explores the historical contextualization of Nietzsche's thought focusing on Nietzsche's controversial Thus Spoke Zarathustra. The fourth part of Nietzsche's Zarathustra consists of Zarathustra's encounter with eight higher men whom Zarathustra meets in succession on his path during the day. The prophet then invites each individual to his cave for the evening festivities culminating in a blasphemous festival in which his guests worship an ass as God. Revealing each guest's specific characteristics and very distinct roles, Santaniello also attempts to discern who these guests are or represent historically through glimpsing the characteristics specific to each representative guest as portrayed by Nietzsche and through careful textual analysis, comparison with Nietzsche's other works, historical evidence, and previous scholarly research. This unique exploration of Thus Spoke Zarathustra offers students and researchers alike an invaluable new contribution to Nietzsche studies.

Report from a Last Survivor Fred Harris, 2024-09-01 Fred Harris is the last surviving member of the Kerner Rights Commission famously created by President Lyndon Johnson following the terrible riots, disorders, and violent protests that exploded in so many of America's cities in the long hot summer of 1967. He is the last survivor of the 1964 Four Back Bench US Senators which consisted of Walter Mondale of Minnesota, Joseph Tydings of Maryland, Fred Harris of Oklahoma, and Robert Kennedy of New York. He is also the senior surviving former member of the US Senate and one of two last surviving Democratic presidential candidates to run in 1976, the other being President Jimmy Carter Jr. Report from a Last Survivor tells Fred Harris's many stories, some serious, some funny, and all true. Each story forms a part of this report of a last survivor, a long look back over ninety-three years and counting of a rich life of public service and personal commitment.

Gandhi at First Sight Thomas Weber, 2015-01-05 Meeting the Mahatma was a special moment for most of the people who captured it later in memorable prose. Gandhi at First Sight is a collection of such heartfelt moments of people from Sarojini Naidu to Katherine Mayo and from Romain Rolland to Charlie Chaplin, of an experience that was profound and sometimes even life-changing. In Gandhi at First Sight, Tom Weber has executed a simple yet brilliant concept with a masterly touch, an impressive understanding of the varied individuals whose first impressions of Gandhi he has included, and an enriching introduction. Rajmohan Gandhi, Weber shows with an astonishing array of first meeting accounts precisely how Gandhi forged relationships from the beginning by making indelible initial impressions. This book brings us incomparably closer to comprehending Gandhi's extraordinary personal power. Dennis Dalton, Columbia University, New York. Thomas Weber brings to life the memories of meetings. These first-person autobiographical accounts provide glimpses of the private world of friendship of being a disciple and a pathfinder. Tridip Suhrud, Director, Sabarmati Ashram Preservation Memorial Trust. With Gandhi gone two-thirds of a century, we have been in danger of losing touch with a man who was the most intriguing figure of his time. Now, however, we have these unique accounts of encounters with him that allow Gandhi to reach across the decades.
