Elizabeth Costello Spanish:

Spanish Thinking about Animals Margarita Carretero-González, 2020-06-01 Traditional cultural practices involving animals are being seriously questioned heavily regulated and in some cases even abolished in Spain This essential and timely text brings together prominent scholars working in the ever expanding field of animal studies in Spain drawing from a variety of disciplines within the humanities and social sciences to provide an interdisciplinary look at the animal question In choosing an angle to approach the study of ethical aesthetic considerations and cultural representations of animals this collection moves away from the ideology of human exceptionalism that is still predominant but progressively losing force in the field of animal ethics in Spain It instead includes contributions by scholars who have chosen to look at animals to a lesser or greater degree through an antispeciesist lens displaying the committed attention to and respect for animal life that characterizes critical animal studies

J. M. Coetzee's The Childhood of Jesus Anthony Uhlmann, Jennifer Rutherford, 2017-02-09 Since the controversy and acclaim that surrounded the publication of Disgrace 1999 the awarding of the Nobel Prize for literature and the publication of Elizabeth Costello Eight Lessons both in 2003 J M Coetzee's status has begun to steadily rise to the point where he has now outgrown the specialized domain of South African literature Today he is recognized more simply as one of the most important writers in the English language from the late 20th and early 21st century Coetzee's productivity and invention has not slowed with old age The Childhood of Jesus published in 2013 like Elizabeth Costello was met with a puzzled reception as critics struggled to come to terms with its odd setting and structure its seemingly flat tone and the strange affectless interactions of its characters Most puzzling was the central character David linked by the title to an idea of Jesus J M Coetzee's The Childhood of Jesus The Ethics of Ideas and Things is at the forefront of an exciting process of critical engagement with this novel which has begun to uncover its rich dialogue with philosophy theology mathematics politics and questions of meaning

Coetzee and the Ethics of Narrative Transgression Alexandra Effe, 2017-08-16 This book is about the metanarrative and metafictional elements of J M Coetzee s novels It draws together authorship readership ethics and formal analysis into one overarching argument about how narratives work the boundary between art and life On the basis of Coetzee s writing it reconsiders the concept of metalepsis challenges common understandings of self reflexive discourse and invites us to rethink our practice as critics and readers This study analyzes Coetzee s novels in three chapters organized thematically around the author s relation with character reader and self Author and character are discussed on the basis of Foe Slow Man and Coetzee s Nobel lecture He and His Man Stories featuring the character Elizabeth Costello or the figuration Elizabeth Curren serve to elaborate the relation of author and reader The study ends on a reading of Summertime Diary of a Bad Year and Dusklands as Coetzee s engagement with autobiographical writing analyzing the relation of author and self It will appeal to readers with an interest in literary and narrative theory as much as to Coetzee scholars and advanced students

The Northern Ireland Conflict on the Margins of History Kenneth Funston, Cillian McGrattan, 2025-05-01 Assessing the impact of paramilitary violence on border Protestants in Northern Ireland remains a critically overlooked part of the region s history Remembered through a framework of memory that blurs the boundary between victim and perpetrator existing scholarship often disempowers border Protestants by obscuring their experience under the Provisional IRA s campaign This re examination of the conflict illuminates how the Troubles impacted the Protestant community s physical economic and cultural presence in the border counties Combining oral history with a broader assessment of the Provisional campaign this book presents a compelling case study for viewing this violence as a form of ethnic cleansing

Germany from the Outside Laurie Ruth Johnson, 2022-09-08 The nation state is a European invention of the 18th and 19th centuries In the case of the German nation in particular this invention was tied closely to the idea of a homogeneous German culture with a strong normative function As a consequence histories of German culture and literature often are told from the inside as the unfolding of a canon of works representing certain core values with which every person who considers him or herself German necessarily must identify But what happens if we describe German culture and its history from the outside And as something heterogeneous shaped by multiple and diverse sources many of which are not obviously connected to things traditionally considered German Emphasizing current issues of migration displacement systemic injustice and belonging Germany from the Outside explores new opportunities for understanding and shaping community at a time when many are questioning the ability of cultural practices to effect structural change Located at the nexus of cultural political historiographical and philosophical discourses the essays in this volume inform discussions about next directions for German Studies and for the Humanities in a fraught era

