Far Horizons, All New Tales from the Greatest Worlds of Science Fiction, Edited by Robert Silverberg Rich Horton, 1999 Plagues, Apocalypses and Bug-Eyed Monsters Heather Urbanski, 2015-01-24 Speculative fiction both science fiction and fantasy reflects among other things the fears of the culture that created it contributing perhaps unconsciously to our efforts to prevent our fears from coming true While the names and media change over time the themes of speculative fiction have a long history Nineteenth century works such as Frankenstein and The Invisible Man contain many of the same messages as the more modern tales of Terminator Jurassic Park and even Buffy the Vampire Slayer although almost a century separates their creation This critical study discusses the ways in which speculative fiction reflects societal fears and analyzes how such cautionary tales contribute to society's efforts to avoid the realization of these fears Beginning with a discussion of the nature of speculative fiction it takes a look at the characteristics of the cautionary tale The core of the book however is the concept of the Nightmares Model which examines and categorizes the repetition of specific themes within the genre The dangers of science and technology the perils of power and the threat of the unknown are discussed as recurrent themes within a variety of works in prose film and television Works analyzed range from Twenty Thousand Leagues Under the Sea to 2001 A Space Odyssey to The Blair Witch Project Sources include the author's own observations as a member of the genre's fandom a variety of published commentaries and the perspectives of contemporary professionals gained through personal interviews and panel discussions Communities of the Heart Warren Rochelle, 2001-01-01 Through story through myth through science fiction and fantasy he argues Le Guin takes us into her communities of the heart communities that are truly human Le Guin's rhetoric when placed in historical and sociocultural context becomes the rhetoric of Emerson Thoreau Peirce and Dewey American romantic pragmatic rhetoric a rhetoric that argues for value to be given to the subjective the personal and private the small and the feminine Rochelle studies Le Guin's Earthsea cycle The Dispossessed The Left Hand of Darkness Always Coming Home Four Ways to Forgiveness A Fisherman of The Inland Sea two recent novellas Dragonfly and Old Music and the Slave Women and selected short stories The theorists of language culture and myth discussed include Susanne Langer Kenneth Burke Lev Vygotsky Walter Fisher Carl Jung and Joseph Campbell BOOK JACKET

Scientists and Scoundrels Robert Silverberg, 2007-06-01 As if history and nature had not provided wonders enough through the ages humans themselves have contrived more marvels to deceive one another Sometimes they have concocted evidence when none was available to prove pet theories sometimes their intention has been to impress or defraud sometimes they have acted merely for sport Robert Silverberg tells the stories of a baker's dozen of these scientific hoaxers in a lively good humored book that ranges through time and across continents Here are perpetual motion machines and space rockets men on the moon and serpents in the sea The rogues gallery is a varied one Dr Mesmer who cast his hypnotic spell on eighteenth century Paris Charles Dawson whose Piltdown Man challenged evolution Dr Cook with his tale of discovering the North Pole and many others These are fascinating stories and more than just entertainment The author explains the scientific background against which the hoaxes appeared and the detective work that led to their exposure The schemers teach us to be alert to challenge the evidence and to appreciate the healthy skepticism that characterizes the scientific method

Five Ways to Forgiveness Ursula K. Le Guin, 2017-09-05 Set in the same universe as Le Guin's The Left Hand of Darkness and The Dispossessed these five linked Hainish stories follow far future human colonies living in the distant solar system Here for the first time is the complete suite of five linked stories from Ursula K Le Guin's acclaimed Hainish series which tells the history of the Ekumen the galactic confederation of human colonies founded by the planet Hain First published as Four Ways to Forgiveness and now joined by a fifth story Five Ways to Forgiveness focuses on the twin planets Werel and Yeowe two worlds whose peoples long known as owners and assets together face an uncertain future after civil war and revolution In Betrayals a retired science teacher must make peace with her new neighbor a disgraced revolutionary leader In Forgiveness Day a female official from the Ekumen arrives to survey the situation on Werel and struggles against its rigidly patriarchal culture Embedded within A Man of the People which describes the coming of age of Havzhiva an Ekumen ambassador to Yeowe is Le Guin's most sustained description of the Ur planet Hain A Woman's Liberation is the remarkable narrative of Rakam born an asset on Werel who must twice escape from slavery to freedom. Joined to them is Old Music and the Slave Women in which the charismatic Hainish embassy worker who appears in two of the four original stories returns for a tale of his own. Of this capstone tale Le Guin has written the character called Old Music began to tell me a fifth tale about the latter days of the civil war. I'm glad to see it joined to the others at last.

Classical Myth and Culture in the Cinema Martin M.
