century Chinese film history The volume traces the evolution of Chinese national cinema and demonstrates that gender identity has been central to its formation Femininity masculinity and sexuality have been an integral part of the filmic discourses of modernity nationhood and history This volume represents the most comprehensive wide ranging and up to date study of China s major cinematic traditions It is an indispensable source book for modern Chinese and Asian history politics literature and culture Farewell to My Concubine Bihua Li,1993 Queer Asian Cinema Andrew Grossman,2018-10-24 Explore queer themes in films from Hong Kong gangster flicks to Bollywood melodramas Although Asian films have reached a new height in popularity worldwide Queer Asian Cinema Shadows in the Shade is the first full length book in English solely devoted to examining the aesthetics and politics of homosexuality in Asian films This unique book presents multiple points of view on the portrayal of gay lesbian and transgendered people in film throughout Asia From the subversive sadomasochism of Japan s pink films to the hard boiled world of Hong Kong s gangster movies Queer Asian Cinema analyzes and discusses attitudes toward homosexuality in the full spectrum of Asian film In addition to studies of the representation of identified gay men lesbians and transgendered individuals it reveals the hidden homoerotic subtext of otherwise conventional films Queer Asian Cinema Shadows in the Shade examines diverse aspects of Asian films including the political and psychological links between feudal and sadomasochist hierarchies the inevitable punishment of homoerotic bonds in gangster films the integration of the homosexual couple into the Confucian family structure in Korean films the complexities of cross gender casting the differences between transvestism and cross dressing the definition of male genitalia as obscene Queer Asian Cinema Shadows in the Shade brings together experts in both film making and movie criticism providing a balanced viewpoint to unite the worlds of academic and popular perceptions on this subject It opens an exciting discussion of this important and largely neglected area of cinematic discourse Celluloid Comrades Song Hwee Lim,2006-08-31 Without question Song Hwee Lim has presented us with an exemplar of quality scholarship in the study of contemporary Chinese cinemas By combining an impressive command of Chinese and Western literary as well as film source materials with a sophisticated mode of analysis and an unassuming argumentative style he has authored an exhilarating book one that not only treats cinematic representations of male homosexuality with great sensitivity but also demonstrates what it means to read with critical intelligence and vision Rey Chow Andrew W Mellon Professor of the Humanities Brown University Celluloid Comrades is a timely demonstration of the importance of queer studies in the field of transnational Chinese cinemas Lim dissects gay sexuality in selective Chinese language films and vigorously contests commonly accepted critical paradigms and theoretical models Readers will find a provocative powerful voice in this new book Sheldon H Lu Professor of Comparative Literature University of California at Davis Celluloid Comrades offers a cogent analytical introduction to the representation of male homosexuality in Chinese cinemas within the last decade It posits that representations of male homosexuality in Chinese film have been polyphonic and multifarious posing a challenge to monolithic and essentialized constructions of both

Chineseness and homosexuality Given the artistic achievement and popularity of the films discussed here the position of celluloid comrades can no longer be ignored within both transnational Chinese and global queer cinemas The book also challenges readers to reconceptualize these works in relation to global issues such as homosexuality and gay and lesbian politics and their interaction with local conditions agents and audiences Tracing the engendering conditions within the film industries of China Taiwan and Hong Kong Song Hwee Lim argues that the emergence of Chinese cinemas in the international scene since the 1980s created a public sphere in which representations of marginal sexualities could flourish in its interstices Examining the politics of representation in the age of multiculturalism through debates about the films Lim calls for a rethinking of the limits and hegemony of gay liberationist discourse prevalent in current scholarship and film criticism He provides in depth analyses of key films and auteurs reading them within contexts as varied as premodern transgender practice in Chinese theater to postmodern diasporic forms of sexualities Informed by cultural and postcolonial studies and critical theory this acutely observed and theoretically sophisticated work will be of interest to a wide range of scholars and students as well as general readers looking for a deeper understanding of contemporary Chinese cultural politics cinematic representations and queer culture
