The Faber Book of Seductions Jenny Newman, 1990      The Seductions of Psychoanalysis John Forrester, 1991-10-25
Reflection on the history of psychoanalysis its conceptual foundations and its relation to other disciplines      Seduction and Betrayal Elizabeth Hardwick, 2011-07-13 A vivid and provocative literary criticism of famous women writers from Virginia Woolf to Zelda Fitzgerald by a gifted miniaturist biographer Joyce Carol Oates The novelist and essayist Elizabeth Hardwick is one of contemporary America's most brilliant writers and Seduction and Betrayal in which she considers the careers of women writers as well as the larger question of the presence of women in literature is her most passionate and concentrated work of criticism A gallery of unforgettable portraits of Virginia Woolf and Zelda Fitzgerald Dorothy Wordsworth and Jane Carlyle as well as a provocative reading of such works as Wuthering Heights Hedda Gabler and the poems of Sylvia Plath Seduction and Betrayal is a virtuoso performance a major writer's reckoning with the relations between men and women women and writing writing and life      Seduction Spirit Harvey Cox, 1973 A fusion of theology and autobiography      The Seduction of Fiction Jean-François Vernay, 2016-10-04 By meshing psychology with literary analysis this book inspires us to view the reading of fictional works as an emotional and seductive affair between reader and writer Arguing that current teaching practices have contributed to the current decline in the study of literature Jean-François Vernay's plea brings a refreshing perspective by seeking new directions and conceptual tools to highlight the value of literature Interdisciplinary in focus and relevant to timely discussions of the vitality between emotion and literary studies particularly within the contexts of psychology affect studies and cognitive studies this book will open up a space in which the formation of our emotions can be openly examined and discussed      The Art of Seduction Robert Greene, 2025-10-07 From the author of the multi million copy bestseller The 48 Laws of Power and The Laws of Human Nature a mesmerizing handbook on seduction the most subtle and effective form of power This is the only authorized hardcover edition in the US When raised to the level of art seduction an indirect and subtle form of power has toppled empires won elections and enslaved great minds Immerse yourself in the twenty four maneuvers and strategies of the seductive process the ritual by which a seducer gains mastery over his target Understand how to Poeticize Your Presence Keep them in Suspense What Comes Next and Master the Art of the Bold Move Every bit as essential as The 48 Laws of Power The Art of Seduction is an indispensable primer of persuasion that reveals one of history's greatest weapons and the ultimate form of power      Seductions Jane Miller, 1991 One of the deadliest of seductions for feminists is their seduction by theorists by theories With this boldly polemical stroke Jane Miller begins her exploration stealthily cumulatively and with a deft and compelling intelligence In looking at the complex relation of women to culture and literature and to theory and politics and in recalling her own coming to feminism she asks how women experience themselves within ideas and traditions which simultaneously include and exclude them take their presence for granted and deny it Seduction as a category binds together the ambivalence the pleasure and the invisible coercions of male female relations while at the same time transgressing the implicit imperative in patriarchal societies to confine eroticism and its politics to the closet Seductions consists of five loosely connected almost autonomous chapters which nevertheless trace a historical progression from the eighteenth century to the present Miller borrows Antonio Gramsci's idea of hegemony using it to contextualize her readings of two famous literary seductions as told through Richardson's Clarissa and Jane Austen's Sense and Sensibility The second chapter focuses on Raymond Williams novels and criticism using them to chart the larger exclusions of feminism by Marxism The author enlists Carolyn Steedman's Landscape for a Good Woman in an attempt to survey Williams telling silences The third chapter reconstructs and analyzes the life and career of Clara Collet Miller's great aunt close friend of George Gissing civil servant and expert on women's education and work Through Collet Miller bestows individual color on the pressures inflicted on professional women to assume male perspectives and procedures The fourth chapter is superb Bracketed by discussions of Charlotte Brontë's Villette and Toni Morrison's Beloved it questions influential treatments of colonialism and orientalism which use women as a metaphor without listening for the testimony of real women It is a moving plea to set the category of women alongside more privileged categories of class and race The final chapter counterpoints the internal contradictions in the polyphonic theories of Bakhtin and Volosinov with an account of women's distrust of other women in Margaret Atwood's Cat's Eye By ending with an evocation of women's self dislike Miller emphasizes the chilling ways in which cultural exclusions and degradations of women are internalized and replicated by complicitous victims

