have been awarded the Nobel Peace Prize posthumously Through extensive research in little explored archives and personal correspondence Roger Lipsey has produced the definitive biography of Dag Hammarskjöld Hammarskjöld A Life provides vivid new insights into the life and mind of a truly great individual Hammarskjöld the statesman and Hammarskjöld the author of the classic spiritual journal Markings meet in this new biography and the reader will meet them both in these pages A towering mid twentieth century figure Hammarskjöld speaks directly to our time The Historical Novel,

Transnationalism, and the Postmodern Era Susan Brantly, 2017-02-17 This volume explores the genre of the historical novel and the variety of ways in which writers choose to represent the past How does an author's nationality or gender impact their artistic choices To what extent can historical novels appeal to a transnational audience This study demonstrates how histories can communicate across national borders often by invoking or deconstructing the very notion of nationhood Furthermore it traces how the concerns of the postmodern era such as postmodern critiques of historiography colonialism identity and the Enlightenment have impacted the genre of the historical novel and shows this impact has not been uniform throughout Western culture Not all historical novels written during the postmodern era are postmodern The historical novel as a genre occupies a problematic yet significant space in Cold War literary currents torn between claims of authenticity and the impossibility of accessing the past Historical novels from England America Germany and France are compared and contrasted with historical novels from Sweden testing a variety of theoretical perspectives in the process This pitting of a center against a periphery serves to highlight traits that historical novels from the West have in common but also how they differ The historical novel is not just a local regional phenomenon but has become during the postmodern era a transnational tool for exploring how we should think of nations and nationalism and what a society should or should not look like

Music, Collective Memory, Trauma, and Nostalgia in European Cinema after the Second World War Michael Baumgartner,Ewelina Boczkowska,2019-09-23 In the wake of World War II the arts and culture of Europe became a site where the devastating events of the 20th century were remembered and understood Exploring one of the most integral elements of the cinematic experience music the essays in this volume consider the numerous ways in which post war European cinema dealt with memory trauma and nostalgia showing how the music of these films shaped the representation of the past The contributors consider films from the United Kingdom Poland the Soviet Union France Italy Germany Sweden Austria and the Netherlands providing a diverse and well rounded understanding of film music in the context of historical memory Memory is often underrepresented within scholarly musical studies with most of these applications found in the disciplines of ethnomusicology popular music studies music cognition and psychology and music therapy Likewise trauma has mainly been studied in relation to music in only a few historical contexts while nostalgia has attracted even less academic attention In three parts this volume addresses each area of study as it relates to the music of European cinema from 1945 to 1989 applying an interdisciplinary approach to investigate how films use music to negotiate the precarious relationships we maintain with the past Music Collective Memory Trauma and Nostalgia in European Cinema after the Second World War offers compelling arguments as to what makes music such a powerful medium for memory trauma and nostalgia

Politics and Conscience Roger Lipsey, 2020-02-25

An accessible guide to the principles and vision of Dag Hammarskjöld, a man John F. Kennedy called the greatest statesman of our century. Dag Hammarskjöld served as Secretary General of the United Nations from 1953 until his tragic death in a suspicious plane crash in 1961. During those years he saw the fledgling international organization through numerous crises with skill that made him a star on the international stage. As readers of his now classic diary Markings are aware, Hammarskjöld understood political leadership as an honor calling for resourcefulness, humility, moral clarity, and spiritual reflection. In this accessible handbook, acclaimed biographer Roger Lipsey details the political and personal code by which Hammarskjöld lived and made critical decisions. What emerges is the portrait of a man who struck a remarkable balance between patience and action, empathy and reserve, policy and people. Structured through short sections on themes such as courage, facing facts, and negotiation, Politics and Conscience offers a vision of ethical leadership as relevant today as it was in Hammarskjöld's time.