J. M. Coetzee's Politics of Life and Late Modernism in the Contemporary Novel Marc Farrant, 2024-03-05 Surveying the full breadth of J M Coetzee's career as both academic and novelist this book argues for the necessity of rethinking his profound indebtedness to literary modernism in terms of a politics of life Isolating a particular strain of late modernism epitomised by Kafka and Beckett Farrant claims that Coetzee's writings consistently demonstrate an agonistic engagement with the concept of life that involves an entanglement of politics and ethics which supersedes the singular theoretical frameworks often applied to Coetzee such as postcolonialism posthumanism and animal studies Running throughout his engagement with questions of modernity and colonialism storytelling and life writing human and non human life religion and post Enlightenment subjectivity Coetzee's politics of life yield a new literary cosmopolitanism for the twenty first century a powerful commentary on our interrelatedness that emphasises finitude and contingency as fundamental to the way we live together

Beyond the Ancient Quarrel Patrick Hayes, Jan Wilm, 2017-12-08 In Plato's Republic Socrates spoke of an ancient quarrel between literature and philosophy which he offered to resolve once and for all by banning the poets from his ideal city Few philosophers have taken Socrates at his word and out of the ancient quarrel there has emerged a long tradition that has sought to value literature chiefly as a useful supplement to philosophical reasoning The fiction of J M Coetzee makes a striking challenge to this tradition While his writing has frequently engaged philosophical subjects in explicit ways it has done so with an emphasis on the dissonance between literary expression and philosophical reasoning And while Coetzee has often overtly engaged with academic literary theory his fiction has done so in a way that has tended to disorient rather than affirm those same theories wrong footing the normal processes of literary interpretation This volume brings together philosophers and literary theorists to reflect upon the challenge Coetzee has made to their respective disciplines and to the disciplinary distinctions at stake in the ancient quarrel The essays use his fiction to explore questions about the boundaries between literature philosophy and literary criticism the relationship between literature theology and post secularism the particular ways in which literature engages reality how literature interacts with the philosophies of language action subjectivity and ethics and the institutions that govern the distinctions between literature and philosophy It will be of importance not only to readers of Coetzee but to anyone interested in the ancient quarrel itself Animals, Empathy, and Anthropomorphism

Carlo Salzani,2025-05-05 This open access book explores the role of imagination in animal ethics and its constitutive links to empathy sympathy and anthropomorphism The book argues for the constitutive role of imagination in ethical deliberation but acknowledges that there exist important limits to its use However limit is here understood not merely negatively as restriction and insufficiency but rather positively as condition of possibility so what the book explores and analyses are the conditions for a positive and fruitful use of the imagination in ethics The book uses as a frame the questions and issues raised in J M Coetzee s The Lives of Animals to explore some central and salient themes The Cambridge Companion to J.M. Coetzee

Tim Mehigan,2014-02 New essays providing critical views of Coetzee s major works for the scholar and the general reader J M Coetzee is perhaps the most critically acclaimed bestselling author of imaginative fiction writing in English today He received the Nobel Prize for Literature in 2003 and is the first writer to have been awarded two BookerPrizes The present volume makes critical views of this important writer accessible to the general reader as well as the scholar discussing Coetzee s main works in chronological order and introducing the dominant themes in the academic discussion of his oeuvre The volume highlights Coetzee s exceptionally nuanced approach to writing as both an exacting craft and a challenging moral ethical undertaking It discusses Coetzee s complex relation to apartheid and post apartheid South Africa the land of his birth and evaluates his complicated responses to the literary canon Coetzee emerges as both a modernist and a highly self aware postmodernist a champion of the truths of aliterary enterprise conducted unrelentingly in the mode of self confession Contributors Chris Ackerley Derek Attridge Carrol Clarkson Simone Drichel Johan Geertsema
