First World War In Posters:

Picture This Pearl James, 2009 Essays by Jay Winter Jeffrey T Schnapp Jennifer D Keene and others reveal the centrality of visual media particularly the poster within the specific national contexts of Britain France Germany Russia and the United States during World War I Ultimately posters were not merely representations of popular understanding of the war but instruments influencing the Posters of the First World War David Bownes, Robert Fleming, 2014-07-10 The First World War a new low in the annals of armed conflict coincided with a golden age for the relatively new art of advertising Striking and colourful posters were produced throughout the years 1914 18 to recruit soldiers promote investment keep up morale and naturally to vilify the enemy prominent artists including Alfred Leete paired bold images with punchy text to maximise impact The selection in this book offers an informative guide to the range of posters created and to how they were displayed around the nation and explores the public s increasing dissatisfaction with being patronised and goaded From the iconic commanding Your Country Needs YOU to the anxious domestic scene of Daddy What Did YOU Do in the War and including the infamous depiction of a bayoneting in Back Him Up this book puts the reader in the shoes of the Great War man in the street World War I in 40 Posters Ann P. Linder, 2016-04-01 Published during the war s centennial this is the story of the First World War through forty propaganda posters Essays explain each poster unpacking the visual imagery and setting the poster within the military political social and cultural history of the war The First World War in Posters Joseph Darracott, 1974 Patriotic Culture in Russia During World War I Hubertus Jahn, 1998 A cultural history charting the rise and fall of Russian patriotism during the first few years of the Great War Illustrated with period prints posters and broadsides the book traces the evolution of patriotic symbolism in popular entertainments and cultural production War Posters Issued by Belligerent and Neutral Nations 1914-1919 Martin Hardie, Arthur Knowles Sabin, 1920 British Art and the First World War, 1914-1924 James Fox, 2015-07-30 Overturning decades of scholarly orthodoxies James Fox makes a bold new argument about the First World War s cultural consequences The Oxford Illustrated History of the First World War Hew Strachan, 2016 A team of some of the world s most distinguished First World War historians chart the causes course and profound political and human consequences of a conflict that changed the world Edinburgh Companion to the First World War and the Arts Ann-Marie Einhaus, 2017-05-24 A new exploration of literary and artistic responses to WW1 from 1914 to the present This authoritative reference work examines literary and artistic responses to the wars upheavals across a wide range of media and genres from poetry to pamphlets sculpture to television documentary and requiems to war reporting Rather than looking at particular forms of artistic expression in isolation and focusing only on the war and inter war period the 26 essays collected in this volume approach artistic responses to the war from a wide variety of angles and where appropriate pursue their inquiry into the present day In 6 sections covering Literature the Visual Arts Music Periodicals and Journalism Film and Broadcasting and Publishing and Material Culture a wide range of original chapters from experts across literature and the arts examine what means and approaches were employed to respond to the shock of war as well as asking such key questions as how and why literary and artistic responses to the war have changed over time and how far later works of art are responses not only to the war itself but to earlier cultural production Key Features Offers new insights into the breadth and depth of artistic responses to WWI Establishes links and parallels across a wide range of different media and genres Emphasises the development of responses in different fields from 1914 to the present
