 In this exhilarating new trilogy from New York Times bestselling author Jane Feather a trio of spirited sisters secretly run a thriving matchmaking service But these three good catches of impeccable pedigree have little interest in matrimony themselves until one by one they meet their matches Constance Duncan may be the eldest of three sisters but she has more important things on her mind than finding a husband for herself at any rate Through the Personals services of her popular newspaper The Mayfair Lady Constance connects lonely hearts But her own heart lies in her work and nothing will distract her from it until she finds herself irresistibly drawn to a man of disastrously different views Max Ensor is a politician whose outmoded attitudes outrage her even as his powerful presence intrigues her Clearly there is only one thing to do with such an exasperating man convert him Little does Constance know that Max has the same plan in mind for her What follows is a fiercely passionate duel in which two headstrong people discover that differences or not sometimes one gender cannot will not do without the other

Taboo Susan Johnson, 2010-06-02 Through eleven nationally bestselling books award winner Susan Johnson has won a legion of fans for her lushly romantic historical novels Now she delivers her most thrilling tale yet a searing blend of rousing adventure and wild forbidden love Married against her will to the brutal Russian general who conquered her people Countess Teo Korsakova has never known what it means to want a man until now Trapped behind enemy lines held captive by her husband's most formidable foe she should fear for her life But all Teo feels in General Andre Duras's shattering presence is breathless passion France's most victorious commander Andre knows that he should do the honorable thing knows too that on the eve of battle he cannot afford so luscious a distraction Yet something about Teo lures him to do the unthinkable to seduce his enemy's wife and to let himself love a woman who can never be his