Emotion and the Seduction of the Senses, Baroque to Neo-Baroque Lisa Beaven, Angela Ndalianis, 2018-07-31 Emotion and the Seduction of the Senses Baroque to Neo Baroque examines the relationship between the cultural productions of the baroque in the seventeenth century and the neo baroque in our contemporary world The volume illuminates how rather than providing rationally ordered visual realms both the baroque and the neo baroque construct complex performative spaces whose spectacle seeks to embrace immerse and seduce the senses and solicit the emotions of the beholder

Willing Seduction Barbara Kosta, 2012 This fascinating cultural history of The blue angel provides a new interpretive framework with which to approach this classic Weimar film and suggests that discourses on mass and high culture are integral to the film's thematic and narrative structure These discourses surface in the relationship between the two main characters the cabaret entertainer Lola Lola Marlene Dietrich and the high school teacher Immanuel Rath one time Oscar winner Emil Jannings In addition to offering insight into some of the major debates that informed the Weimar Republic this book also demonstrates how similar issues continue to shape the contemporary cultural landscape of Germany where Dietrich serves as a cultural icon whose symbolic value has contributed significantly to nation building since German unification rear cover

Artful Seduction Karl Posso, 2017-12-02 The controversial works of Brazilian authors Silviano Santiago 1936 and Caio Fernando Abreu 1948-96 offer distinctive but complementary explorations of male homosexual subjectivities formulated through displacement exile and the abject Posso examines the innovative ways in which these writers stage manage Western poststructuralist thought to critique heterosexist exclusion in Brazil and in globalized popular and folk culture and he explains how they draw on diverse cultural productions and art works to extend a general undermining of oppositional logic and psychoanalytic theory The Seduction of Curves Allan McRobie,2017-09-19 In this large format book lavishly illustrated in color throughout Allan McRobie takes the reader on an alluring exploration of the beautiful curves that shape our world from our bodies to Salvador Dalí's paintings and the space time fabric of the universe itself The book focuses on seven curves the fold cusp swallowtail and butterfly plus the hyperbolic elliptical and parabolic umbilics and describes the surprising origins of their taxonomy in the catastrophe theory of mathematician René Thom

Understanding the Women of Mozart's Operas Kristi Brown-Montesano,2021-11-09 Is The Marriage of Figaro just about Figaro Is Don Giovanni's story the only one or even the most interesting one in the opera that bears his name For generations of critics historians and directors it's Mozart's men who have mattered most Too often the female characters have been understood from the male protagonist's point of view or simply reduced on stage and in print to paper cutouts from the age of the powdered wig and the tightly cinched corset It's time to give Mozart's women and Mozart's multi dimensional portrayals of feminine character their due In this lively book Kristi Brown Montesano offers a detailed exploration of the female roles in Mozart's four most frequently performed operas Le nozze di Figaro Don Giovanni Cos fan tutte and Die Zauberflöte Each chapter takes a close look at the music libretto text literary sources and historical factors that give shape to a character re evaluating common assumptions and proposing fresh interpretations Brown Montesano views each character as the subject of a story not merely the object of a hero's narrative or the stock figure of convention From amiable Zerlina to the awesome Queen of the Night to calculating Despina all of Mozart's women have something unique to say These readings also tackle provocative social political and cultural issues which are used in the operas to define positive and negative images of femininity revenge power seduction resistance autonomy sacrifice faithfulness class maternity and sisterhood Keenly aware of the historical gap between the origins of these works and contemporary culture Brown Montesano discusses how attitudes about such concepts past and current influence our appreciation of these fascinating representations of women

