Elite Discourse And Racism:

Elite Discourse and Racism Teun A. Van Dijk, 1993-03-02 This study of elite racism which can be subtle but is in fact pervasive and sometimes mundane is an important contribution to the study of racism and a fine example of comparative race and ethnic studies Intended for undergraduate and graduate students and scholars it can also be profitably read by anyone interested in understanding the multiple manifestations of racism in U S and European societies Choice Elite Discourse and Racism Teun Adrianus Dijk, 1985 Transnational Perspectives on Culture, Policy, and Education Cameron McCarthy, Cathryn Teasley, 2008 This series publishes critical scholarship that seeks to engage and transcend the disciplinary isolationism and genre confinement that now characterize so much of contemporary research in communication studies and related fields It focuses on studies that address the broad intersections and hybrid trajectories that define the encounters between human groups in modern institutions and societies and the way these intersections are represented in contemporary popular cultural forms of knowledge The Ethics of Life Writing Paul John Eakin, 2004 Our lives are increasingly on display in public but the ethical issues involved in presenting such revelations remain largely unexamined How can life writing do good and how can it cause harm The eleven essays here explore such questions Race, Racialization and Antiracism in Canada and Beyond Genevieve Fuji Johnson, Randy Enomoto, 2007-06-23 This multidisciplinary volume brings together scholars and activists to examine expressions of racism in contemporary policy areas including education labour immigration media and urban planning While anti racist struggles during the twentieth century were largely pitched against overt forms of racism e g pogroms genocide segregation apartheid and ethnic cleansing it has become increasingly apparent that there are other less visible forms of racism These subtler incarnations are of special interest to the contributors The intent of Race Racialization and Antiracism in Canada and Beyond is to probe systemic forms of racism as well as to suggest strategies for addressing them The collection is organized by themes pertinent to political and social expressions of racism in Canada and the wider world such as the state and its mediation of race education and the perpetuation of racist marginalization and the role of the media The contributors argue that in order to effectively combat racism various methodological approaches are required approaches that are reflective of the diversity of the world we seek to understand "The Melancholy Effect of Popular Excitement" Brian Ray Gabriel, 2004 An Introduction to Sociolinguistics Ronald Wardhaugh, Janet M. Fuller, 2021-04-21 AN INTRODUCTION TO SOCIOLINGUISTICS The new eighth edition of An Introduction to Sociolinguistics brings this valuable bestselling textbook up to date with the latest in sociolinguistic research and pedagogy providing a broad overview of the study of language in social context with accessible coverage of major concepts theories methods issues and debates within the field This leading text helps students develop a critical perspective on language in society as they explore the complex connections between societal norms and language use The eighth edition contains new and updated coverage of such topics as the societal aspects of African American Vernacular

English AAVE multilingual societies and discourse gender and sexuality ideologies and language attitudes and the social meanings of linguistic forms Organized in four sections this text first covers traditional language issues such as the distinction between languages and dialects identification of regional and social variation within languages and the role of context in language use and interpretation Subsequent chapters cover approaches to research in sociolinguistics variationist sociolinguistics ethnography and discourse analytic research and address both macro and micro sociolinguistic aspects of multilingualism in national transnational global and digital contexts The concluding section of the text looks at language in relation to gender and sexuality education and language planning and policy issues Featuring examples from a variety of languages and cultures that illustrate topics such as social and regional dialects multilingualism and the linguistic construction of identity this text provides perspectives on both new and foundational research in sociolinguistics and linguistic anthropology An Introduction to Sociolinguistics Eighth Edition remains the ideal textbook for upper level undergraduate and graduate course in sociolinguistics language and society linguistic anthropology applied and theoretical linguistics and education The new edition has also been updated to support classroom application with a range of effective pedagogical tools including end of chapter written exercises and an instructor website as well as materials to support further learning such as reading suggestions research ideas and an updated companion student website containing a searchable glossary a review guide additional exercises and examples and links to online resources

Giroux, 2018-03-29 This book argues that neoliberalism is not simply an economic theory but also a set of values ideologies and practices that works more like a cultural field that is not only refiguring political and economic power but eliminating the very categories of the social and political as essential elements of democratic life Neoliberalism has become the most dangerous ideology of our time Collapsing the link between corporate power and the state neoliberalism is putting into place the conditions for a new kind of authoritarianism in which large sections of the population are increasingly denied the symbolic and economic capital necessary for engaged citizenship Moreover as corporate power gains a stranglehold on the media the educational conditions necessary for a democracy are undermined as politics is reduced to a spectacle essentially both depoliticizing politics and privatizing culture This series addresses the relationship among culture power politics and democratic struggles Focusing on how culture offers opportunities that may expand and deepen the prospects for an inclusive democracy it draws from struggles over the media youth political economy workers race feminism and more highlighting how each offers a site of both resistance and transformation
