Jewish Girls Coming of Age in America, 1860-1920 Melissa R. Klapper, 2005 Jewish Girls Coming of Age in America 1860 1920 draws on a wealth of archival material much of which has never been published or even read to illuminate the ways in which Jewish girls adolescent experiences reflected larger issues relating to gender ethnicity religion and education Klapper explores the dual roles girls played as agents of acculturation and guardians of tradition Their search for an identity as American girls that would not require the abandonment of Jewish tradition and culture mirrored the struggle of their families and communities for integration into American society While focusing on their lives as girls not the adults they would later become Klapper draws on the papers of such figures as Henrietta Szold founder of Hadassah Edna Ferber Pulitzer Prize winning author of Showboat and Marie Syrkin literary critic and Zionist Klapper also analyzes the diaries memoirs and letters of hundreds of other girls whose later lives and experiences have been lost to history Told in an engaging style and filled with colorful quotes the book brings to life a neglected group of fascinating historical figures during a pivotal moment in the development of gender roles adolescence and the modern American Jewish community

Nuns' Chronicles and Convent Culture in Renaissance and Counter-Reformation Italy K. J. P. Lowe, 2003-12-04 This well illustrated and innovative book analyses convent culture in sixteenth century Italy through the medium of three unpublished nuns chronicles It uses a comparative methodology of connected differences to examine the intellectual and imaginative achievement of these nuns and to investigate how they fashioned and preserved individual and convent identities by writing chronicles The chronicles themselves reveal many examples of nuns agency especially with regard to cultural creativity and show that convent traditions determined cultural priorities and specialisms and dictated the contours of convent ceremonial life
