First Crossing A Personal Log:

The Heart Logs John Gudmundson, 2014-06-18 This memoir chronicles a tumultuous six month period in the life of the author beginning with his sudden hospitalization due to endocarditis an infection of the heart and ending with his return to a normal life The events and the people that connect the start to the finish are many and varied sometimes tragic and oftentimes comedic From the first afternoon in the emergency room the author a career software engineer uses his curiosity in the modern medical system and its parallels and contrasts with his own industry to keep himself interested and focused on staying alive The result is a rare technical take on our system by a medical outsider The story is at once highly personal and inspiring without ignoring the technical details what s involved in carrying out and undergoing modern treatments including an angiogram MRI renal dialysis and heart surgery from the points of view of both patient and medical staff Above all it is an intimate travelogue where the physical distances are small while the human distances are broad and where the unflinching support of family friends community and medical system converge into a success story

Panel Data Econometrics Donggyu Sul, 2019-02-07 In the last 20 years econometric theory on panel data has developed rapidly particularly for analyzing common behaviors among individuals over time Meanwhile the statistical methods employed by applied researchers have not kept up to date This book attempts to fill in this gap by teaching researchers how to use the latest panel estimation methods correctly Almost all applied economics articles use panel data or panel regressions However many empirical results from typical panel data analyses are not correctly executed This book aims to help applied researchers to run panel regressions correctly and avoid common mistakes The book explains how to model cross sectional dependence how to estimate a few key common variables and how to identify them It also provides guidance on how to separate out the long run relationship and common dynamic and idiosyncratic dynamic relationships from a set of panel data Aimed at applied researchers who want to learn about panel data econometrics by running statistical software this book provides clear guidance and is supported by a full range of online teaching and learning materials It includes practice sections on MATLAB STATA and GAUSS throughout along with short and simple econometric theories on basic panel regressions for those who are unfamiliar with econometric theory on traditional panel regressions

Whitaker's Cumulative Book List ,1984 The Limits of Peacekeeping: Volume 4, The Official History of Australian Peacekeeping, Humanitarian and Post-Cold War Operations Jean Bou, Bob Breen, David Horner, Garth Pratten, Miesje de Vogel, 2018-10-10 The Limits of Peacekeeping highlights the Australian government's peacekeeping efforts in Africa and the Americas from 1992 to 2005 Changing world power structures and increased international cooperation saw a boom in Australia's peacekeeping operations between 1991 and 1995 The initial optimism of this period proved to be misplaced as the limits of the United Nations and the international community to resolve deep seated problems became clear There were also limits on how many missions a middle sized country like Australia could support Restricted by the size of the armed forces and financial and geographic constraints peacekeeping was always a secondary task to ensuring the defence of Australia Faith in the effectiveness of peacekeeping reduced significantly and the election of the Howard Coalition Government in 1996 confined peacekeeping missions to the near region from 1996 2001 This volume is an authoritative and compelling history of Australia's changing attitudes towards peacekeeping Annual Session of the Pacific Logging Congress Pacific Logging Congress.