Seduction Clement Knox,2020-02-04 A brilliantly original history that explores the shifting cultural mores of courtship told through the lives of remarkable women and men throughout history If sex has generally been a private matter seduction has always been of intense public interest Whether the stuff of front page tabloid news the scandal of nineteenth century American courts or the stuff of literature across the eras we are fascinated by stories of seduction and sex In the first history of its kind Clement Knox explores seduction in all its historical and cultural incarnations Moving from the Garden of Eden to the carnivals of eighteenth century Venice and from the bawdy world of Georgian London to the saloons and speakeasies of the Jazz Age this is an exploration of timeless themes of power desire and free will Along the way we meet Mary

Wollstonecraft her daughter Mary Shelley and her friend Caroline Norton and reckon with their fight for women's rights and freedoms We encounter Jack Johnson the first black heavyweight champion of the world who became entangled in America's labyrinthine and racialized seduction laws We discover how tall tales of predatory vampires hypnotists and immigrants were mobilized by Nazis and nativists to help propel them to power We consider how after seduction seemingly vanished from view during the Sexual Revolution it exploded back into our lives as The Game became a multi million bestseller online dating swept the world and the ongoing male fascinating with manipulating women was exposed In a big thinking cultural history told through an extraordinary range of stories and sources Knox explores how our ideas about desire and pursuit have developed in step with the modern world This is a bold modern charter of seduction from the birth of the Enlightenment to the explosion of romantic literature and right up to our contemporary moments of reckoning around incel culture and MeToo

Seduction Catherine Gildiner, 2010-05-21 During her decade in prison Kate Fitzgerald has learned a few things The best way to survive is to absorb yourself in your own world Never make eye contact with your fellow inmates And the last person you can trust is your prison psychiatrist not only is he likely to be lazy and incompetent really why else wouldn't he be getting rich off of well heeled clients instead but if you complain about him you're going to be labelled as a permanent malcontent and denied parole So when Dr Gardonne offers Kate a temporary absence and a job working for him she only takes it because she knows that turning him down could be worse for her in the long run counted in prison years of course But the real challenge is figuring out why he would choose her On the surface it s pretty clear Kate has spent her incarceration immersing herself in the writings of Sigmund Freud and has become a recognized expert on his work Dr Gardonne represents the members of a psychoanalytic organization that is being attacked at its core Anders Konzak the hand picked director of the Freud academy has been boasting to the media that his new research on Freud will bring the entire profession of psychoanalysis to its knees He s also been receiving death threats And Kate as an outsider is the only one Konzak will talk to Though she doesn t trust Gardonne Kate accepts his offer and she races to uncover Konzak s secrets before he publishes his work Never one to work well with others Kate is less than thrilled to find out Gardonne has hired a private detective to be her partner Jackie Lawton is a hardened ex con who has spent most of his life in prison and only recently turned things around by starting his own business From the moment the two meet Kate sees that it won t be easy working with a man who isn t really interested in the intellectual battle at hand and who keeps her prison time at the forefront of every conversation And can he really be trusted When key players who were all last seen with Kate begin to turn up dead there s the very real possibility she s being set up by Gardonne After all who would believe the word of a convict serving time for murdering her husband All she can hope is that following the threads of Konzak s research to his sources will keep her one step ahead of Gardonne and lead her to the real killer With Seduction Catherine Gildiner gives us not only a gripping detective story full of shifting characters and fast paced twists but a remarkable intellectual thriller Through the letters and papers of Sigmund Freud Charles Darwin and the venerable Wedgwood family Gildiner brings the personalities and ideological conflicts of the past to life in the present Along the way we meet an assortment of characters from social misfits to the demure but resolute Anna Freud who is still living in the London house where she brought her ailing father for the last year of his life and where she actively guards his legacy The story takes us from Toronto to Vienna London the Isle of Wight New York and back again to Toronto each locale seen through the eyes of Kate who relishes in the beauty of a world that has been denied to her for a decade

Lord Gnome's Literary Companion Francis Wheen, 1994 His review has got to be in by mid day tomorrow at about 9 pm his mind will grow relatively clear and until the small hours he will sit skipping expertly through one book after another and laying each one down with the comment God what tripe Then suddenly he will snap into
