On the Writing of New Testament Commentaries Stanley E. Porter, Eckhard J. Schnabel, 2012-09-28 The essays in On the Writing of New Testament Commentaries discuss historical hermeneutical methodological literary and theological questions that shape the writing of commentaries on the books of the New Testament While these essays honor Grant R Osborne they also represent the first sustained effort to systematically address commentary writing in the field of New Testament studies Basis of Preaching Biblical Message: Preach the Word Rev Dr koningthung Ngoru Moyon, 2024-11-07 Public Speaking is one of the most important task and challenging to the human beings It is imperative for all the committed Christians to lean learn and live with the Biblical truths As such the knowledge and application of Scripture is an utmost necessity to be grounded upon the word of God The necessity of Scripture means that the Bible is necessary for knowing the gospel for maintaining spiritual and moral life and for knowing God s will but is not necessary for knowing that God exists or for knowing something about God's character and moral law Basis of Preaching Biblical Message Preach the Word is for the glory of God the building up of the church and society and the spreading of the Gospel to the ends of the earth that is to all the creation Biblical preaching is centered around and takes its content from the inerrant Word of God True Biblical preaching aims at life change Biblical preaching also comes through the personality of the preacher Some communicators or preachers are encouragers some are confrontational Some are humour while others use sound logic and well reasoned content It is not good to fall into the trap of trying to mimic your favourite preacher Instead learn from them and develop your own style as a good communicator Rev Dr Koningthung Ngoru Moyon presents Biblical Preaching in his book Basis of Preaching Biblical Message Preach the Word is both an art and a science It is a science in the sense that there are rules and principles of communication that we are to follow It is an art in that each person brings his own unique personality and style to the preaching experience Preaching is truth through personality Both are necessary However the very important and foremost focus in the book is that Biblical Preaching is empowered by the work of the Holy Spirit is focus in the book The Reading and Preaching of the Scriptures in the Worship of the Christian Church, Volume 6 Hughes Oliphant Old, 2007 The Reading and Preaching of the Scriptures in the Worship of the Christian Church is a multivolume study by Hughes Oliphant Old that canvasses the history of preaching from the words of Moses at Mount Sinai through modern times In Volume 1 The Biblical Period Old begins his survey by discussing the roots of the Christian ministry of the Word in the worship of Israel He then examines the preaching of Christ and the Apostles Finally Old looks at the development and practice of Christian preaching in the second and third centuries concluding with the ministry of Origen Expository Notes on the Epistle of James H. Ironside, 2016-04-26 It is a grave mistake to infer as some have done that this Epistle emphasizes works rather than faith It stresses the importance of faith throughout but shows that real faith is never separated from a life of piety Many besides Martin Luther have thought they detected contradictory teaching in the letter of James to that of Paul as set forth in Romans and Galatians but a careful examination of these letters will show that they were treating of altogether different subjects Paul was dwelling on justification before God James on justification before men Had Luther seen this in his early days and put more stress upon it he might have saved many of his followers from resting on mere credulity instead of knowing the reality of saving faith in Chapter 3 would be designed to correct a misunderstanding bordering on antinomianism on the part of some who were pushing Paul s teaching to an extreme which he never intended It seems to be a tendency inherent in most of us to go to extremes in matters of doctrine This is true in regard to the question of our salvation as well as in other things Some insist that we are saved by character that only as we do good works and consistently obey the law of God can we be justified At the other extreme are those who rest solely upon an historical faith for their acceptance with the Lord ignoring the need of that inner change which the Saviour described as a new birth and which is evidenced by a life of practical righteousness The Holy Spirit used the Apostle Paul in a special way to show the fallacy of the first of these views He insists that justification before God is never by the deeds of the law but by faith in Christ James deals with the second error and makes it plain that the faith that saves is a faith that works and that no one is justified before God who is not justified practically before men Preaching Values in the Bible Ph.
