Revisiting Italy Rebecca Butler,2021-05-05 With the rise of mass tourism Italy became increasingly accessible to Victorian women travellers not only as a locus of artistic culture but also as a site of political enquiry Despite being outwardly denied a political voice in Britain many female tourists were conspicuous in their commitment to the Italian campaign for national independence or Risorgimento 1815 61 Revisiting Italy brings several previously unexamined travel accounts by women to light during a decisive period in this political campaign Revealing the wider currency of the Risorgimento in British literature Butler situates once popular but now marginalized writers Clotilda Stisted Janet Robertson Mary Pasqualino Selina Bunbury Margaret Dunbar and Frances Minto Elliot alongside more prominent figures the Shelley Byron circle the Brownings Florence Nightingale and the Kemble sisters Going beyond the travel book she analyses a variety of forms of travel writing including unpublished letters privately printed accounts and periodical serials Revisiting Italy focuses on the convergence of political advocacy gender ideologies national identity and literary authority in women s travel writing Whether promoting nationalism through a maternal lens politicizing the pilgrimage motif or reviving gothic representations of a revolutionary Italy it identifies shared touristic discourses as temporally contingent shaped by commercial pressures and the volatile political climate at home and abroad

The Improbable First Century of Cosmopolitan Magazine James Landers,2010-11-01 Today monthly issues of Cosmopolitan magazine scream out to readers from checkout counters and newsstands With bright covers and bold sexy headlines this famous periodical targets young single women aspiring to become the quintessential Cosmo girl Cosmopolitan is known for its vivacious character and frank explicit attitude toward sex yet because of its reputation many people don t realize that the magazine has undergone many incarnations before its current one including family literary magazine and muckraking investigative journal and all are presented in The Improbable First Century of Cosmopolitan Magazine The book boasts one particularly impressive contributor Helen Gurley Brown herself who rarely grants interviews but spoke and corresponded with James Landers to aid in his research When launched in 1886 Cosmopolitan was a family literary magazine that published quality fiction children s stories and homemaking tips In 1889 it was rescued from bankruptcy by wealthy entrepreneur John Brisben Walker who introduced illustrations and attracted writers such as Mark Twain Willa Cather and H G Wells Then when newspaper magnate William Randolph Hearst purchased Cosmopolitan in 1905 he turned it into a purveyor of expos journalism to aid his personal political pursuits But when Hearst abandoned those ambitions he changed the magazine in the 1920s back to a fiction periodical featuring leading writers such as Theodore Dreiser Sinclair Lewis and William Somerset Maugham His approach garnered success by the 1930s but poor editing sunk Cosmo s readership as decades went on By the mid 1960s executives considered letting Cosmopolitan die but Helen Gurley Brown an ambitious and savvy businesswoman submitted a plan for a dramatic editorial makeover Gurley

Brown took the helm and saved Cosmopolitan by publishing articles about topics other women's magazines avoided Twenty years later when the magazine ended its first century Cosmopolitan was the profit center of the Hearst Corporation and a culturally significant force in young women's lives The Improbable First Century of Cosmopolitan Magazine explores how Cosmopolitan survived three near death experiences to become one of the most dynamic and successful magazines of the twentieth century Landers uses a wealth of primary source materials to place this important magazine in the context of history and depict how it became the cultural touchstone it is today This book will be of interest not only to modern Cosmo aficionados but also to journalism students news historians and anyone interested in publishing ADA, 1990 Air Defense Artillery, 1991 Campus Hate Speech on Trial Timothy C.
