Fanshen A Documentary Of Revolution In A:

Fanshen William Hinton, Fred Magdoff, 2008-04 Fanshan is a marvelous and revealing look into life in the Chinese countryside where tradition and modernity have had both a complimentary and caustic relationship in the years since the Chinese Communist Party first came to power It is a rare concrete record of social struggle and transformation as witnessed by a participant from publisher description Fanshen William Hinton, 1972 Revolution in the Air Max Elbaum, 2018-04-10 Revolution in the Air is the definitive study of how radicals from the sixties movements embraced twentieth century Marxism and what movements of dissent today can learn from the legacies of Lenin Mao and Che July 24 and 25 (in part), 1973 (Including index), v. 1179-1496, xvii p United States. Congress. House. Committee on Internal Security, 1973 Hearings, Reports and Prints of the House Committee on Internal Security United States. Congress. House. Committee on Internal Security, 1973 Revolutionary Activities Directed Toward the Administration of Penal Or Correctional Systems United States. Congress. House. Committee on Internal Security, 1973 Revolutionary Activities Directed Toward the Administration of Penal Or Correctional Systems, Hearings ..., 93-1, March 29 and May 1, 1973 United States. Congress. House Internal Security, 1973 Hakka Women in Tulou Villages Sabrina Ardizzoni, 2022-06-27 Sabrina Ardizzoni's book is an in depth analysis of Hakka women in tulou villages in Southeast China Based on fieldwork data acquired through local documents diverse material and symbolic culture elements this study adopts an original approach that includes historical textual investigation and socio anthropological enquiry Having interviewed local Hakka women and participated in rural village events public and private in west Fujian's Hakka tulou area the author provides a comprehensive overview of the historical threads and cultural processes that lead to the construction of the ideal Hakka woman as well as an insightful analysis of the multifaceted Hakka society in which rural women reinvent their social subjectivity and negotiate their position between traditional constructs and modern dynamics Historical Perspectives on Contemporary East Asia Merle Goldman, Andrew Gordon, 2000-08-15 In these original essays distinguished scholars of modern East Asia distill from long years of research interpretive accounts of late nineteenth and twentieth century China Japan and Korea All of the contributors describe particular features of the modern experience of East Asian countries while also addressing common themes The Beggar Lama Tenzin Jinba, 2023-10-24 The Beggar Lama is the story of the Gyalrong Kuzhap a Tibetan Buddhist polymath and reincarnated lama who has led a remarkable life through the vicissitudes of the twentieth century Born in 1930 in Tsanlha Gyalrong on the easternmost fringes of the Himalayan Tibetan Plateau he would go on to become a monk a Communist official a professor of Tibetan studies and a leader in the Tibetan cultural survival movement in China Drawing on hundreds of hours of in depth and open ended conversations over more than a decade Tenzin Jinba presents the Gyalrong Kuzhap's life story The Beggar Lama chronicles his journeys from Gyalrong to Lhasa from steadfast Communist to critic of the Chinese regime from scholar to activist painting a compelling portrait of an influential and unconventional figure In so doing the book shows how the Gyalrong Kuzhap's tale intertwines with larger social and political developments providing a wide ranging history of Tibet the Sino Tibetan borderlands and China over the past century The Beggar Lama shares the Gyalrong Kuzhap's insightful and often critical views on Tibetan cultural and religious institutions the Chinese Communist Party's social and political agendas Tibetan studies in China and the prospects for Tibetan cultural rebirth Above all it is a story of hope in dark times as the Gyalrong Kuzhap seeks with his last breath to prevent Tibetan culture and memory from vanishing China on Film Paul G. Pickowicz, 2013-02-28 Leading scholar Paul G. Pickowicz traces the dynamic history of Chinese filmmaking and discusses its course of development from the early days to the present Moving decade by decade he explores such key themes as the ever shifting definitions of modern marriage in 1920s silent features East West cultural conflict in the movies of the 1930s the strong appeal of the powerful melodramatic mode of the 1930s and 1940s the polarizing political controversies surrounding Chinese filmmaking under the Japanese occupation of Shanghai in the 1940s and the critical role of cinema during the bloody civil war of the late 1940s Pickowicz then considers the challenging Mao years including chapters on legendary screen personalities who tried but failed to adjust to the new socialist order in the 1950s celebrities who made the sort of artistic and political accommodations that would keep them in the spotlight in the post revolutionary era and insider film professionals of the early 1960s who actively resisted the most extreme forms of Maoist cultural production The book concludes with explorations of the highly cathartic films of the early post Mao era edgy postsocialist movies that appeared on the eve of the Tiananmen demonstrations of 1989 the relevance of the Eastern European velvet prison cultural production model and the rise of underground and independent filmmaking beginning in the 1990s Throughout its long history of film production China has been embroiled in a seemingly unending series of wars revolutions and jarring social transformations Despite daunting censorship obstacles Chinese filmmakers have found ingenious ways of taking political stands and weighing in for better or worse on the most explosive social cultural and economic issues of the day Exploring the often gut wrenching controversies generated by their work Pickowicz offers a unique and perceptive window on Chinese culture and society Armed Struggle and Democracy Martin Legassick, 2002 The impact of the concept's of armed struggle for the notion's of democracy in South ern Africa is the focus of this paper Originally submitted to a conference on Re Conceptualising Democracy and Liberation in Southern Africa held in Windhoek Namibia during July 2002 it argues from the point of departure of the personal involvement of the author in the issues raised The author was part of a group which criticised the strategy of armed struggle in the ANC With this paper he inspires a debate which can claim relevance for current issues of democracy in South Africa and the Southern African region more generally Given the degree of personal involvement of its author this analysis is contemporary history based on personal insights and provides arguments for a necessary discussion To Govern China Vivienne Shue, Patricia M. Thornton, 2017-10-26 How practically speaking is the Chinese polity as immense and fissured as it has now become actually being governed today Some analysts highlight signs of progress in the direction of more liberal open and responsive rule Others dwell instead on the many remaining obstacles to a hoped for democratic transition Drawing together cutting edge research from an international panel of experts this volume argues that both those approaches rest upon too starkly drawn distinctions between democratic and non democratic regime types and concentrate too narrowly on institutions as opposed to practices The prevailing analytical focus on adaptive and resilient authoritarianism a neo institutionalist concept fails to capture what are often cross cutting currents in ongoing processes of political change Illuminating a vibrant repertoire of power practices employed in governing China today these authors advance instead a more fluid open ended conceptual approach that privileges nimbleness mutability and receptivity to institutional and procedural invention and evolution

Events That Formed the Modern World Frank W. Thackeray, John E. Findling, 2012-05-31 This comprehensive five volume set contains readable essays that describe and interpret the most important global events since the European Renaissance some accompanied by related document excerpts and primary source materials What were the effects of the Age of Exploration on today's ethnic groups and social structure How did the development of moveable type pave the way for Facebook and Twitter Why is the Reformation so critical for understanding today's religious controversies This set will help readers answer these questions by exploring the most significant historical events of the modern world This five volume set covers times from the Renaissance to the present Each volume focuses on a specific historic period and examines 12 events within those time frames that changed the world Each entry provides an introduction that lays out factual material in a chronological manner an in depth essay interpreting the event's significance and an annotated bibliography of the most important current works on the topic Select entries are followed by primary sources pertaining to the event under consideration such as diary entries Targeted to both general readers as well as entry level university students this book also directly supports high school and undergraduate curricula allowing students to identify and contextualize events in order to think critically about their causes aftermath and legacy
