The First Dynasty of Islam Gerald R. Hawting, 1986-01
Conflict and Conquest in the Islamic World Alexander Mikaberidze, 2011-07-22 A reference work that thoroughly documents the extensive military history of the Islamic world between the 7th century and the present day. Military, political conflict and the resulting factionalism, shifts in leadership and divergent belief systems have been a constant and crucial part of the Islamic world. In order to fully grasp the cultural, social or political aspects of Islam in the modern world, it is necessary to comprehend the rich tapestry of Islamic history from pre-Islamic times to the present, much of which involved armed conflict. Conflict and Conquest in the Islamic World: A Historical Encyclopedia provides hundreds of entries on wars, revolutions, sieges, institutions, leaders, armies, weapons and other aspects of wars and military life, enabling readers to understand the complex role conflict has played in Islamic life throughout history and see how Islamic warfare has evolved over the centuries. This reference work covers not only the traditional Middle Eastern regions and countries but also provides relevant historical information regarding Islam in North Africa, Central Asia, Southeastern Asia and Oceania.

Religion and World Civilizations Andrew Holt, 2023-06-30 An indispensable resource for readers investigating how religion has influenced societies and cultures, this three-volume encyclopedia assesses and synthesizes the many ways in which religious faith has shaped societies from the ancient world to today. Each volume of the set focuses on a different era of world history, ranging through the ancient, medieval and modern worlds. Every volume is filled with essays that focus on religious themes from different geographical regions. For example, volume one includes essays considering religion in ancient Rome, while volume three features essays focused on religion in modern Africa. This accessible layout makes it easy for readers to learn more about the ways that religion and society have intersected over the centuries, as well as specific religious trends, events and milestones in a particular era and place in world history. Taken as a whole, this ambitious and wide-ranging work gathers more than 500 essays from more than 150 scholars who share their expertise and knowledge about religious faiths, tenets, people, places and events that have influenced the development of civilization over the course of recorded human history.

Ganz im Sinne Beckers ist das Ziel der Studien die Erforschung der vergangenen Gesellschaften des Vorderen Orients, ihrer Glaubenssysteme und der zugrundeliegenden sozialen und ökonomischen Verhältnisse von der Iberischen Halbinsel bis nach

Zentralasien von den ukrainischen Steppen zum Hochland des Jemen über die grundlegende philologische Arbeit an der literarischen Überlieferung hinaus nutzen die Studien die archivalischen sowie materiellen und archäologischen Überlieferungen als Quelle für die gesamte Bandbreite der historisch arbeitenden Geistes und Sozialwissenschaften When Christians First Met Muslims Michael Philip Penn, 2015-03-21 The first Christians to meet Muslims were not Latin speaking Christians from the western Mediterranean or Greek speaking Christians from Constantinople but rather Christians from northern Mesopotamia who spoke the Aramaic dialect of Syriac Living in what constitutes modern day Iran Iraq Syria and eastern Turkey these Syriac Christians were under Muslim rule from the seventh century to the present They wrote the earliest and most extensive accounts of Islam and described a complicated set of religious and cultural exchanges not reducible to the solely antagonistic Through its critical introductions and new translations of this invaluable historical material When Christians First Met Muslims allows scholars students and the general public to explore the earliest interactions of what eventually became the world's two largest religions shedding new light on Islamic history and Christian Muslim relations

After-Mission, Beyond Evangelicalism Najib George Awad, 2020-11-04 After Mission touches on three questions The first question is about self perception and identity formation strategies and the various views that we have on the Protestants relation to their Arab Muslim Middle Eastern context This will furnish the basis for the ensuing parts as it will provide the study with coherent and analytical readings of the cultural situation and intellectual views of the Arab Eastern

Protestants in their Sitz im Leben from the perspective of the hermeneutic tripod of identity othering relationality The second question about the theological dimension asks what kind of a theological discourse do the Protestants need to develop and how do they need to re form their own theological heritage in such a manner that will allow them to heal the historical enmity and suspicion towards them from the Eastern Orthodox Christian community in the region How should they re think their traditional view on theological subjects common to them and the Eastern Christian tradition Traditional Protestant attitudes towards Eastern Christianity which have been viewed through the lens of evangelicalism and mission have failed to grant the Protestants an influential and truly indigenous presence in the region and have led to them being constantly accused of being a foreign transplant and alien entity In the light of this it is clear that going beyond missiology and traditional evangelicalism demands re thinking certain mutually shared but contentious theological subjects from a new perspective with the focus on more constructive attempts to build fellowship through dialogue Finally the third question touches on the Protestants future in the Arab Muslim Middle East by viewing this inquiry from a broader perspective that is related to all the Middle Eastern Christian communities presence and role in the Muslim majority context It will discuss questions about the kind of presence and role that Christians Protestants included should hope to play in order to guarantee survival and a continuing presence in the region The question of identity formation and the managing of difference without trapping it in the mud of otherizing and self otherizing will also be tackled so that the theological dimension is integrated with the broader multifaceted contextual one

Berkey, 2003 Jonathan Berkey s 2003 book surveys the religious history of the peoples of the Near East from roughly 600 to 1800 CE The opening chapter examines the religious scene in the Near East in late antiquity and the religious traditions which preceded Islam Subsequent chapters investigate Islam s first century and the beginnings of its own traditions the classical period from the accession of the Abbasids to the rise of the Buyid amirs and thereafter the emergence of new forms of Islam in the middle period Throughout close attention is paid to the experiences of Jews and Christians as well as Muslims The book stresses that Islam did not appear all at once but emerged slowly as part of a prolonged process whereby it was differentiated from other religious traditions and indeed that much that we take as characteristic of Islam is in fact the product of the medieval period

