The Dark Fantastic Ebony Elizabeth Thomas, 2020-09-22 Winner 2022 Children's Literature Association Book Award given by the Children's Literature Association Winner 2020 World Fantasy Awards Winner 2020 British Fantasy Awards Nonfiction Finalist Creative Nonfiction IGNYTE Award given by FIYACON for BIPOC in Speculative Fiction Reveals the diversity crisis in children's and young adult media as not only a lack of representation but a lack of imagination Stories provide portals into other worlds both real and imagined The promise of escape draws people from all backgrounds to speculative fiction but when people of color seek passageways into the fantastic the doors are often barred This problem lies not only with children's publishing but also with the television and film executives tasked with adapting these stories into a visual world When characters of color do appear they are often marginalized or subjected to violence reinforcing for audiences that not all lives matter The Dark Fantastic is an engaging and provocative exploration of race in popular youth and young adult speculative fiction Grounded in her experiences as YA novelist fanfiction writer and scholar of education Thomas considers four black girl protagonists from some of the most popular stories of the early 21st century Bonnie Bennett from the CW's The Vampire Diaries Rue from Suzanne Collins's The Hunger Games Gwen from the BBC's Merlin and Angelina Johnson from J K Rowling's Harry Potter Analyzing their narratives and audience reactions to them reveals how these characters mirror the violence against black and brown people in our own world In response Thomas uncovers and builds upon a tradition of fantasy and radical imagination in Black feminism and Afrofuturism to reveal new possibilities Through fanfiction and other modes of counter storytelling young people of color have reinvisioned fantastic worlds that reflect their own experiences their own lives As Thomas powerfully asserts we dark girls deserve more because we are more

Infinite Animation Pamela Taylor Turner, 2019-01-17 This book examines the life and animated art of the late Adam K. Beckett. Beckett is known for his six award winning animations made between the years 1972-1975 that were ground breaking at the time and that continue to influence artists today. He is also recognized for his contributions to the first Star Wars movie as he was head of the animation and rotoscoping area. Beckett was a shooting star during a critical time of change, an innovative genius as well as a unique and compelling character. His life and work illuminates significant social and cultural changes of that time, the emerging independent animation movement of the 1970s in the United States, the rebirth of the visual effects industry, the intersection of animation with newly developed video imaging and computer graphics, and the intense Cultural Revolution that occurred in the 1960s. Beckett's work in animation and effects was pioneering. His premature death cemented his mythic reputation as a larger than life artist and personality. Key Features: A comprehensive biography of Adam Beckett based on original research. Photographs of and drawings by Beckett that are not yet published or available. Critical look at his six primary films that include insight into his techniques and process. Insight into the re-emerging visual effects field through Beckett's work at Robert Abel and Associates and Industrial Light and Magic. The emergence of a golden age of independent animation in the United States.

Bones Margaret Karmazin, 2001-01-28 Jayne Copley, a depressed museum collections manager, finds the petrified bones of an ancient Native American shaman. When she touches a finger bone, she flashes to 1000 BC and can see through the shaman's psychic eyes. Over the next months, Jayne vicariously lives Eyes of Wolf's life through her childhood training to become a shaman, to a clan war where she helps save her people through a disappointing marriage, to her joining with the love of her life, the shaman Silver Skin. Through it all, Jayne deals with her own feelings for her married boss and her developing friendships and emerges from her depression into a more fulfilling life. She inherits Eyes of Wolf's personal power along with her totem spirit guide, Light Carrier. BONES is women's fiction with a touch of magic realism and two likeable heroines from very different eras and cultures.

Mussolini's Nature

Marco Armiero,Roberta Biasillo,Wilko Graf von Hardenberg,2022-12-13 This exploration of the environmental practices of Benito Mussolini s fascist regime invites readers to consider the ecological connections of all political projects We might think we see a mountain while it was a war a forest can actually be an engine a monument to workers might reflect the violence of a colonial empire extracted from Mussolini s Nature In this first environmental history of Italian fascism Marco Armiero Roberta Biasillo and Wilko Graf von Hardenberg reveal that nature and fascist rhetoric are inextricable Mussolini s Nature explores fascist political ecologies or rather the practices and narratives through which the regime constructed imaginary and material ecologies functional to its political project The book does not pursue the ghost of a green Mussolini by counting how many national parks were created during the regime or how many trees planted Instead the reader is trained to recognize fascist political ecology in Mussolini s speeches reclaimed landscapes policies of economic self sufficiency propaganda documentaries reforested areas and in the environmental transformation of its colonial holdings The authors conclude with an examination of the role of fascist landscapes in the country s postwar reconstruction Mussolini s nature is still visible today through plaques monuments toponymy and the shapes of landscapes This original and surprisingly intimate environmental history is not merely a chronicle of conservation in fascist Italy but also an invitation to consider the socioecological connections of all political projects The Encyclopedia of Fantastic Film R. Modern English, Polish and Russian Literature (1835-1965) Kamila Pawlikowska,2015-10-05 Anti Portraits Poetics of the Face in Modern English Polish and Russian Literature 1835 1965 is a study of a physiognomic descriptions of the face It demonstrates that writers such as George Eliot Leo Tolstoy Edgar Allan Poe Nicolay Gogol Virginia Woolf and Witold Gombrowicz vigorously resisted the belief that facial features reflect character While other studies tend to focus on descriptions which affirm physiognomy this book examines portraits which question popular face reading systems and contravene their common premise the surface depth principle Such portraits reveal that physiognomic formula is a cultural construct invented to abridge organise and regulate legibility of the human face Most importantly strange and unreadable fictional faces frequently expose the connection between physiognomic judgement and stereotyping prejudice and racism
