The Hidden 1970s Dan Berger, 2010-09-24 The 1970s were a complex multilayered and critical part of a long era of profound societal change and an essential component of the decade before several of the most iconic events of the sixties occurred in the ten years that followed The Hidden 1970s explores the distinctiveness of those years a time when radicals tried to change the world as the world changed around them This powerful collection is a compelling assessment of left wing social movements in a period many have described as dominated by conservatism or confusion. Scholars examine critical and largely buried legacies of the 1970s. The decade of Nixon's fall and Reagan's rise also saw widespread indigenous militancy, prisoner uprisings, transnational campaigns for self-determination, pacifism, and queer theories of play as political action. Contributors focus on diverse topics including the internationalization of Black Power and Native sovereignty, organizing for Puerto Rican independence among Latinos and whites, and women's self-defense. Essays and ideas trace the roots of struggles from the 1960s through the 1970s, providing fascinating insight into the myriad ways that radical social movements shaped American political culture in the 1970s and the many ways they continue to do so today. Gays and Grays Donal

Godfrey, 2007-07-20 Gays and Grays tells the story of a unique Catholic parish, Most Holy Redeemer Parish in San Francisco, which is in the center of the world's first gay neighborhood, The Castro. This parish was the center of the hostility to the arriving gay population in the 1970s but paradoxically was itself transformed into a welcoming parish. The old-time parishioners, the gray-bonded with the new comers, the gay, particularly in a joint compassionate response to the crisis of AIDS. A charismatic pastor, FR Tony McGuire, also played a key role in the transformation of this interesting parish. Most Holy Redeemer was changed from a dying parish to a vital place where gay and straight people together created something new. Father Donal Godfrey shows how this parish became prophetic and compassionate through conflict and compromise at times despite opposition from many sources, including the institutionalized homophobia of the church and society. Rather than becoming embittered, the parish opened up to be a place of healing and indeed sanctuary for many. This book tells this fascinating story and why it is significant beyond the scope of San Francisco. Most Holy Redeemer is a place which has remained within the institution while at the same time challenging it with grace and humor. This accessible and moving book is appropriate for all levels of students of congregational studies, Sociology of Religion, Gay or Queer Studies, and Religion courses. Communities and

Authors provide an overview of the concept of place and its role in informing identity formation and community building. The book also includes interactive project prompts providing opportunities to practically apply topics and theories discussed in the chapters. Black Sexualities Juan Battle, Sandra L. Barnes, 2009-11-24 Why does society have difficulty discussing sexualities? Where does fear of Black sexualities emerge, and how is it manifested? How can varied experiences of Black females and males who are lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, LGBT, or straight help inform dialogue and academic inquiry? From questioning forces that have constrained sexual choices to examining how Blacks have forged healthy sexual identities in an oppressive environment, Black Sexualities acknowledges the diversity of the Black experience and the shared legacy of racism. Contributors seek resolution to Blacks' understanding of their lives as sexual beings through stories of empowerment healing self awareness victories and other historic and contemporary life course panoramas and provide practical information to foster more culturally relative research tolerance and acceptance The Oxford Handbook of Music and Queerness Fred Everett Maus,Sheila Whiteley,Tavia Nyong'o,Tavia Amolo Ochieng' Nyongó,Zoe C.
