Twisted Confessions Charles E. Skoller, 2008 In the early 1960s the quiet borough of Queens was rocked by the violent and brutal murders of Barbara Kralik Annie Mae Johnson and Kitty Genovese These murders shocked not only Queens and

New York but the entire nation especially when newspapers disclosed Kitty's neighbors heard her screams and looked on without calling the police. Two suspects were apprehended and indicted Winston Moseley for the Genovese murder and Alvin Mitchell for the Kralik murder. Before the trials Moseley claimed to have committed the Kralik and Johnson murders as well not taken seriously by the police and DA until Moseley disclosed details only the actual killer could have known. Charles Skoller the young prosecutor assigned to these trials was now faced with a prosecutor's nightmare. In Twisted Confessions he details the murders and relives his investigations and trials that followed in the almost impossible task of revealing and convicting the actual killer.

Interrogations, Confessions, and Entrapment G. Daniel Lassiter, 2013-11-11 Coerced confessions have long been a staple of TV crime dramas and have also been the subject of recent news stories. The complexity of such situations however is rarely explored even in the scientific literature. Now in softcover Interrogations, Confessions, and Entrapment remains one of the best syntheses of the scientific, legal and ethical findings in this area, uncovering subtle yet powerful forces that often compromise the integrity of the criminal justice system. Editor G. Daniel Lassiter identifies the exposure of psychological coercion as an emerging frontier in legal psychology, citing its roots in the third degree approach of former times and noting that its techniques carry little scientific validity. A team of psychologists, criminologists and legal scholars asks and goes a long way toward answering important questions such as: What forms of psychological coercion are involved in interrogation? Are some people more susceptible to falsely confessing than others? What are the effects of psychological manipulation on innocent suspects? Are coercive tactics ever justified with minors? Can jurors recognize psychological coercion and unreliable confessions? Can entrapment techniques encourage people to commit crimes? What steps can law enforcement take to minimize coercion? Throughout this progressive volume readers will find important research-based ideas for educating the courts, changing policy and implementing reform from improving police interrogation skills to better methods of evaluating confession evidence. For the expert witness, legal consultant or student of forensic psychology this is material whose relevance will only increase with time.
