The Emergence of Film Art Lewis Jacobs, 1969

History of the American Cinema: The emergence of cinema, to 1907, 1994 Covering a tumultuous period of the 1950s this work explores the divorce of movie studios from their theater chains the panic of the blacklist era the explosive emergence of science fiction as the dominant genre and the rise of television and Hollywood's response with widescreen spectacles

A Short History of Film Wheeler Winston Dixon, Gwendolyn Audrey Foster, 2013-02-15 A Short History of Film Second Edition provides a concise and accurate overview of the history of world cinema detailing the major movements directors studios and genres from 1896 through 2012 Accompanied by more than 250 rare color and black and white stills including many from recent films the new edition is unmatched in its panoramic view conveying a sense of cinema's sweep in the twentieth and early twenty first centuries as it is practiced in the United States and around the world Wheeler Winston Dixon and Gwendolyn Audrey Foster present new and amended coverage of the industry in addition to updating the birth and death dates and final works of notable directors Their expanded focus on key films brings the book firmly into the digital era and chronicles the death of film as a production medium The book takes readers through the invention of the kinetoscope the introduction of sound and color between the two world wars and ultimately the computer generated imagery of the present day It details significant periods in world cinema including the early major industries in Europe the dominance of the Hollywood studio system in the 1930s and 1940s and the French New Wave of the 1960s Attention is given to small independent efforts in developing nations and the more personal independent film movement that briefly flourished in the United States the significant filmmakers of all nations and the effects of censorship and regulation on production everywhere In addition the authors incorporate the stories of women and other minority filmmakers who have often been overlooked in other texts Engaging and accessible this is the best one stop source for the history of world film available for students teachers and general audiences alike

Towards a Comparative Economic History of Cinema, 1930-1970 John Sedgwick, 2022-09-09 This book examines the economic circumstances in which films were produced distributed exhibited and consumed during the spoken era of film production until 1970 The periodisation covers the years between the onset of sound and the demise of the phased distribution of films Films are generally appreciated for their aesthetic qualities But they are also commodities This work of economic history presents a new approach considering consumption behaviour as significant as supply side decision making Audiences tastes are considered central with box office an indicator of what they liked The POPSTAT Index of Film Popularity is used as a proxy where box office knowledge is missing Comparative analysis is conducted through the tool RelPOP The book comprises original case studies covering film consumption in Great Britain the Netherlands Sweden and the United States during the 1930s Australia and occupied Belgium during the Second World War and Italy the United States Poland and Czechoslovakia during the Post war An overriding theme is how the classical American business model which emerged during the 1910s linking production to distribution and exhibition adapted to local circumstances including the two countries behind the Iron Curtain during the years of High Stalinism History of the American Cinema: Boom and Bust: The American Cinema in the 1940's, 1990 The History of Cinema Geoffrey Nowell-Smith, 2017 In this Very Short Introduction Geoffrey Nowell Smith defines the field of cinema and explores its fascinating history within the cultural and aesthetic sphere Considering the influences of the other art forms from which it arose he looks at how technological advances have opened up new horizons for the cinema industry Film History, 2004 Movie History Douglas Gomery, Clara Pafort-Overduin, 2011 How can we understand the history of film Historical facts don't answer the basic questions of film history History as this book shows is more than the simple accumulation of film titles facts and figures Movie History: A Survey Douglas Gomery, Clara Pafort-Overduin, 2011-02-28 How can we understand the history of film Historical facts don't answer the basic questions of film history History as this fascinating book shows is more than the simple accumulation of film titles facts and figures This is a survey of over 100 years of cinema history from its beginnings in 1895 to its current state in the 21st century An accessible introductory text Movie History A Survey looks at not only the major films filmmakers and cinema institutions throughout the years but also extends to the production distribution exhibition technology and reception of films The textbook is divided chronologically into four sections using the timeline of technological changes Written by two highly respected film scholars and experienced teachers Movie History is the ideal textbook for students studying film history The Emergence of Cinema Charles Musser, 1990 Cinema, Television and History Laura Mee, Johnny Walker, 2014-10-16 Including essays from established and up and coming scholars Cinema Television and History New Approaches rethinks recontextualises and reviews the relationship between cinema television and history This volume incorporates a wide range of methods to a variety of topics welcoming both empirical and theoretical approaches as well as studies which merge the two It is a book about how historical events are interpreted and adapted across cinema and television as the basis of a story as much as it is about the endeavours of the practising historian through the exploration of the archive Divided into five parts New meanings new methods Re contextualising cinema and television history Rethinking histories of cinema and television Rethinking history through cinema and television and The impact of new technologies the book is knowingly broad and diverse in terms of the case studies featured within it and the means through which these examples are examined explored and utilised in their respective chapters Film Feminisms Kristin Lené Hole, Dijana Jelača, 2018-10-03 Film Feminisms offers a global and updated overview of the history present day concerns and future of feminist film and theory It introduces frameworks from phenomenology affect theory and psychoanalysis to reception studies new media theories and critical historiography as well as engaging with key issues in documentary ethics genre theory and star studies This new textbook situates feminist film theory within the larger framework of transnational scholarly approaches as well as decolonial queer disability studies and critical race theories It offers a much needed update on pedagogical approaches to feminist film studies providing discussions of filmmakers and films that have been overlooked in the field or that are overdue for further analysis Each chapter is supported by a variety of pedagogical features including activities key terms and case studies Many of the activities draw on contemporary digital media such as social media and streaming platforms to update the field to today's changing media landscape

