Environmental Protection Agency,1999-07 EPA Publications Bibliography United States. Environmental Protection Agency,1999 East Timor, Australia and Regional Order James Cotton,2004-05-20 This book explains the exceptional nature of the East Timor intervention of 1999 and deals with the background to the trusteeship role of the UN in building the new polity All of these developments had an important impact on regional order not least testing the ASEAN norm of non interference Australian complicity in the Indonesian occupation of East Timor was a major factor in the persistence of Indonesian rule in the territory which was maintained for twenty five years despite international censure and which required an unrelenting campaign against the independence movement This work reviews the reasons for that history of complicity and explains the extraordinary change of policy that led ultimately to the occupation of the territory by the Australian led INTERFET coalition

Indonesia in Transition Chris Manning,Peter van Diermen,2000-07 Explores the social and economic impact of political problems and the economic crisis during the late 1990s Investigates political developments in east Timor and Indonesia and examines relations between Indonesia and Australia Analyses the effects of the crises on poverty the environment and livelihoods civil society and legal institutions and Islam and politics Contemporary Chinese Diasporas Min Zhou,2017-09-15 This book focuses on International migration among the Chinese long before European colonists set foot on the Asian continent Long before European colonists set foot on the Asian continent the Chinese moved across sea and land seasonally or permanently to other parts of Asia and the rest of the world to pursue economic opportunities and alternative means of livelihood This volume addresses the new Chinese diasporas around the world offering a snapshot of the cosmopolitan and shifting nature of Chinese population dynamics from the perspectives of anthropologists sociologists and scholars of international studies      Social Transformations in Chinese Societies Yanjie Bian,Kwok-bun Chan,Tak-sing Cheung,2006-06-01 Social Transformations in Chinese Societies is the official annual of The Hong Kong Sociological Association It publishes articles of original research that addresses theoretical methodological or substantive issues of sociological significance about or related to social transformations in Chinese societies The focus is mainly on Hong Kong Taiwan the mainland Singapore and Chinese overseas Review essays of exceptionally high quality are also welcome

Understanding Australia's Neighbours Nick Knight,Michael Heazle,Daniel Halvorson,2011-09-26 A comprehensive introduction to the study of Asia Written thematically it provides comparisons between Asian and Australian societies and encourages readers to think about Australia s neighbours across a wide range of social economic and historical contexts

World Investment Directory ,2000      Australia: Too Many People? - The Population Question Erik Paul,2017-11-01 This title was first published in 19 11 2001 This text addresses important questions about Australia s population size and distribution which are likely to dominate the country s politics in the 21st century The book s approach to the population question begins with a broad analysis of Australia s wellbeing A decline in the quality of life for many Australians growing inequality and conflict suggest that Australia is overpopulated Population size however does not explain Australia s problems These are considered in the following chapters in the context of the shortcomings of Australia s democracy the costs of maldevelopment in the distribution of the population the mismanagement of resources and the level of foreign ownership The book then focuses on the changing external milieu and Australia s engagement with Asia This analysis provides an understanding of building pressures for Australia to accept more migrants as well as the desirability for migration to promote Australia s integration with its Asian neighbours In the last two chapters the book examines the main domestic forces at work for a bigger or smaller population It argues that Australia should be more generous and accept many more people than it presently does Australia has room for many more people Population distribution however is a critical issue in Australia s quest for a better future and population growth needs to be diverted away from the eastern seaboard and the main cities of Melbourne and Sydney to regional Australia The book makes a case for population growth in coastal cities as part of northern Australia s regional development      Asian Post-crisis Management U. Haley,F. Richter,2002-02-20 This book examines the key issues faced by the managers of multinational companies and contains cutting edge strategies and practices designed to enable managers and policy makers to weather the Asian financial and economic storms Asian Post Crisis Management shows how to position companies and governments in Asia for sustainable competitive advantage and will be of interest to top management leaders senior economic analysts policy makers academic scholars and students of international management      IQ and the Wealth of Nations Richard Lynn,Tatu Vanhanen,2002-02-28 Lynn and Vanhanen test the hypothesis on the causal relationship between the average national intelligence IQ and the gap between rich and poor countries by empirical evidence Based on an extensive survey of national IQ tests the results of their work challenge the previous theories of economic development and provide a new basis to evaluate the prospects of economic development throughout the world They begin by reviewing and evaluating some major previous theories The concept of intelligence is then described and intelligence quotient IQ introduced Next they show that intelligence is a significant determinant of earnings within nations and they connect intelligence with various economic and social phenomena The sociology of intelligence at the level of sub populations in nations is examined and the independent national IQ and dependent various measures of per capita income and economic growth rates variables are defined and described They then provide empirical analyses starting from the 81 countries for which direct evidence of national IQs is available the analysis is then extended to the world group of 185 countries The hypothesis is tested by the methods of correlation and regression analyses The results of statistical analyses support the hypothesis strongly The results of the analyses and various means to reduce the gap between rich and poor countries are discussed A provocative analysis that all scholars students and researchers involved with economic development need to confront

Indonesia William C. Younce, 2001 Indonesia Issues Historical Background Bibliography

Social Transformations in Chinese Societies, 2005

World Investment Directory United Nations Conference on Trade and Development, 2000 Covers 41 economies of the Asia Pacific region Data are presented on both inward and outward flows and stocks of foreign direct investment and the activities and basic financial data on the largest transnational corporations in and from these countries

Democratization Tatu Vanhanen, 2004-02-24 This book examines the relationship between indicators of resource distribution and democratization in the group of 170 countries with data ranging from the 1850s to the present day Vanhanen constructs a compelling argument concluding that the emergence of democracy is closely linked to resource distribution

Contested Worlds Martin Phillips, 2017-09-29 Contested Worlds provides an introduction both to a multitude of geographical worlds which are currently being actively constructed and contested and to a range of different perspectives on these worlds being adopted and contested by geographers It is unique in its focus on the role of contestation in both the construction of geographical studies and in the geographies these studies seek to address These issues are explored through a combination of general theoretical discussion and detailed international case studies The areas discussed range in scale from the global through the regional and national to the local worlds of the inner city the neighbourhood and the village with connections drawn between these scales The book concludes that geography is being made in quite different ways It asserts that geography is intrinsically a contested enterprise and that this should be embraced as part of geographers becoming more critically involved in the making and studying of new contemporary human geographies
