First Casualty The War Correspondent As Hero And Myth Maker From The Crimea To Iraq:

The First Casualty Phillip Knightley, 2004-10-05 The first casualty when war comes is truth said American Senator Hiram Johnson in 1917 In his gripping now classic history of war journalism Phillip Knightley shows just how right Johnson was From William Howard Russell who described the appalling conditions of the Crimean War in the Times of London to the ranks of reporters photographers and cameramen who captured the realities of war in Vietnam The First Casualty tells a fascinating story of heroism and collusion censorship and suppression Since Vietnam Knightley reveals governments have become much more adept at managing the media as highlighted in chapters on the Falklands War the Gulf War and the conflict between NATO and Serbia over Kosovo And in a new chapter on the post 9 11 wars in Afghanistan and Iraq Knightley details even greater degrees of government manipulation and media complicity as evidenced by the embedding of reporters in military units and the uncritical openly patriotic coverage of these conflicts The age of the war correspondent as hero he concludes appears to be over Fully updated The First Casualty remains required reading for anyone concerned about freedom of the press journalistic responsibility and the nature of modern warfare

The First Casualty Phillip Knightley, 2002 The most comprehensive j accuse of journalism as propaganda in the English language Ought to be read by every young reporter and by those who retain pride in our craft of truth telling not matter how unpopular or unpalatable the truth John Pilger from the Preface to the new edition The first casualty when war comes is truth said American Senator Hiram Johnson in 1917 and in his gripping now classic history of war journalism Phillip Knightley shows just how right Johnson was From William Howard Russell who described the appalling conditions of the Crimean War in Times London to the ranks of reporters photographers and cameramen who captured the realities of war in Vietnam The First Casualty tells a fascinating story of heroism and collusion censorship and suppression myth making and propaganda Since Vietnam Knightley finds governments have become much more adept at managing the media and in new chapters on the Falklands the Gulf War and the former Yugoslavia he concludes that the war correspondent s role as a seeker of truth is now in jeopardy From reviews of the first edition This book may make us all a little more free to talk about and find the truth Garry Wills New York Times Book Review Disturbing even dismaying yet also in its painful way enormously entertaining New Yorker

The Woman War Correspondent, the U.S. Military, and the Press Carolyn M. Edy, 2016-12-13 Honorable Mention recipient for the American Journalism Historians Association Book of the Year Award this book outlines the rich history of more than 250 women who worked as war correspondents up through World War II while demonstrating the ways in which the press and the military both promoted and prevented their access to war

Despite the continued presence of individual female war correspondents in news accounts if not always in war zones it was not until 1944 that the military recognized these individuals as a group and began formally considering sex as a factor for recruiting and accrediting war correspondents This group identity created obstacles for women who had previously worked alongside men as war correspondents while creating opportunities for many women whom the military recruited to cover woman s angle news as women war correspondents This book also reveals the ways the military and the press as well as women themselves constructed the concepts of woman war correspondent and war correspondent and how these concepts helped and hindered the work of all war correspondents even as they challenged and ultimately expanded the public s understanding of war and of women The War Correspondent Greg McLaughlin,2016-02-20 What is the role of the war reporter today Through interviews with prominent war and foreign correspondents such as John Pilger Robert Fisk Mary Dejevsky and Alex Thomson The War Correspondent delves into the most dangerous form of journalism From Crimea to Vietnam the Falklands to the Gulf and Afghanistan Iraq and the War on Terror the books examines the attractions and risks of war reporting the challenge of objectivity and impartiality in the war zone the danger that journalistic independence is compromised by military control censorship and public relations as well as the commercial and technological pressures of an intensely concentrated competitive news media environment As history and ideology return to the reporting of international conflict Greg McLaughlin asks what will that mean for a new generation of war correspondents attuned not to history or ideology but to the politics of the next conflict Documenting World Politics Rens Van Munster,Casper Sylvest,2015-02-11 As a central component of contemporary culture films mirror and shape political debate Reflecting on this development scholars in the field of International Relations IR increasingly explore the intersection of TV series fiction film and global politics So far however virtually no systematic scholarly attention has been given to documentary film within IR This book fills this void by offering a critical companion to the subject aimed at assisting students teachers and scholars of IR in understanding and assessing the various ways in which documentary films matter in global politics The authors of this volume argue that much can be gained if we do not just think of documentaries as a window on or intervention in reality but as a political epistemology that like theories involve particular postures strategies and methodologies towards the world to which they provide access This work will be of great interest to students and scholars of international relations popular culture and world politics and media studies alike The New Journalism, the New Imperialism and the Fiction of Empire, 1870-1900 Andrew Griffiths,2015-08-25 Aggressive policy enthusiastic news coverage and sensational novelistic style combined to create a distinctive image of Britain s Empire in late Victorian print media The New Journalism the New Imperialism and the Fiction of Empire 1870 1900 traces this phenomenon through the work of editors special correspondents and authors Inside War Fabio Armao,2016-02-22 The post Cold War era was characterised by both the recurrence of state wars and the spread of forms of organised violence other than wars Asymmetric warfare between alliances led by the

