Elite Education Claire Maxwell, Peter Aggleton, 2015-10-05 Elite Education International Perspectives is the first book to systematically examine elite education in different parts of the world. Authors provide a historical analysis of the emergence of national elite education systems and consider how recent policy and economic developments are changing the configuration of elite trajectories and the social groups benefiting from these. Through country level case studies this book offers readers an in depth account of elite education systems in the Anglophone world in Europe and in the emerging financial centres of Africa, Asia and Latin America. A series of commentaries highlight commonalities and differences between elite education systems and offer insights into broader theoretical issues with which educationalists, researchers and policy makers are engaging. With authors including Stephen J Ball, Donald Broady, Rub n Gaztambide, Fernandez, Heinz Hermann, Kr ger, Maria Alice Nogueira, Julia Resnik and Agn s van Zanten, the book offers a benchmark perspective on issues frequently glossed over in comparative education including the processes by which powerful groups retain privilege and elite status in rapidly changing societies. Elite Education International Perspectives will appeal to policy makers and academics in the fields of education and sociology. Simultaneously it will be of special relevance to post graduates enrolled on courses in the sociology of education, education policy and education and international development.

Elite Dualism and Leadership Selection in China Xiaowei Zang, 2004-03-01 Who are the top political leaders in China? What are the major criteria in elite recruitment? How is job promotion in high politics determined? By studying over one and a half thousand top political Chinese leaders, this book seeks to answer these questions and as a result defines how Chinese leadership is stratified. Unlike existing research on Chinese leaders, Elite Dualism and Leadership Selection in China draws on extensive statistical information and data analysis. It evidences how political development in the reform era has led to the division of labour between the Chinese Communist Party (CCP) and the government in governance, leading to two distinctive career paths in the two political systems respectively. Key issues examined include the different criteria the CCP and the government demand for promotion, the effect of university education on the rate of mobility, the different affiliations of the two groups, the role of cooptation in leadership selection. Many of the elites discussed are still leading figures in China, making this book the most up to date and extensive biographical data set in elite studies. This allows for a meaningful analysis of elite behaviour in China for the first time in Chinese Studies. This book will be useful to both students of Chinese studies and comparative politics and will also interest researchers, political commentators, statesmen and China watchers.

Economies, Institutions and Territories Luca Storti, Giulia Urso, Neil Reid, 2022-08-29 Presenting multidisciplinary and global insights, this book explores the nexus between economies, institutions and territories and how global phenomena have local consequences. It examines how original and innovative economic related processes embed themselves in societies at the local level, how boundaries between the state and the market are placed under stress by unexpected changes It explores whether new types of elites and forms of social inequalities are emerging as a result of institutional and economic changes and whether peripheral areas are experiencing insidious forms of economic and institutional lock in Presenting empirical cases and useful analytical and conceptual tools the book makes current economic and territorial phenomena more understandable This is an important read for students and scholars in the fields of geography sociology political sciences anthropology economics regional science and international relations It is also a valuable resource for policymakers well educated lay readers and economic political and international relations journalists

Local Elites in Post-Mao China Yingjie Guo, 2018-03-15 This book provides fresh insights into the study of Chinese elites at the county level and below By shifting the analytical focus onto the agency of elites at the local level and away from the institutional structures within which they operate it fills a number of significant gaps in the field In particular this book addresses the lacunae through an empirically rich and diverse set of case studies It proceeds from the premise that the study of local elites can be most fruitful through examining their relations with each other and with the groups that wield power in the community Particularly pertinent to the analyses are three major relations namely the relationship between the elites and their environment between particular types of elites and between the locality and the upper and lower scales Ultimately it concludes that these relations are not only essential to understanding local elites in post Mao China but also in accounting for socio political change and in distinguishing China from other types of societies As a study of local elites in China this book will be useful to students and scholars of Chinese politics political sociology and Chinese Studies in general

China in Revolution Joseph W. Esherick, 2022-08-04 This book includes eleven seminal essays by one of America s leading authorities on modern Chinese history with an illuminating preface by Prof Elizabeth Perry of Harvard University it covers a range of topics from the impact of imperialism to the 1989 protests that led to the Tiananmen massacre Chapters include an explanation of how China expanded its borders far beyond the Han Chinese heartland and maintained those borders in the transition from empire to nation how Sun Yat sen unexpectedly emerged as the Father of the Country and how a series of unexpected and contingent events brought the empire down in 1911 Despite conventional representations of a static and unified China this book proves Chinese society to be diverse and constantly changing especially after the Communist revolution which was a transformative event in modern Chinese history Esherick denounces traditional imagery of cultural uniformity which derives from excessive attention to the unitary state through chapters that explore the impact of the 1937 45 War of Resistance against Japan the dramatic wartime transformation of Chinese society in both Communist and Nationalist Guomindang areas and the nature of the new Communist regime in Northwest China In his book Esherick examines both the Marxist Leninist theory behind Mao s notion of the restoration of capitalism against which he waged the Cultural Revolution of the 1960s and the political theater of the 1989 protest movement Throughout the book the contingency of history the need for careful empirical research and the important yet limited role of history is highlighted as the key to understanding the present or predicting the future of China

Cao, 2004-07-31 China's Scientific Elite is a study of those scientists holding China's highest academic honour membership of the Chinese Academy of Sciences Having carried out extensive systematic data collection of CAS members Cao examines the social stratification system of the Chinese science community and the way in which politics and political interference has effected the stratification The book then goes on to compare the Chinese system to the stratification of the US scientific elite The conclusions are fascinating not least because one national elite resides in a democratic liberal social system and the other in an authoritarian social system

Elite Politics in Contemporary China Joseph Fewsmith, 2015-04-15

A discussion of elite politics in contemporary China While a great deal of the text is descriptive much of the emphasis is on drawing out and abstracting the political dynamic at work The past half century has seen many hopes raised and some dashed a succession of fears and false alarms and both triumphs and calamities that were almost entirely unexpected This work offers a short but sweeping history of world politics since 1945 America's postwar pre eminence and the hopes that attended the creation of the United Nations the Cold War and the emergence of a volatile Third World economic transformations and the twin threat of nuclear and ecological disaster the crumbling of the Soviet system and the short lived promise of a peaceful prosperous and democratic new world The author describes these momentous changes concisely in an effort to show how we got here from there and what we might have learned along the way Party-army-government Interlocking Directorate in the People's Republic of China Monte Ray Bullard, 1977 Neoliberalism, Globalization, and "Elite" Education in China Shuning Liu, 2020-03-19 This book examines the practices and effects of emerging international curriculum programs established by Chinese elite public high schools and supported by China's New Curriculum Reform and the Chinese Foreign Cooperation in Running Schools (CFCRS) policy. Drawing on critical theory, the book applies sociological and anthropological approaches to the study of the educational practices of such curriculum programs and the rising Chinese elite class as well as educational policy globally. Through analyzing a wide variety of data sources, this book focuses on examining how changing local and global contexts have influenced and shaped the educational opportunities, experiences, and aspirations of privileged urban Chinese students who are able to attend these programs and who hope to study at U.S. universities. In doing so, the book is intended to define the problematics of the internationalization of Chinese education and an emergent form of elite education in China, which are complex and embedded in the process of modernization in China. Neoliberalism, Globalization, and Elite Education in China: Becoming International will appeal to undergraduates, postgraduates, and academics in the fields of curriculum studies, educational policy studies, sociology of education, and anthropology of education, as well as policymakers with an interest in globalization and education, education policy, and education and international development.
