Journal of Applied Rehabilitation Counseling, 1995      Higher Education in the United States James J. F. Forest, Kevin Kinser, 2002-06-21

Surveys the changing landscape of American higher education from academic freedom to virtual universities from campus crime to Pell Grants from the Student Privacy Act to student diversity In the years following World War II college and university enrollment doubled students revolted faculty unionized and community colleges evolved Tuition and technology soared as did the number of first generation minority and women students These changes radically transformed the American system of postsecondary education Today that system is in trouble Its aging professoriate prepares for retirement but low academic salaries can no longer attract the best minds to replace them A flood of corporate dollars funds commercial research but money for basic research the seedbed of American scientific preeminence has dried up Colleges and universities also face heated competition with for profit education providers for students faculty and external financial support along with the costs of providing remedial education to growing numbers of students who are unprepared for postsecondary education

Higher Education in the United States provides a comprehensive analysis of these issues and others that scholars and practitioners of higher education study discuss and grapple with on a daily basis

Innovative Techniques for Large-group Instruction National Science Teachers Association, 2002

Size does matter When you re faced with a class of 50 150 or even 250 college students it s tough to head off boredom much less promote higher order thinking and inquiry skills But it s not impossible thanks to the professor tested techniques in this collection of 14 articles from the Journal of College Science Teaching The book starts by examining what research shows about the effectiveness of popular teaching styles Surprise Lectures don t stimulate active learning From there the authors offer proven alternatives that range from small scale innovations to completely revamped teaching methods Suggested strategies include using quizzes in place of midterms and finals student forums interactive lectures collaborative groups group facilitators and e mail and computer technology

A Disciplinary Blueprint for the Assessment of Information Literacy Dorothy Anne Warner, 2008-06-30

Have you ever worried that literature on library instruction deals more with methods of assessing student attitude than student learning If so you ll be glad to know someone is doing something about it Eight unique disciplinary modules are presented each identifying a series of information literacy objectives developed in accordance with Bloom s Taxonomy of Cognitive Objectives A substantive curriculum map embedded within each module lists the sequence of courses required for the disciplinary major and the level at which the course is taught sophomore junior etc notes whether information literacy instruction is currently taught by the library for that particular course and delineates the specific information literacy learning objectives the students must master in order to fulfill the course assignments Collaborative responsibility for teaching the information literacy skills is also outlined with specific recommendations for ways the library can strengthen its support for the specific discipline In addition assessment methodologies are identified including scoring rubrics designed specifically for the disciplinary information literacy objectives An indispensable resource for academic librarians ready to take the leap from episodic reactive response to programmatic sequenced integration into the curriculum Higher Education, 1981 Higher Education D. Kent Halstead, 1981 Models for Improving College Teaching Jon E. Travis, 1997 This report presents a collection of teaching models to help college faculty improve their teaching Six categories of teaching models are presented 1 assessment and feedback models including the Classroom Assessment model created by Angelo and Cross and already widely used among community college faculty 2 discussion and sharing models such as the Great Teachers Seminar which provide faculty with an event and an environment especially conducive to sharing ideas among colleagues 3 dissemination models which dispense an extensive assortment of ideas to large audiences of faculty 4 clinical development models such as the Instructional Skills Workshop which uses a laboratory setting common to teacher preparation programs 5 teaching and learning models such as Anderson's Adaptive Control of Thinking model which describes the learning process and presents specific procedures to facilitate specific learning types and 6 instructional planning models such as Gagne's Instructional Event Design that can help the faculty member through the process of course and lesson planning Three appendixes provide teaching resource lists and sample questions using classification systems Contains approximately 240 references MDM Your College Experience, Two-Year College Edition John N.