USA and groups of insurgents such as those witnessed in Afghanistan and Iraq coexist alongside domestic conflicts such as that of former Yugoslavia and more recently Libya and Syria and still other conflicts involving gangs mafias or narco traffickers The massive military industrial complexes conceived in the context of the threat of nuclear Armageddon are still there of course but they now coexist with irregular armies of insurgents carrying out massacres through the use of light weapons and improvised explosives devices This book oppose the idea that this situation prefigures the return to an anarchical pre political condition by assuming that new wars are rather the product of the blurring of the public private divide induced by the end of the Cold War together with globalisation As a consequence also the internal and external factors are blurred and ever more permeable and elusive is becoming even the border between war and crime Inside War goes beyond a state centered analysis and adopts an interdisciplinary and multilayered approach and is intended to foster the dialogue among researchers from different fields It places war at the core of analysis assuming that the reality of war is what we make of it and that the only insurmountable limit to our comprehension of war is our way of knowing and representing it Fabio Armao teaches courses in Politics and Globalisation Processes and Criminal Systems He has been Visiting Professor at Cornell University and co convenor of the Standing Group on Organized Crime European Consortium for Political Research Founding member of T wai Torino World Affair Institute he is also member of the Editorial Board of Global Crime His research interests and publications focus on international wars and geopolitics on violent non state actors and transnational organised crime and on urban security

Impediments to the Prevention and Intervention of Genocide Samuel Totten, 2017-09-08 Academics NGOs the United Nations and individual nations are focused on the prevention and intervention of genocide Traditionally missions to prevent or intervene in genocide have been sporadic and under resourced The contributors to this volume consider some of the major stumbling blocks to the avoidance of genocide Bartrop and Totten argue that realpolitik is the major impediment to the elimination of genocide Campbell examines the lack of political will to confront genocide and Theriault describes how denial becomes an obstacle to intervention against genocide Loyle and Davenport discuss how intervention is impeded by a lack of reliable data on genocide violence and Macgregor presents an overview of the influence of the media Totten examines how the UN Convention on Genocide actually impedes anti genocide efforts and how the institutional configuration of the UN is itself often a stumbling block Addressing an issue that is often overlooked Travis examines the impact of global arms trade on genocide Finally Hiebert examines how international criminal prosecution of atrocities can impede preventive efforts and Hirsch provides an analysis of the strengths weaknesses and effectiveness of major international and national prescriptions developed over the last decade The result is a distinguished addition to Transaction's prestigious Genocide Studies series

Routledge Handbook of Media, Conflict and Security Piers Robinson, Philip Seib, Romy Frohlich, 2016-11-10 This Handbook links the growing body of media and conflict research with the field of security studies The academic sub field of media and conflict has developed and expanded greatly over the past two decades Operating across a diverse range of academic disciplines academics are studying the impact the media has on governments pursuing war responses to humanitarian crises and violent political struggles and the role of the media as a facilitator of and a threat to both peace building and conflict prevention This handbook seeks to consolidate existing knowledge by linking the body of conflict and media studies with work in security studies The handbook is arranged into five parts Theory and Principles Media the State and War Media and Human Security Media and Policymaking within the Security State New Issues in Security and Conflict and Future Directions For scholars of security studies this handbook will provide a key point of reference for state of the art scholarship concerning the media security nexus for scholars of communication and media studies the handbook will provide a comprehensive mapping of the media conflict field

The Democratic Value of News Stephen Cushion, 2017-09-16 The ownership and funding of media organisations inevitably affects what news we receive everyday But is public or private ownership better Looking at how news is constructed in different contexts under public and commercial models this book uses global comparative examples to give a topical insight into the world of broadcasting today

