Farm On Nippersink Creek Stories From A Midwestern Childhood:

Farm on Nippersink Creek Jim May, 1994 Relates stories of growing up in the rural farming communities of Illinois spanning four generations of a family The Storytellers' Journey Joseph Daniel Sobol, 1999 This is the seed of The Storytellers Journey Joseph Daniel Sobol s history of the past thirty years of American storytelling In this compelling examination of the contemporary search for myth Sobol explores the social and psychological roots of the storytelling revival and the ever resurgent power of the storyteller Drawing on interviews with dozens of storytellers around the country Sobol paints the revival as part of a larger process of cultural revitalization He traces the growth of the preeminent revival organization the National Association for the Preservation and Perpetuation of Storytelling NAPPS and details the individual passions the organizational politics and the economic social and mythic forces that have combined to transform a ragtag assemblage of enthusiasts into a national and international network of arts professionals A seemingly chance encounter between a restlessly ambitious high school teacher and a coonhunting tale on the car radio sets off a chain of inspirations that changes the face of a small southern town touches lives across America and revitalizes a homely but treasured art form

Storyteller Ramon Royal Ross, 1996 Nearly four decades since its original publication this book is still enhancing the revival of storytelling across the American landscape Every person has a story Building an ESL Collection for Young Adults Laura McCaffery, 1998-10-28 This annotated bibliography of more than 500 recommended books meets the needs of teachers and librarians for reading materials for young adults for whom English is a second language Laura McCaffery who has many years of experience with collection development of ESL materials for young adults has selected the best books on a variety of topics to meet curriculum and personal interest needs of young adults Most of the books selected were published between 1992 and 1998 The bibliography is organized by topic adventure mystery and suspense biographies career workplace life skills and parenting folktales myths poetry and classics ethnic diversity history and geography nature and science and sports Indexes by author subject title and ethnic group make searching easy Mainstreamed ESL students can use these books to better understand and make use of regular textbooks Special ESL classes can use the recommended books as part of regular instruction Most of the books recommended are for the intermediate or advanced beginner reading level in English but some very easy books are also included Most of the books are suitable for all learners from grades five through adult Each entry contains a complete bibliographical citation Fry Reading Level Interest Level Library of Congress subjects for cataloging and a 50 to 200 word annotation describing the book and how it can be used by the librarian or teacher who is working with patrons or students A list of distributors of print and nonprint ESL materials completes the work Literacy in America Barbara J. Guzzetti, 2002-12-02 The definitive encyclopedic resource on literacy literacy instruction and literacy assessment in the United States Once upon a time the three Rs sufficed Not any more not for students not for Americans Gone the way of the little red school house is simple reading and writing instruction Surveying an increasingly complex