How Film Histories Were Made Malte Hagener, Yvonne Zimmermann, 2025-10-01 This book is specifically dedicated to film history's own history It provides insights into the fabrication of film histories and the discourses on their materials and methods in the past in order to better understand and reconsider film history today The interventions unpack unspoken assumptions and hidden agendas that determine film historiography until today also with the aim to act as a critical reflection on the potential future orientation of the field The edited volume proposes a transnational entangled and culturally diverse approach towards an archaeology of film history while paying specific attention to persons objects infrastructures regions institutional fields and events hitherto overlooked It explores past and ongoing processes of doing undoing and redoing film history Thereby in a self-reflective gesture it also draws attention to our own work as film historians

Cinema and Development in West Africa James E. Genova, 2013-09-25 Illuminates the enduring importance of political and economic dynamics not yet fully explored in the study of African cinema Africa Cinema and Development in West Africa shows how the film industry in Francophone West African countries played an important role in executing strategies of nation building during the transition from French rule to the early postcolonial period James E Genova sees the construction of African identities and economic development as the major themes in the political literature and cultural production of the time Focusing on film both as industry and aesthetic genre he demonstrates its unique place in economic development and provides a comprehensive history of filmmaking in the region during the transition from colonies to sovereign states

Ideologies of the Real in Title Sequences, Motion Graphics and Cinema Michael Betancourt, 2019-08-13 This book explores the question of realism in motion pictures Specifically it explores how understanding the role of realism in the history of title sequences in film can illuminate discussions raised by the advent of digital cinema Ideologies of the Real in Title Sequences Motion Graphics and Cinema fills a critical and theoretical void in the existing literature on motion graphics Developed from careful analysis of Andr Bazin Stanley Cavell and Giles Deleuze's approaches to cinematic realism this analysis uses title sequences to engage the interface between narrative and non-narrative media to consider cinematic realism in depth through highly detailed close readings of the title sequences for Bullitt 1968 Kolchak The Night Stalker 1974 The Number 23 2007 The Kingdom 2008 Blade Runner 2049 2017 and the James Bond films From this critique author

Michael Betancourt develops a modal approach to cinematic realism where ontology is irrelevant to indexicality His analysis shows the continuity between historical analogue film and contemporary digital motion pictures by developing a framework for rethinking how realism shapes interpretation
