First We Must Listen Living In A Multicultural Society:

First, We Must Listen Anne Leo Ellis,1996 First, We Must Listen Anne Leo Ellis,1996 Formation in Faith

Sondra Higgins Matthaei,2008-01-01 The ministry of congregations is to make disciples of Jesus Christ Behind that simple and seemingly self evident statement lies a problematic reality however While congregations know that disciple making is at the heart of their identity they often have trouble understanding how to go about it Apart from such traditional Christian education ministries as Sunday school too little formal thinking or planning goes into the task of forming Christians in the faith In this book Sondra Matthaei casts a vision in which congregations open up their life of faith to others as an invitation to connect the universal longing for authentic relationships and deeper meaning with the church s practice of faithful discipleship As folks enter the church s communion of grace Matthaei challenges church leaders to utilize the gifts of every member and lays out a plan to help congregations grow in faith and communion with God and creation including the context and goal of such ministry deciding what to teach and who shall teach and attendant relationships structures and practices

A House of Prayer for All Peoples Sheryl A. Kujawa-Holbrook,2002-12-31 Contrary to the oft repeated truism there are churches in America where Sunday is not the most segregated day of the week as Sheryl Kujawa Holbrook convincingly demonstrates in her compelling exploration of congregations tackling racial justice issues Yet the truism continues to haunt many congregations and Kujawa Holbrook reveals through story and thoughtful analysis what it means to create and live out multiracial community Focusing on six congregations from different denominations geographical regions and settings the author shows us the joys and struggles in their intentional pursuits of a more diverse and just community The stories in A House of Prayer for All Peoples will inspire leaders to explore their congregation s history study their community s demographics and most of all search their souls for ways they can develop and celebrate the diversity in their midst The book is capped by an extensive annotated resource list for readers who want to explore the topic further

Ethical Issues in the Communication Process J. Vernon Jensen,2013-11-05 A rapid and widespread growth of interest in applied ethics is occurring today not only in the United States but around the world as well Academia both reflects this and is a leader in the movement The field of speech communication shares in this increased sensitivity to ethical concerns Students and the general public are looking for thoughtful analyses and guidance in all areas of communication Ethical concerns relative to mass communication have been the subject of a number of books but only a very few cover the entire scope of communication to include interpersonal intercultural organizational small groups and public speaking This book tries to fill that need by discussing ethical concerns as they emerge in the areas of the communication process the communicator the message the media the audience and the situation The speech communication field now has a need to digest and synthesize the existing research findings and the general literature in the field and in related humanities and social science works into a coherent and nontechnical discussion This volume explores the most up to date materials to provide just such a synthesis An extensive bibliography at the end of the book gives readers the sources on which the book is based and offers ample avenues for further personal exploration The book should provide meaningful food for thought as readers grapple conscientiously with the many everyday decisions made in communication transactions and in evaluating the communication of others

Hearing Beyond the Words Emma J. Justes, 2010-09-01 Only when pastors hear beyond the words can they care fully minister Pastors listen all the time Or do they Listening is more than a developed skill it is an awesome gift of hospitality offered to others According to Dr Emma Justes hearing beyond the words signifies an intimate relationship characterized by humility thoughtful availability vulnerability and mutuality Listening requires focused attention and openness To help the reader learn this essential skill the author includes exercises at the end of each chapter to build needed competency for this healing ministry

Transforming Ventures Jane Ives, 2017-06-01 Trends reveal that more and more people are using vacation time to experience new things or to help others This book will help you consider how you can use your free time toward discipleship Whether you go with a construction team a traveling choir or as an individual volunteer missionary abroad you ll end up receiving more from the experience than you give Short term mission projects can change an individual s life and the ministry of any church Transforming Ventures approaches these mission opportunities with the spiritual journey at its core Ives weaves scripture personal witness statements and spiritual practices into a resource that will affect your life and the larger ministry of the church As you gain a clearer understanding of God s call in your life you ll recognize the ways God is already at work in the lives of those you seek to serve Ives s book is also an engaging study for small groups leaders of youth missionaries and individuals who long to wander

Other Esteem Philip O. Hwang, 2013-10-28 First published in 2000 Several researchers have found that self esteem is definitely not the cure all solution to our social ills On the contrary promoting self esteem may produce negative consequences Excessive promotion of the self may be the basis for various forms of discrimination in our modern multicultural society It takes others to know the self and the self needs others to succeed in life Self esteem is incomplete without other esteem Other Esteem is a creative unique and unconventional response to our society s apparent obsession with promoting the self The book is unique in that it is a direct challenge to the widespread belief that low self esteem is at the root of all social ills It describes the importance of respect tolerance group effort and connection with others to the health of the individual and gives concrete steps for individuals to take action by consciously changing their own attitudes Other Esteem will become essential reading for multicultural relations courses and any seminar where self esteem is taught It will also be useful in many other courses in counseling human development and student affairs and leadership

The Pastor in a Changing Society Zawadi Job Kinyamagoha, 2014-10-07 This book examines how social change affects the role of the pastor in an African context Through field study in African churches author Zawadi Job Kinyamagoha explores how pastors work amid the tensions of rapid social change and suggests how pastors can constructively respond to social change by using it as an opportunity in their pastoral ministry Contemporary society is characterized by three cultural spheres the economic sphere the public sphere and the democratic or self governance rule the realities of which many pastors seem to overlook Church authorities seem to adhere rigidly to strict principles and rules without accommodating the realities of society Conversely a changing society demands that pastors work with the reality at hand leaving pastors caught between two conflicting tensions the pressure from church authorities and from a changing social reality The Pastor in a Changing Society seeks to help Tanzanian and African pastors rethink existing doctrines and practices in order to better respond to the reality of a changing society Living His Story Together Hannah Steele,2024-06-20 Elegant wide ranging and encouraging a masterful book which could and should be read by every church family whose members care about their engagement with the world CHURCH TIMES In Living His Story 2020 Hannah Steele wrote with an infectious understanding of her subject Mark Oakley Church Times Now in Living His Story Together she turns her attention to mission and evangelism that is not only for individuals but for the whole local church Offering an inspiring mandate for the church to see itself as a missionary community Hannah considers the practical outworkings of that identity through engaging with scripture and current theological thinking and sharing real life stories from churches on the front line Living His Story Together isn t an argument for a particular model of church plant or parish for example but an exciting exploration of what can happen when two or three of God s missionary disciples are gathered together empowered by the Spirit and seeking to be good news in the world today It covers contemporary missional themes such as hospitality cultural engagement presence diversity and spoken witness and offers practical principles vividly enlivened by relating the imaginative and disarming ways in which ordinary churches and individuals are sharing the gospel to help us embrace the great privilege to which we have been called Newsletter Ethics and Public Policy Center (Washington, D.C.),1998
