Face To Face A Reader In The World:

The Continental Philosophy Reader Richard Kearney, Mara Rainwater, 1996 The Continental Philosophy Reader is the first complete anthology of classic writings from the major figures in European thought and provides a powerful introduction to one of the 20th century's most influential intellectual movements Meet Me at the Fair: A World's Fair Reader Celia Pearce, Bobby Schweizer, Laura Hollengreen, Rebecca Rouse, 2014 Together with the Olympics world's fairs are one of the few regular international events of sufficient scale to showcase a spectrum of sights wonders learning opportunities technological advances and new or renewed urban districts and to present them all to a mass audience Meet Me at the Fair A World's Fair Reader breaks new ground in scholarship on world's fairs by incorporating a number of short new texts that investigate world's fairs in their multiple aspects political urban architectural anthropological sociological technological commercial popular and representational Contributors come from eight different countries and represent affiliations in academia museums and libraries professional and architectural firms non profit organizations and government regulatory agencies In taking the measure of both the material artifacts and the larger cultural production of world's fairs the volume presents its own phantasmagoria of disciplinary perspectives historical periods geographical locales media and messages mirroring the microcosmic form of the world's fair itself The Advanced Reader, 1866 Reading for Democracy Laura Bieger, 2025-09-26 Is literature of political use and if yes how might this use be defined Reading for Democracy addresses this question in a series of essays with topics ranging from reading as a political practice to the relational aesthetics of literary engagement from the public sphere as a space of appearance to public intellectuals and the predicament of popularity from Jesmyn Ward's poetics of breathing while Black to the art of the essay in the digital age In considering these topics it engages with a range of philosophical sociological media and literary critical works by scholars including Jürgen Habermas Michael Warner John Dewey Hannah Arendt Jean Paul Sartre Theodor Adorno Nicolas Bourriaud and Pierre Bourdieu But the baseline of the essays collected in this volume is an understanding of literature as a social practice a collective doing and making that involves a multiplicity of human and non human actors writers readers publishers agents book covers prize committees English departments literary characters and styles adaptations for stage and screen In this framework literary texts are not stable objects They are bonding agents in a complex and shifting web of relations and in this capacity they catalyze and channel the activities necessary to forge these relations reading writing publishing republishing citing reciting reviewing recommending Moving back and forth between two shape shifting actors the reading public and a socially engaged literature the assembled essays show how the political functions and uses of literature are defined from within this constellation or more precisely through the collective and reflective forms of judgment including aesthetic judgement that are tried and institutionalized in practicing literature And that are essential to negotiating the shape of the world Which is what the political is all about A William V. Spanos Reader Daniel T. O'Hara, Michelle Martin, Donald

Pease,2015-05-30 The American critic William V Spanos a pioneer of postmodern theory and co founder of one of its principal organs the journal boundary 2 is in the words of A William V Spanos Reader coeditor Daniel T O Hara everything that current post modern theory is accused of not being polemical engaged prophetic passionate Informed by his experience as a prisoner of war in Dresden Spanos saw dire consequences for life in modernist aesthetic experiments and he thereafter imbued his work with a constructive aspect ever in the name of more life Ancient World: Reader, 5th ed. , Stylistic

