Imagining Apocalypse NA, 2016-04-30. This volume brings together essays by specialists in different disciplines on the cultural expression of apocalypse in particular in Anglophone science fiction of the nineteenth and twentieth centuries. Approaching these works from historical, philosophical, linguistic and literary perspectives, the contributors examine the relationship between secular and spiritual apocalypse, connecting the fiction and films to their historical moment. Not surprisingly, war recurs throughout this material as a critical turning point, fulfilment of prophecy or prelude to a new age. In particular, the essays explore the issue of whether modern apocalypse is seen as an ending or a beginning, considered under its political, ethnic and gendered aspects. Among the writers covered are H.G. Wells, Olaf Stapledon and such contemporary figures as Michael Moorcock, J.G. Ballard and Storm Constantine. Education of Cancer Healing Vol. I - Wake Up Call Peter Havasi, The Japanese Through American Eyes Sheila K. Johnson, 1991. Largely based on the information conveyed by bestselling novels, magazines, cartoons, movies and television shows, this is an illuminating look at American attitudes and stereotypes about Japan since World War II. The book is illustrated with one photograph and sixteen cartoons. Eyewitness to America David Colbert, 1998-07-28. Thomas Jefferson complains about haggling over the Declaration of Independence.