The Routledge Companion to Media Disinformation and Populism Howard Tumber, Silvio Waisbord, 2021-03-23 This companion brings together a diverse set of concepts used to analyse dimensions of media disinformation and populism globally The Routledge Companion to Media Disinformation and Populism explores how recent transformations in the architecture of public communication and particular attributes of the digital media ecology are conducive to the kind of polarised anti rational post fact post truth communication championed by populism It is both interdisciplinary and multidisciplinary consisting of contributions from both leading and emerging scholars analysing aspects of misinformation disinformation and populism across countries political systems and media systems A global comparative approach to the study of misinformation and populism is important in identifying common elements and characteristics and these individual chapters cover a wide range of topics and themes including fake news mediatization propaganda alternative media immigration science and law making to name a few This companion is a key resource for academics researchers and policymakers as well as undergraduate and postgraduate students in the fields of political communication journalism law sociology cultural studies international politics and international relations

Zouave Theaters Carol E. Harrison, Thomas J. Brown, 2024-04-17 In this compelling new study Carol E Harrison and Thomas J Brown chart the rise and fall of the Zouave uniform the nineteenth century s most important military fashion fad for men and women on both sides of the Atlantic Originating in French colonial Algeria the uniform was characterized by an open collarless jacket baggy trousers and a fez As Harrison and Brown demonstrate the Zouaves embraced ethnic racial and gender crossing liberating themselves from the strictures of bourgeois society Some served as soldiers in Papal Rome the United States the British West Indies and Brazil while others acted in theatrical performances that combined drag and drill Zouave Theaters analyzes the interaction of the stage and the military and reveals that the Zouave persona influenced visual artists from painters and photographers to illustrators and filmmakers

WikiLeaks Charlie Beckett, 2013-05-08 WikiLeaks is the most challenging journalistic phenomenon to have emerged in the digital era It has provoked anger and enthusiasm in equal measure from across the political and journalistic spectrum WikiLeaks poses a series of questions to the status quo in politics journalism and to the ways we understand political communication It has compromised the foreign policy operations of the most powerful state in the world broken stories comparable to great historic scoops like the Pentagon Papers and caused the mighty international news organizations to collaborate with this tiny editorial outfit Yet it may also be on the verge of extinction This is the first book to examine WikiLeaks fully and critically and its place in the contemporary news environment The authors combine inside knowledge with the latest media research and analysis to argue that the significance of Wikileaks is that it is part of the shift in the nature of news to a network system that is contestable and unstable Welcome to Wiki World and a new age of uncertainty

The Media and Human Rights Ekaterina Balabanova, 2014-09-25 In recent years there has been an explosion in the usage and visibility of the language of human rights but what does this mean for the role of the media For evolving ideas about human rights And for the prospect of shared cosmopolitan values Ekaterina Balabanova argues that in order to answer these questions there needs to be a deconstruction of monolithic ways of thinking about the media and human rights incorporating the spectrum of political arguments and worldviews that underpin both Ten case studies are presented which illustrate many of the problems and challenges associated with the relationship between the media and human rights The examples range from cases of humanitarian intervention to analysis of global human rights campaigning on refugee issues from immigration and asylum to genocide freedom of speech and torture Anchored in an appreciation of the political conflicts and compromises at the heart of international human rights agreements The Media and Human Rights is an invaluable resource for students studying media and human rights international politics security studies and political communication Digital War Reporting Donald Matheson, Stuart Allan, 2013-08-30 Digital War Reporting examines war reporting in a digital age It shows how new technologies open up innovative ways for journalists to convey the horrors of warfare while at the same time creating opportunities for propaganda censorship and control Topics discussed include How is the role of the war reporter evolving as digital technologies become ever more prominent What is the rhetoric of war in digital journalism How does an emphasis on liveness immediacy or realness shape public perceptions of the nature of warfare itself Is technology widening the gap between us and them or are new kinds of empathy being established with distant others as time space and place are effectively compressed A key focus is journalists use of digital imagery real time video and audio reports multimedia databases as well as satellites broadband podcasting and mobile telephones in the reporting of a range of wars conflicts and crises The examples analysed range from 24 hour television news coverage of the Persian Gulf War the first internet war in Kosovo digital photography from September 11 to Abu Ghraib and bloggers in Iraq including journalists soldiers and ordinary citizens Digital War Reporting is required reading for students researchers and journalists
