

Farewell Speech of Francis Marks 6 July, 2012.

Thank you for the unduly kind remarks that have been made this morning.

It is important to me that I acknowledge the wonderful help, encouragement and support that I have received over the last 19 years. For me, becoming a judge involved a steep learning curve. I hope I have learned well enough.

The acknowledgements that I wish to make are made in no particular order and are necessarily brief.

I have had a great deal of help from all of my colleagues, both past and present, during the last 19 years. Although, to some extent, judges work alone, except when participating in appellate benches, the ability to liaise with colleagues is an important part of judicial life.

I wish to also acknowledge the assistance and support provided by the succession of Registrars and all of the administrative staff of the Commission throughout the last 19 years. This acknowledgement extends also to the staff of my colleagues. What the parties in proceedings see is but a manifestation of an efficient and effective operation conducted through the Registry. Whilst all of the Industrial Registrars with whom I have worked have been excellent in all ways, the person with the outstanding talent as a humorous entertainer is Mick Grimson. He is a wonderful human being in every way, and I hope that he stays on as Registrar with this Tribunal or any of its possible manifestations for many years.

Judges work as part of a small, and essential team. As you can imagine, I have had a number of associates and research assistants over the years and all of them have helped me immensely. My current staff, Ruth Evatt and Lauren Fieldus, are no exception. I have kept in touch with a number of my previous staff and I look forward to following their successful careers. Thank you all for allowing me to function as effectively and efficiently as I have.

The court reporters are an integral part of the team that allows proceedings to be conducted efficiently and effectively. I have enjoyed wonderful relationships with the many proficient court reporters who have assisted me over the years. They have had to include both my bad

The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a exceptional and suspenseful novel that will keep you guessing until the very end. The novel is a cautionary tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