Manipulation of the Reader in Contemporary Fiction Sandrine Sorlin,2019-12-12 This book focuses on how readers can be manipulated during their experience of reading fictional texts and how they are incited to perceive process and interpret certain textual patterns Offering fine grained stylistic analysis of diverse genres including crime fiction short stories poetry and novels the book deciphers various linguistic pragmatic and multimodal techniques These are skilfully used by authors to achieve specific effects through a subtle manipulation of deixis metalepsis dialogue metaphors endings inferences or rhetorical narratorial and typographical control Exploring contemporary texts such as The French Lieutenant's Woman The Remains of the Day and We Need to Talk About Kevin chapters delve into how readers are pragmatically positioned or cognitively mis directed as the author guides their attention and influences their judgment They also show how readers responses can conversely bring about a certain form of manipulation as readers challenge the positions the texts invite them to occupy The Global Intercultural Communication Reader Molefi Kete Asante,Yoshitaka Miike,Jing Yin,2013-06-26 The Global Intercultural Communication Reader is the first anthology to take a distinctly non Eurocentric approach to the study of culture and communication In this expanded second edition editors Molefi Kete Asante Yoshitaka Miike and Jing Yin bring together thirty two essential readings for students of cross cultural intercultural and international communication This stand out collection aims to broaden and deepen the scope of the field by placing an emphasis on diversity including work from authors across the globe examining the processes and politics of intercultural communication from critical historical and indigenous perspectives The collection covers a wide range of topics the emergence and evolution of the field issues and challenges in cross cultural and intercultural inquiry cultural wisdom and communication practices in context identity and intercultural competence in a multicultural society the effects of globalization and ethical considerations Many readings first appeared outside the mainstream Western academy and offer diverse theoretical lenses on culture and communication practices in the world community Organized into five themed sections for easy classroom use The Global Intercultural Communication Reader includes a detailed bibliography that will be a crucial resource for today's students of intercultural communication Textile World ,1921 The Collective Memory Reader Jeffrey K. Olick,Vered Vinitzky-Seroussi,Daniel Levy,2011 There are few terms or concepts that have in the last twenty or so years rivaled collective memory for attention in the humanities and social sciences Indeed use of the term has extended far beyond scholarship to the realm of politics and journalism where it has appeared in speeches at the centers of power and on the front pages of the world's leading newspapers The current efflorescence of interest in memory however is no mere passing fad it is a hallmark characteristic of our age and a crucial site for understanding our present social political and cultural conditions Scholars and others in numerous fields have thus employed the concept of collective memory sociological in origin to guide their inquiries into diverse though allegedly connected phenomena Nevertheless there remains a great deal of confusion about the meaning origin and implication of the term and the field of inquiry it underwrites The Collective Memory Reader presents organizes and evaluates past work and contemporary contributions on the questions raised under the rubric of collective memory Combining seminal texts hard to find classics previously untranslated references and contemporary landmarks it will serve as an essential resource for teaching and research in the field In addition in both its selections as well as in its editorial materials it suggests a novel life story for the field one that appreciates recent innovations but only against the background of a long history In addition to its major editorial introduction which outlines a useful past for contemporary memory studies The Collective Memory Reader includes five sections Precursors and Classics History Memory and Identity Power Politics and Contestation Media and Modes of Transmission Memory Justice and the Contemporary Epoch comprising ninety one texts In addition to the essay introducing the entire volume a brief editorial essay introduces each of the sections while brief capsules frame each of the 91 texts Rhetoric, the Polis, and the Global Village C. Jan Swearingen, David S. Kaufer, 1999-07 This volume of select conference papers represents current thought on the role of rhetoric in various disciplines including topics of race technology and religion It is of interest to scholars in classical contemporary rhetoric and related fields The Global Resistance Reader Louise Amoore, 2005 The Global Resistance Reader provides the first comprehensive collection of work on the phenomenal rise of transnational social movements and resistance politics from the visible struggles against the financial economic and political authority of large international organizations such as the World Trade Organization World Bank and International Monetary Fund to the much less visible acts of resistance in everyday life The conceptual debates substantive themes and case studies have been selected to open up the idea of global resistance to interrogation and discussion by students and to provide a one stop orientation for researchers journalists policymakers and activists The Roger Scruton Reader, 2010-01-06 The Roger Scruton Reader is the first comprehensive collection of Scruton's writings spanning a period of thirty years It gathers selections from some of his earliest works such as The Aesthetics of Architecture 1979 to his most recent Culture Counts 2007 The book also includes a good number of unpublished essays It is made up of five sections the last section of all contains some of Scruton's most pugilistic pieces on Dawkins and on The Iraq War Scruton holds Burkean political views and his book The Meaning of Conservatism was a response to the growth of liberalism in the Conservative party At all times he is concerned to shift the right way from economics towards moral issues such as sex education and censorship laws But he has in fact written on almost every aspect of philosophy always in prose which is accessible and written with pellucid clarity Human Posture John A. Schumacher, 1989-10-01 Schumacher has written a provocative work in the philosophy of science In presenting posture as the most important aspect of life Schumacher examines how the terms of posture encompass all the major disciplines and provide a means for resolving human dilemmas through a humanistically oriented philosophy of inquiry He investigates a variety of important philosophical topics abstract thought perception time space sexuality education and community Insights into the origins and measures of space and time are especially valuable
