Infractions

Jerry Parkinson,2019-09-01 Jerry Parkinson spent nearly ten years from 2000 to 2010 as a member of the NCAA's Division I Committee on Infractions participating in over one hundred major infractions cases. He came away from that experience and the experience of reading extensive commentary on infractions cases with the conviction that most observers do not understand the NCAA's rules enforcement process despite the amount of public attention many major cases receive. Parkinson uses his insider's perspective along with illustrative stories to help readers understand how the NCAA's rules enforcement process really works. These stories include a university board of trustees chair committing suicide over an infractions case, a pay for play scandal leading directly to the state's governor, a head coach falsely portraying a deceased player as a drug dealer to cover up the coach's own misconduct, a gambler laundering his money by making the largest booster payments in NCAA history, and a coach's sexual abuse of children leading to some of the harshest sanctions ever imposed by the NCAA. Based on years of experience and infused with insight, Parkinson provides a broad view of the world of NCAA rule breakers and the NCAA rules enforcement process. What Inspirational Literature Do I Read Next? Pamela Willwerth Aue, Henry L.