The History of Jihad Robert Spencer, 2018 It is taken for granted even among many Washington policymakers that Islam is a fundamentally peaceful religion and that Islamic jihad terrorism is something relatively new a product of the economic and political ferment of the twentieth century But in The History of Jihad From Muhammad to ISIS Islamic scholar Robert Spencer proves definitively that Islamic terror is as old as Islam itself as old as Muhammad the prophet of Islam who said I have been made victorious through terror Spencer briskly traces the 1 400 year war of Islamic jihadis against the rest of the world detailing the jihad against Europe including the 700 year struggle to conquer Constantinople the jihad in Spain where non Muslims fought for another 700 years to get the jihadi invaders out of the country and the jihad against India where Muslim warriors and conquerors wrought unparalleled and unfathomable devastation in the name of their religion Told in great part in the words of contemporary chroniclers themselves both Muslim and non Muslim The History of Jihad shows that jihad warfare has been a constant of Islam from its very beginnings and present day jihad terrorism proceeds along exactly the same ideological and theological foundations as did the great Islamic warrior states and jihad commanders of the past

The History of Jihad From Muhammad to ISIS is the first one volume history of jihad in the English language and the first book to tell the whole truth about Islam's bloody history in an age when Islamic jihadis are more assertive in Western countries than they have been for centuries This book is indispensable to understanding the geopolitical situation of the twenty first century and ultimately to formulating strategies to reform Islam and defeat radical terror

The Origins of Judaism, Christianity and Islam John Pickard, 2021-12-22 There has never been a more important time for a study of the social economic and political origins of Judaism Christianity and Islam three important world religions which share a common root This book takes as its starting point the idea that gods angels miracles and other supernatural phenomena do not exist in the real world and therefore cannot explain the origins of these faiths It looks instead at the material conditions at appropriate periods in antiquity and the social and economic forces at work and it examines the historicity of key figures like Moses Jesus and Mohammed This is a unique book which draws on the research knowledge and expertise of hundreds of historians archaeologists and scholars to create a synthesis that is completely coherent and at the same time is based on real world social conditions It is a book by a non believer for other non believers and it will be a revelatory read even to those already of an atheist agnostic or secularist persuasion

Envisioning Islam Michael Philip Penn, 2015-06-05 The first Christians to encounter Islam were not Latin speakers from the western Mediterranean or Greek speakers from Constantinople but Mesopotamian Christians who spoke the Aramaic dialect of Syriac Under Muslim rule from the seventh century onward Syriac Christians wrote the most extensive descriptions extant of early Islam Seldom translated and often omitted from modern historical reconstructions this vast body of texts reveals a complicated and evolving range of religious and cultural exchanges that took place from the seventh to the ninth century The first book length analysis of these earliest encounters Envisioning Islam highlights the ways these neglected texts challenge the modern scholarly narrative of early Muslim conquests rulers and religious practice Examining Syriac sources including letters theological tracts scientific treatises and histories Michael Philip Penn reveals a culture of substantial interreligious interaction in which the categorical boundaries between Christianity and Islam were more ambiguous than distinct The diversity of ancient Syriac images of Islam he demonstrates revolutionizes our understanding of the early Islamic world and challenges widespread cultural assumptions about the history of exclusively hostile Christian Muslim relations

Violence in Early Islam Marco Demichelis, 2021-03-25 The concept of jihad holds a prominent place in Islamic thought and history Beyond its spiritual meanings the term has historically been associated with the sweeping Arab Believers conquests of the 7th century BCE But given advances in our understanding of the historicity and chronology of the Qur'an and early Islamic texts is it correct to identify jihad and Islam with violent conquest In this book Marco Demichelis explores the history of the concept of jihad in the early proto Islamic centuries 7th-8th Deploying an interdisciplinary approach which combines the hermeneutical study of the famous Verses of the Sword within the Qur'an itself with historical writing by Islamic chroniclers as well as non Islamic sources numismatics epigraphical and architectural evidence the book questions the relationship between the religious concept of jihad and the conquests The book argues that Christian Byzantine Foederati forces who previously fought against the Persians may have had a formative effect on the later emergence of more bellicose rhetoric In so doing it calls into question assumptions about warlike attitudes inherent within Islamic doctrine and reveals a more nuanced and complicated history of religious violence in the pre proto and early Islamic period

Twelver Shiism Andrew J. Newman, 2013-11-20 Charts the history and development of Twelver Shiism As many as 40 different Shi'i groups existed in the 9th and 10th centuries only 3 forms remain Why is Twelver Shiism one of them As the established faith in modern Iran the majority faith in Iraq and areas in the Gulf and with its adherents forming sizeable minorities elsewhere in the region it is arguably the most successful branch of Shiism Andrew Newman charts the history Twelver Shiism uncovering the development of the key distinctive doctrines and practices which ensured its survival in the face of repeated challenges He argues that the key to the faith's endurance has been its ability to institutionalise responses to the changing often localised circumstances in which the community has found itself thereby remaining remarkably resilient in the face of both internal disagreements and external opposition

Creating an Islamic City Rana Mikati, 2024-03-04 In Creating an Islamic City Beirut Jihad and the Sacred Rana Mikati examines for the first time the role and contribution of Beirut to the Umayyad and early Abbasid caliphates This book traces the transformation of Beirut from a Byzantine metropolis to a place of rib weaving previously unpublished archaeological material and narrative sources By examining Beirut's transformation into a frontier town the rise of a scholarly community around the Syrian jurist al-Awz'ī (157-773/774) and its integration in an Islamic sacred landscape Creating an Islamic City

Islamic Legal Theory
