Faraway Home Jane Kurtz, 2000-03-06 As her father prepares for a trip back to his childhood home in Ethiopia Desta begins to worry Where does her father truly belong in the village of his youth or here in America with her What was growing up in Ethiopia like And will her father's love for his family be enough to bridge these two worlds and bring him back to her A powerful portrait of a contemporary American immigrant family From a Coretta Scott King Honor winning artist Portrays a heartwarming father daughter relationship Junior Library Guild Selection Faraway Home Marilyn Taylor, 2012-07-01 Karl and Rosa's family watch in horror as Hitler's troops parade down the streets of their home city Vienna It has become very dangerous to be a Jew in Austria and after their uncle is sent to Dachau Karl and Rosa's parents decide to send the children out of the country on a Kindertransport one of the many ships carrying refugee children away from Nazi danger Isolated and homesick Karl ends up in Millisle a run down farm in Ards in Northern Ireland which has become a Jewish refugee centre while Rosa is fostered by a local family Hard work on the farm keeps Karl occupied although he still waits desperately for any news from home Then he makes friends with locals Peewee and Wee Billy and also with the girls from neutral Dublin who come to help on the farm especially Judy But Northern Ireland is in the war too with rationing and air raid warnings and in April 1941 the bombs of the Belfast Blitz bring the reality of war right to their doorstep And for Karl and Rosa and the other refugees there is the constant fear that they may never see their parents again Based on a true story there was a refugee farm at Millisle and among its occupants was a young boy called Karl At Home and Far Away Sylvia Wright, Neil Griffiths, Anne Pratt, 2001 Specifically designed to address the Foundation Curriculum Goals from the QCA My Home is Far Away Dawn Powell, 2011-11-08 My Home is Far Away is the most precisely autobiographical of Powell's fifteen novels In this family chronicle set in early twentieth century Ohio young Marcia Willard's family struggles to keep up with the rapidly changing times and Marcia endures disillusionment cruelty and betrayal to forge a survivor's sense of independence John Updike has compared Powell with Theodore Dreiser Willa Cather Sherwood Anderson and those other Midwestern writers who felt something epic in the national shift from rural to urban from provincial sequestration to metropolitan liberation By 1941 when Powell set to work on My Home Is Far Away she was better known for the smart boozy bawdy hilarious send ups of Manhattan high and low life She had begun to attain a reputation for high sophistication and nothing could be less sophisticated in the glittering all knowing furiously present tense big city manner Powell had perfected than My Home Is Far Away This was the month of cherries and peaches of green apples beyond the grape arbor of little dandelion ghosts in the grass of sour grass and four leaf clovers of still dry heat holding the smell of nasturtiums and dying lilacs This was the best month of all and the best day It was not birthday Easter Christmas or picnic but all these things and something else something wonderful something utterly unknown The two little girls in embroidered white Sunday dresses knew no way to express their secret joy but by whirling each other dizzily over the lawn crying We're moving we're moving We're moving to London Junction My Home Is Far Away is one of the very few examples of a book written for adults with an adult command of the language that maintains the vantage point of a hungry serious child throughout It might be likened to a memoir that has been penned not with the usual tranquility of distance but rather with the sense that everything happening to the characters is happening right now without any promise of eventual escape without any assurance that childhood too shall pass away My Home is Far Away had been out of print for sixty years when Steerforth reissued it in 1995 It received immediate widespread acclaim and was featured on the cover of the New York Times Book Review where Terry Teachout called it one of the permanent masterpieces of childhood comparable with David Copperfield What Maisie Knew and the early reminiscences of Colette and where he proclaimed Powell to be one of this country's least recognized great novelists Housing D.C.

networks P 1 Home So Far Away Judith Berlowitz, 2025-07-30 A fictional diary set in interwar Germany and Spain allows us to peek into the life of Klara Philipsborn the only Communist in her merchant class German Jewish family Klara's first visit to Seville in 1925 opens her eyes and her spirit to an era in which Spain's major religions Judaism Christianity and Islam shared deep cultural connections At the same time she is made aware of the harsh injustices that persist in Spanish society By 1930 she has landed a position with the medical school in Madrid Though she feels compelled to hide her Jewish identity in her predominantly Christian new home she finds that she feels less different in Spain than she did in Germany especially as she learns new ways of expressing her opinions and desires And when the Spanish Civil War erupts in 1936 Klara now Clara enlists in the Fifth Regiment a step that transports her across the geography of the embattled peninsula and ultimately endangers a promising relationship and even Clara's life itself A blending of thoroughly researched history and engrossing fiction Home So Far Away is an epic tale that will sweep readers away Niquito, Far Away From Home. Dill

Ferreira, 2022-03-17 In this new adventure Niquito will go out for a walk and will discover great dangers that can appear when you go out alone Our little friend will get lost and will discover that not every person is kind and that it takes a lot of caution to live on the street However Niquito will also make good friends like Josh a very high spirited dog that helps lost doggies to find their houses With his new friend he will meet a kind old lady that gives food to lost and hungry animals An angel who makes him believe that there are a lot of good hearted people ready to rescue an animal in danger The

Latitude of Home Sally Russell, 2008 Coming from a family that some would call addicted to storytelling Sally Russell began listening nearly twenty years ago especially for stories that bring the past into the present The subjects range from love sex and death to less weighty considerations such as journeys building fires cooking and a variety of family matters Beginning with her own family's account of what happened to them during the American Civil War and how those stories directly affected her life 125 years later Russell shares the discovery of time traveling through a range of tales that are humorous historical haphazard heart warming and heartbreaking often within the same story For Russell all stories however personal or cultural represent shared human history and form an intricate original and sheltering tapestry that belongs to all and represents a curious security in our future shock world Through beloved old stories and through new ones Russell forms threads of regret sorrow joy wonder courage wisdom beauty and some other thing that isn't any of these things perhaps the greatest mystery are woven into a fabric that entertains educates and delights with scenes of days gone by portraits of worthwhile people and events that shape our characters Storytelling is an important vehicle by which we bond with each other in multiple dimensions and across generations The stories she shares show how story telling gives us a latitude of home to use an old nautical term i.e. a reference point on our map of being that shows us where we came from In a figurative sense latitude of home is that place time from which we start Our stories our family myths give us the knowledge of our place in Time Russell invites readers to consider their own repertoires of stories what they can learn about and from their own family myth and how they can share that myth to inform delight and strengthen
