Embracing Earth Payson R. Stevens, Kevin W. Kelley, 1992 Uses satellite photographs to show the beauty and fragility of the earth and to document the effect man has on the environment      Reports to the Nation on Our Changing Planet, 1991      The Telling Image Lois Farfel Stark, 2018-02-06 Next Generation Indie Book Awards Best Non Fiction 2019 National Indie Excellence Award Winner Nautilus Book Awards Gold 1 Amazon Best Seller in Architecture History Periods Amazon Best Seller in Art Subjects Themes Seeing the World Through Shape How do humans make sense of the world In answer to this timeless question award winning documentary filmmaker Lois Farfel Stark takes the reader on a remarkable journey from tribal ceremonies in Liberia and the pyramids in Egypt to the gravity defying architecture of modern China Drawing on her experience as a global explorer Stark unveils a crucial hidden key to understanding the universe Shape itself The Telling Image is a stunning synthesis of civilization's changing mindsets a brilliantly original perspective urging you to re envision history not as a story of kings and wars but through the lens of shape In this sweeping tour through time Stark takes us from migratory humans who imitated a web in round thatched huts and stone circles to the urban ladder of pyramids and skyscrapers organized by hierarchy and measurements to today's world of interconnected networks In The Telling Image Stark reveals how buildings behaviors and beliefs reflect humans search for pattern and meaning We can read the past and glimpse the future by watching when shapes shift Stark's beautifully illustrated book asks of all its readers See what you think      Green at Work Susan Cohn, 2013-04-22 Green at Work published by Island Press in 1992 was the first source of information to help nontechnical but environmentally concerned job seekers learn about career opportunities with environmental companies or within the newly emerging green corporate culture Now entirely revised and expanded this indispensable volume again offers invaluable tools and strategies for launching a green career Susan Cohn has expanded her scope beyond the business world to examine environmentally focused nontechnical careers in a wide variety of fields including communications banking and finance consulting public policy the non profit sector and more This completely updated edition includes profiles of more than 70 individuals that illustrate how people have woven their skills values and passions into their work listings of more than 400 companies with contact names addresses phone numbers information on what the company does and its environmental programs and policies listings of more than 50 resources including organizations publications and other sources of information a bibliography of recommended readings      Earth From Above Claire L. Parkinson, 1997-07-30 Written by a NASA scientist this is the first book specifically aimed at teaching the reader how to interpret the colour coded maps produced from raw satellite data The author identifies six major environmental topics atmospheric ozone polar sea ice continental snow cover sea surface temperatures land vegetation and volcanoes for which radiative data collected by satellites is providing new global information By learning to read the illustrative examples the reader should become capable of reading and understanding all well labelled colour coded satellite images      Space

François Penz, Gregory Radick, Robert Howell, 2004-03-25 What is space This fascinating journey of exploration begins in our own minds the space within our brains We discover how space is used in sign language and in architecture before moving on to the virtual space created in an imaginary computer generated world The delineation of space has been important throughout human history and we look at how boundaries have been mapped in the past and how they remain politically important today Finally we travel into outer space to look at human exploration and the ultimate nature of space and the universe
