

First Draft

I sit and ponder all the good old days.

At the time it was the best of my life

Though it wasn't great, the nostalgia stays.

The emotions cut through you like a knife

Though it wasn't ideal, there was still wrong

My mind washes over what I don't like.

These memories made me and made me strong.

It's not enough, the serotonin spike

Who I was then is not who I am now

That girl is still me except I have built

Myself up instead of pushed myself down.

Now in my mind the flowers do not wilt.

Let yourself listen to the happiness.

Remember the wrong and become your best

First Draft Nika Turbina, 1988 Collaborative Poetry Translation W.N. Herbert, Francis R. Jones, Fiona Sampson, 2024-07-31 This volume provides an account of collaborative poetry translation in practice The book focuses on the poetrio method as a case study This process brings together the source language poet the target language poet and a language advisor serving as a bilingual mediator between the two Drawing on data from over 100 hours of recorded footage and interviews Collaborative Poetry Translation offers both qualitative and quantitative analyses of the method in practice exploring such issues as poem selection translation strategies interaction between participants and the balancing act between the different cultures at play A final chapter highlights both the practical and research implications for practices of collaborative translation This innovative work is situated in an interdisciplinary framework of collaborative translation poetry translation poetry and creative writing and it addresses concerns ranging from the ethnography of collaboration to contemporary publishing practice It will be of interest to students scholars and specialists in translation studies comparative literature literary studies and creative writing as well as creative practitioners Drafting and Assessing Poetry Sue Dymoke, 2003-04-14 Based on theory but with a practical dimension the book engages readers in current critical debates about poetry teaching and its place in an assessment driven curriculum English Poems Walter Cochrane Bronson, 1909

Why I Wrote This Poem William Walsh, 2023-01-12 An anthology of a different sort this volume presents a representative sample of contemporary American poems in 2023 with a road map of their origins Bringing a diversity of styles and sensibilities 62 poets from across the United States some well known some up and coming illuminate their craft Each poet contributes one poem accompanied by an essay discussing their creative process and how the verse came to fruition Reclaiming Writing Richard J. Meyer, Kathryn F. Whitmore, 2013-10-23 With passion clarity and rich examples Reclaiming Writing is dedicated to reawakening the journeys that writers take as they make sense of think about and speak back to their worlds in this era of high stakes testing and mandated curricula Classrooms and out of school settings are described and analyzed in exciting and groundbreaking narratives that provide insights into the many possibilities for writing that support writers searches for voice identity and agency Offering pedagogical strategies and the knowledge base in which they are grounded the book looks at writing within various areas of the curriculum and across modes of writing from traditional text based forums to digital formats Thematically based sections present the pillars of the volume s critical transactive theory learning teaching curriculum language and sociocultural contexts Each chapter is complemented by an extension that offers application possibilities for teachers in various settings Reclaiming Writing emphasizes literacy as a vehicle for exploring interrogating challenging finding self talking back to power creating a space in the world reflecting upon the past and thinking forward to a more joyful and democratic future Writing and Workshopping Poetry: A Constructive Introduction Stephen Guppy, 2016-12-07 Most texts on creative writing emphasize either sources of inspiration or strategies for editing The process of getting from initial inspiration to final draft isn't often dealt with in any practical way Writing and Workshopping Poetry focuses on all three phases of the process of composition finding the material building and developing the poem from rough draft to complete work editing and refining The text offers everything students and instructors need extensive notes written in an accessible conversational style seventy five writing exercises and about a hundred poems chosen from a wide range of sources from sixteenth century sonnets to experimental constrained forms with an emphasis on exciting poems by contemporary American and Canadian poets Each chapter concludes with a brief point form summary of major learning objectives as well as a review list of useful terms Conversations with Robert Morgan

Randall Wilhelm, Jesse Graves, 2019-10-04 Robert Morgan b 1944 is one of the most distinguished writers in southern and Appalachian literature celebrated for his novels poetry short fiction and historical and biographical writing totaling more than thirty volumes Morgan's work gives voice to the traditionally underrepresented people of southern Appalachia and his appearances in such popular venues as The Oprah Winfrey Show National Public Radio's Morning Edition and the New York Times Bestseller List have contributed to his wide readership and successful dismantling of Hollywood stereotypes that still dog the region in the nation's larger consciousness His writing makes a case for the dignity of work the beauty and terror of the landscape and the essential value of creating a community and learning to live in the world The interviews in Conversations with Robert Morgan provide readers and scholars the first stand alone book on Morgan's long and fascinating career as a master of multiple genres and make a significant contribution to the understanding of American southern and Appalachian literature and culture Collected here are five decades of interviews that cover such topics as literary influence the impact of war on family and community poetic and narrative craft the role of environmentalism in American literature and the journey from impoverished North Carolina mountain boy to award winning Ivy League professor Morgan is Kappa Alpha Professor of English at Cornell University where he has taught since 1971 Readers will learn about writing across multiple genres craft that can be learned and practiced by a writer and studying the past for those present truths that create what Morgan values most in literature a community across time The Fall of America Journals, 1965-1971 Allen

Ginsberg, 2020-11-10 An autobiographical journey through America in the turbulent 1960s the essential backstory to Ginsberg's National Book Award winning volume of poetry Published in 1974 The Fall of America was Allen Ginsberg's magnum opus a poetic account of his experiences in a nation in turmoil What his National Book Award winning volume documented he had also recorded playing a reel to reel tape machine given to him by Bob Dylan as he traveled the nation's byways and visited its cities finding himself again and again in the midst of history in the making or unmaking Through a wealth of autopoetry transcriptions of these recorded poems published here for the first time in the poet's journals of this period Ginsberg can be overheard collecting the observations events reflections and conversations that would become his most extraordinary work as he witnessed America at a time of historic upheaval and gave voice to the troubled soul at its crossroads The Fall of America Journals 1965 1971 contains some of Ginsberg's finest spontaneous writing accomplished as he pondered the best and worst his country had to offer He speaks of his anger over the war in Vietnam the continuing oppression of dissidents intractable struggles and experiments with drugs and sexuality He mourns the deaths of his friends Neal Cassady and Jack Kerouac parses the intricacies of the presidential politics of 1968 and grapples with personal and professional challenges in his daily life An essential backstory to his monumental work the journals from these years also reveal drafts of some of his most highly regarded poems including Wichita Vortex Sutra Wales Visitation On Neal's Ashes and Memory Gardens as well as poetry published here for the first time and his notes on many of his vivid and detailed dreams Transcribed edited and annotated by Michael Schumacher a writer closely associated with Ginsberg's life and work these journals are nothing less than a first draft of the poet's journey to the heart of twentieth century America Select Poems of Coleridge, Wordsworth, Campbell Longfellow Frederick Henry Sykes, 1895 Voices of the night. Ballads and other poems. Poems on slavery. The Spanish student. The belfry of Bruges and other poems. The seaside and the fireside Henry Wadsworth Longfellow, 1886 Making Poems Todd F.
