First Contact The 21st Century Discovery Of Cannibals With Dvd:

Siberian Dreams Andy Home, 2006-09-01 Every year thousands compete to win the RGS BBC Journey of a Lifetime award and fulfill their travel dreams However Andy Home's dream would be most people's nightmare Andy went to Siberia to the Russian industrial mining city of Norilsk where temperatures drop to minus 50 half the year is spent in perpetual darkness and the pollution has destroyed all natural life Once a prison camp then a secret Soviet military city Norilsk teetered on the edge of financial and social meltdown in the early 1990s Now it is owned by one of Russia's new breed of all powerful oligarchs and is the biggest single source of common industrial metals Andy's quest was to meet the former Soviet shock workers and ask them what life is like in 21st century Russia This is a fast paced humorous and insightful account of an extraordinary journey of a lifetime

Discovery Road Andy Brown, Tim Garratt, 2012-08-01 The inspiring story of the first people to ride mountain bikes across the vast deserts of Australia the dangerous bushlands of Africa and the mountains of South America Fed up and disillusioned with corporate life Andy persuaded Tim to leave his job and cycle around the world convinced there could be more to life Their goal was to become the first people to ride mountain bikes unsupported across the three southern continents and in doing so to raise money for the charity Intermediate Technology This is a fast moving tale of self discovery full of adventure conflict humor danger and a multitude of colorful characters Much more than a travelogue it proves ordinary people can chase great dreams

The Good Life Gets Better Dorian Amos, 2006-09-01 The sequel to the bestselling book about leaving the UK for a new life in the Yukon Dorian and his growing family get gold fever start to stake land claims and prospect for gold Follow them along the learning curve about where to look for gold and how to live in this harsh climate It shows that with good humor and resilience life can only get better

First Contact Mark Anstice, 2004 This is a true story about the discovery of cannibal tribes in the 21st century It will appeal to anthropologists as much as it will to adventurers and those with a thirst for excitement and humour From the very start the team found far more hurdles than those just the jungle could throw at them In the course of their 150 mile journey by dugout canoe and foot through the southern swamp lands they dodged police encountered politically disgruntled ex head hunters and were pursued by a previously uncontacted clan of the little known Korowai tribe This was all before they had begun their arduous journey into the mountainous interior of the island and the previously unclimbed south face of Gunung Mandala the reason for their expedition An expedition far more extraordinary than they had ever imagined one that would stretch their friendship and their equipment to the limits

Managing People in Organizations Thomas Klikauer, 2018-10-06 This new and engaging core textbook offers a unique line manager perspective that presents students with HRM topics and issues that they will be confronted with once they enter the world of work in a managerial role It is a concise text that focuses on providing students with all they need to know to equip them with a comprehensive understanding of the role the non HR manager plays in the day to day running of an organization The author's deep understanding and wide ranging knowledge of the subject matter means that the text is firmly founded on the latest research while the case studies topical and international examples and experiential exercises that form a fundamental part of the book ensure that theory is always clearly applied to real world practice This text is an essential companion for MBA and postgraduate students who are studying modules on Human Resource Management or Managing People but who are non HRM specialists and do not require the exhaustive detail found in other HRM texts It is also suited for use alongside upper level undergraduate modules on these topics on mainstream business degrees

Halliwell's Film, Video & DVD Guide, 2008

Navigating Souths Michele Grigsby Coffey, Jodi Skipper, 2017-08 The work of considering imagining and theorizing the U S South in regional national and global contexts is an intellectual project that has been going on for some time Scholars in history literature and other disciplines have developed an advanced understanding of the historical social and cultural forces that have helped to shape the U S South However most of the debates on these subjects have taken place within specific academic disciplines with few attempts to cross engage Navigating Souths broadens these exchanges by facilitating transdisciplinary conversations about southern studies scholarship The fourteen original essays in Navigating Souths articulate questions about the significances of the South as a theoretical and literal home base for social science and humanities researchers They also examine challenges faced by researchers who identify as southern studies scholars as well as by those who live and work in the regional South and show how researchers have responded to these challenges In doing so this book project seeks to reframe the field of southern studies as it is currently being practiced by social science and humanities scholars and thus reshape historical and cultural conceptualizations of the region

Cannibalizing the Colony Richard Allen Gordon, 2009 The years 1992 and 2000 marked the 500 year anniversary of the arrival of the Spanish and the Portuguese in America and prompted an explosion of rewritings and cinematic renditions of texts and figures from colonial Latin America Cannibalizing the Colony analyzes a crucial way that Latin American historical films have grappled with the legacy of colonialism It studies how and why filmmakers in Brazil and Mexico the countries that have produced most films about the colonial period in Latin America appropriate and transform colonial narratives of European and indigenous contact into commentaries on national identity The book looks at how filmmakers attempt to reconfigure history and culture and incorporate it into present day understandings of the nation The book additionally considers the motivations and implications for these filmic dialogues with the past and how the directors attempt to control the way that spectators understand the complex and contentious roots of identity in Mexico and Brazil
